The Cambridge Companion to Australian Literature Elizabeth Webby, 2000-08-21 An indispensable reference for the study of Australian literature Fears and Fantasies Kate Murphy, 2010 Fears and Fantasies Modernity Gender and the Rural Urban Divide explores the ways in which fantasies about returning to or revitalising rural life helped to define Western modernity in the early twentieth century Scholarship addressing responses to modernity has focused on urban space and fears about the effects of city life few studies have considered the rural to be as critical as the urban in understanding modernity This book argues that the rural is just as significant a reference point as the urban in discourses about modernity Using a rich Australian case study to illuminate broader international themes it focuses on the role of gender in ideas about the rural urban divide showing how the country was held up against the unnatural city as a space in which men were more masculine and women more feminine Fears and Fantasies is an innovative and important contribution to scholarship in the fields of history and gender studies Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing Kelly Boyd, 2019-10-09 The Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing contains over 800 entries ranging from Lord Acton and Anna Comnena to Howard Zinn and from Herodotus to Simon Schama Over 300 contributors from around the world have composed critical assessments of historians from the beginning of historical writing to the present day including individuals from related disciplines like Jürgen Habermas and Clifford Geertz whose theoretical contributions have informed historical debate Additionally the Encyclopedia includes some 200 essays treating the development of national regional and topical historiographies from the Ancient Near East to the history of sexuality In addition to the Western tradition it includes substantial assessments of African Asian and Latin American historians and debates on gender and subaltern studies
