Discourse and Power in a Multilingual World Adrian Blackledge, 2005-01-01 In Discourse and Power in a Multilingual World the discourse of politicians and policy makers in Britain links languages other than English and therefore speakers of these languages with civil disorder and threats to democracy citizenship and nationhood These powerful arguments travel along chains of discourse until they gain the legitimacy of the state and are inscribed in law The particular focus of this volume is on discourse linking race riots in England in 2001 with the Nationality Immigration and Asylum Act 2002 which extended legislation to test the English language proficiency of British citizenship applicants Adrian Blackledge develops a theoretical and methodological framework which draws on critical discourse analysis to reveal the linguistic character of social and cultural processes and structures on Bakhtin's notion of the dialogic nature of discourse to demonstrate how voices progressively gain authority and on Bourdieu's model of symbolic domination to illuminate the way in which linguistic minority speakers may be complicit in the misrecognition or valorisation of the dominant language

Intercultural

Movements Keith Harvey, 2014-07-16 How was American gay liberation received in France between the events of Stonewall and the AIDS crisis? What part did translations of American gay fiction play in this reception? How might the various intercultural movements that characterize the French response to American gay be conceptualized as translational? Intercultural Movements attempts to answer these questions by situating detailed analyses of key textual and paratextual dimensions of selected translations within an understanding of the French fascination in the 1970s with the model of gay emancipation in the United States. Through an examination of the translations of Andrew Holleran's Dancer from the Dance, John Rechy's Rushes and Larry Kramer's Faggots, the book explores the dynamic of attraction, assimilation, transformation and rejection that characterizes French attitudes at the time. In particular, representations of the figure of the queen of the effeminate homosexual are identified as particularly sensitive textual zones for understanding French views on homosexual emancipation in the light of American developments. Key figures involved in these debates include translators, academics and activists such as Alain Emanuel, Dreuilhe, Michel Foucault, Guy Hocquenghem, Brice Matthieussent, Philippe Mikriammos and Georges Michel Sarotte, many of whom lived out the translational pressures of the time through various types of physical as well as textual displacement into the foreign space. More broadly, the book envisages using translation and translatedness as the paradigm case for all sorts of intercultural traffic while also intimating the possibility of an intercultural studies predicated upon a vision of cultural spaces as necessarily traversed and constituted by misrecognitions of cultural others.
