Decade In Borneo:

A Decade in Borneo Ada Pryer, 2001-01-01 In 1878 a German named Overbeck and an Englishman named Dent travelled to North Borneo now Sabah announced to the locals that their ruler the Sultan of Brunei had sold all trade rights in the region and left a young man named William Pryer to establish the British North Borneo Company there In 1894 Ada Pryer who had married William in 1883 published her account of his early years as an administrator along with some sketches of their life together The result is a lively vivid and compelling narrative The only book aimed at presenting North Borneo appealingly to British audiences and thus capturing their political support for the British commercial presence there Ada's little book functioned as a kind of immigration manual about a land where snakes were scarce and moonlight was plentiful The memoir has value both as a travel narrative in its own right and for understanding the international politics of the British takeover of North Borneo This new edition reproduces the text of the original 1894 edition and includes an introductory essay as well as annotations to explain and contextualize references of historical and biographical significance BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved A Decade in Borneo Ada Pryer ("Mrs. W.B.
