Deathtraps The Postmodern Comedy Thriller:

Deathtraps Marvin Carlson, 1993 Shows the comedy thriller to be a singularly postmodern form This work examines various elements of the thriller openings settings characters plot lines the role of the audience and endings and shows how they work to overturn the conventions of realism in detective drama American Drama and the Postmodern , Drama and the Postmodern , Postmodernism Deborah L. Madsen, 1995 This is the first bibliography of Postmodernism to take account of work published in all subject areas and in all languages Deborah Madsen has identified a new first occurrence of the term in 1926 preceding by more than twenty years the first occurrence documented by the Oxford English Dictionary In a chronological listing books articles notes letters and working papers on Postmodernism are described with full bibliographical details Reviews of major books are documented and full contents listings are given for special issues of journals devoted to Postmodernism An appendix includes books on Postmodernism announced for publication in 1995 This bibliography brings together in one place all secondary material published on Postmodernism All disciplines are included from anthropology to zoology architecture cultural studies dance drama feminism fiction geography history legal studies literary theory mathematics medicine music pedagogical theory philosophy photography and film poetry politics religion sociology the visual and plastic arts and others The bibliography also documents items in a range of languages other than English Chinese French German Italian Japanese Russian Slovenian Spanish and the Scandinavian languages Access to the information contained in the bibliography is made easy with a comprehensive index providing guidance according to author subject language and key words Postmodernism A Bibliography 1926 1994 is an essential reference text for anyone working in the area of contemporary culture studies Detecting Texts Patricia Merivale, Susan Elizabeth Sweeney, 2011-06-07 Although readers of detective fiction ordinarily expect to learn the mystery's solution at the end there is another kind of detective story the history of which encompasses writers as diverse as Poe Borges Robbe Grillet Auster and Stephen King that ends with a question rather than an answer The detective not only fails to solve the crime but also confronts insoluble mysteries of interpretation and identity As the contributors to Detecting Texts contend such stories belong to a distinct genre the metaphysical detective story in which the detective hero's inability to interpret the mystery inevitably casts doubt on the reader's similar attempt to make sense of the text and the world Detecting Texts includes an introduction by the editors that defines the metaphysical detective story and traces its history from Poe's classic tales to today's postmodernist experiments In addition to the editors contributors include Stephen Bernstein Joel Black John T Irwin Jeffrey T Nealon and others

Tom Stoppard Daniel Keith Jernigan, 2012-11-08 Tom Stoppard is justly famous for his innovative theatrical techniques Daniel Jernigan argues that while much of Tom Stoppard's early work Rosencrantz and Guildenstern Are Dead and The Real Inspector Hound for instance is postmodern the remainder of his career essentially tracks backward from there becoming late modernist in the 1970s Travesties and fully modernist in the 80s and 90s The Real Thing and Arcadia This pattern also makes sense of Stoppard's recent and uncharacteristic foray into dramatic realism with The Coast of Utopia 2002 and Rock n Roll 2006 at which point the playwright seems to embrace the more straightforward rhetorical advantages of literary realism

until relatively late in his career when his drama sought to explicitly address questions of political dissent and torture by totalitarian regimes The book revisits some familiar territories such as Pinter's place as a British absurdist and the role memory plays in his work but it also sets out to explore new territories such as Pinter's changing attitudes towards gender in the light of MeToo and queer politics and how in particular a play such as The Caretaker 1960 through several key productions has brought the issues of race into sharper focus Part of the Routledge Modern and Contemporary Dramatist series Harold Pinter provides an essential and accessible guide to the dramatist's work Comedy Meghan Duffy, Daniel Charles Gerould, 2006 An essential guide and resource providing authors' titles and publication data for over a thousand books and articles devoted to this most elusive of genres The English Crime Play in the Twentieth Century Beatrix Hesse, 2015-08-02 This is the first comprehensive study of the English crime play presenting a survey of 250 plays performed in the London West End between 1900 and 2000 The first part is historically orientated while the second one establishes a tentative poetics of the genre The third part presents an analysis of some 20 plays adapted from detective fiction Theatre Studies, 1994 Discourse, 1993 TDR, 1993
