Deaths For The Ladies:

Deaths for the Ladies, and Other Disasters Norman Mailer, 1962 Deaths for the Ladies, and Other Disasters Norman Mailer, 1962 The Dead Ladies Project Jessa Crispin, 2015-09-22 When Jessa Crispin was thirty she burned her settled Chicago life to the ground and took off for Berlin with a pair of suitcases and no plan beyond leaving Half a decade later she's still on the road in search not so much of a home as of understanding a way of being in the world that demands neither constant struggle nor complete surrender The Dead Ladies Project is an account of that journey but it's also much more Fascinated by exile Crispin travels an itinerary of key locations in its literary map of places that have drawn writers who needed to break free from their origins and start afresh As she reflects on William James struggling through despair in Berlin Nora Barnacle dependant on and dependable for James Joyce in Trieste Maud Gonne fomenting revolution and fostering myth in Dublin or Igor Stravinsky starting over from nothing in Switzerland Crispin interweaves biography incisive literary analysis and personal experience into a rich meditation on the complicated interactions of place personality and society that can make escape and reinvention such an attractive even intoxicating proposition Personal and profane funny and fervent The Dead Ladies Project ranges from the nineteenth century to the present from historical figures to brand new hangovers in search ultimately of an answer to a bedrock question How does a person decide how to live their life

Deaths for the Ladies, Etc. [Verse.]. Norman Mailer, 1962 The Many Deaths of Danny Rosales and Other Plays Carlos Morton, 1983-12-01 This is Carlos Morton's first collection of plays the fruit of a ten year journey that took him from the turmoil of agit prop theatre to a fellowship with the National Repertory Theatre and advanced academic degrees in drama The works included here have been produced before audiences which have varied from San Diego Park pedestrians to Harvard University faculty and students In his lighter works Morton has proven himself to be the master of the incongruous the prince of satire and the poet laureate of the unexpected and comic in daily speech His serious plays like The Many Deaths of Danny Rosales confront audiences with gripping appeals for justice Whether as a humorist or a tragedian one note characterizes Morton's works unfettered expansive imagination Bulletin of the Department of Labor, 1898 Annual Report of the Registrar-General of Births, Deaths and Marriages in England, 1877 Medievalism and Reception Dr Ellie Crookes, Ika Willis, Ellie Crookes, 2024-12-03 The relationship between medievalism and reception explored via a rich variety of case studies At the intersection of the twin fields of medievalism and reception studies is the timely and fascinating question of how a contested past is deployed in the context of a conflicted and contradictory present Despite their shared roots and a fundamental orientation towards the entanglement of past and present the term reception is rarely taken up in medievalist scholarship and they have developed along parallel but divergent lines evolving their own emphases problematics sensibilities vocabularies and critical tools This book is the first to reunite these two fields Its introduction and first chapter clearly set out their tangled intellectual and disciplinary histories The ten essays that follow reflect upon the relationship between medievalism and reception in theory and in practice through thematically temporally and geographically expansive case studies engaging with theories of translation postcolonialism fan studies persona studies and Indigenous studies Individual topics examined include the cultural impact of Robin Hood the Tulsa race massacre the crusades in the nineteenth century later representations of Chaucer's works Victorian representations of Anne Boleyn and media such as Star Wars and Game of Thrones As a whole this collection models and demonstrates the value of a new and self-aware approach to medievalism enriched by a conscious and critical redeployment of reception theories and methodologies
