Background Noise Saúl Yurkiévich, 2003 Background Noise introduces to the English speaking world the poetry of Argentinian writer Saul Yurkievich in a bilingual edition His poetry is a play of language and ideas with language leading the way His longer poems are collages full of similarities and contrasts that remain unresolved not circumscribed by a determination to harmonize or integrate Also important to Yurkievich are sound and rhythm His poems are like jazz solos spontaneously flowing in response to nothing but themselves And therefore they are great joys to read aloud But beneath the pleasures of Yurkievich's riffs there is a troubling despair There is a sense in the poems of our inability to know to find to get what we desire Writing in the tradition of Huidobro Vallejo and the early Neruda Yurkievich's work both celebrates and laments the world's pandemonium The title poem begins tenebrous turbid turmoil turbulence an incantation of chaos Also included in this volume is an interview with Yurkievich and his friend the late fiction writer Julio Cortazar about their approaches to writing Book jacket
