Driven Wild Paul S. Sutter,2009-11-23 In its infancy the movement to protect wilderness areas in the United States was motivated less by perceived threats from industrial and agricultural activities than by concern over the impacts of automobile owners seeking recreational opportunities in wild areas Countless commercial and government purveyors vigorously promoted the mystique of travel to breathtakingly scenic places and roads and highways were built to facilitate such travel By the early 1930s New Deal public works programs brought these trends to a startling crescendo The dilemma faced by stewards of the nation s public lands was how to protect the wild qualities of those places while accommodating and often encouraging automobile based tourism By 1935 the founders of the Wilderness Society had become convinced of the impossibility of doing both In Driven Wild Paul Sutter traces the intellectual and cultural roots of the modern wilderness movement from about 1910 through the 1930s with tightly drawn portraits of four Wilderness Society founders Aldo Leopold Robert Sterling Yard Benton MacKaye and Bob Marshall Each man brought a different background and perspective to the advocacy for wilderness preservation yet each was spurred by a fear of what growing numbers of automobiles aggressive road building and the meteoric increase in Americans turning to nature for their leisure would do to the country s wild places As Sutter discovered the founders of the Wilderness Society were driven wild pushed by a rapidly changing country to construct a new preservationist ideal Sutter demonstrates that the birth of the movement to protect wilderness areas reflected a growing belief among an important group of conservationists that the modern forces of capitalism industrialism urbanism and mass consumer culture were gradually eroding not just the ecology of North America but crucial American values as well For them wilderness stood for something deeply sacred that was in danger of being lost so that the movement to protect it was about saving not just wild nature but ourselves as well      Trailsmen 199: Wyoming Wildcats Jon Sharpe, 1998-07-01 Skye Fargo rides to the rescue through a trail of blood Reluctantly playing guide to two lady surveyors Trailsmen Skye Fargo faces hardship hunger and hostile enemies in order to lead his employers through Wyoming Territory Seeking suitable land for a horde of unwanted settlers the surveyors choose Wind River Range a stretch of land Fargo calls home for their site But Fargo's troubles are just beginning One of the surveyors disappears believed to be kidnapped by vengeful Utes and Fargo finds himself in the middle of a war between Indians and whites a war it would take more than a fast draw to fight his way out of      Utah Trails Northern Region Peter Massey, Jeanne Wilson, 2007-02 This handy 6x9 guidebook is a new full color volume that navigates 1153 miles of backcountry trails in Northern Utah near the towns of Vernal Logan Salt Lake City Price Wendover Beaver and Milford See ghost towns old mines and mill workings old railroads and stage lines along the 35 off road trails Directions include GPS coordinates and all trails are rated for difficulty mileage driving time remoteness and more Descriptions highlight places to camp hike mountain bike fish and sightsee Histories recount the days of the Wild West
