

Death's Head Hussars

By a decree dated 12 June 1792, the Convention authorised the levying of a corps with two companies of Hussars. Like the others it did not last long. Joined to the Equality Hussars, they formed the 13th Chasseurs à Cheval, but the formation was delayed. They finally formed the 14th Chasseurs à Cheval. In spite of its short existence and a strength of around 300 cavalymen, this corps of Hussars fired the imagination of contemporaries and uniformologists so much, that it is the most represented of the Republic's hussar units.
