Brooke Barnett, Amy Reynolds

Declarations Of Independence Cross Examining American Ideology:

Declarations of Independence Howard Zinn, 1991 The acclaimed author of A People's History of the United States presents an honest and piercing look at American political ideology

Macro Practice in Social Work for the 21st Century Steve Burghardt, 2013-10-18 Macro Practice in Social Work for the 21st Century Second Edition offers a modern approach to building effective career skills in macro practice Author Steve Burghardt inspires students by tracing the careers of macro practitioners from grass roots organizers to agency executives By focusing on how practitioners can make meaningful strategic choices regardless of their formal roles and responsibilities this Second Edition takes a refreshing new approach on the key issues of how to respond to diversity and oppression the use of the internet for organization the limits of virtual trust understanding where micro and macro meet in practice and co leadership development

Communication and Law Amy Reynolds, Brooke Barnett, 2006-08-15 Communication and Law brings together scholars from law and communication to talk both generally and specifically about the theoretical and methodological approaches one can use to study the First Amendment and general communication law issues The volume is intended to help graduate students and scholars at all skill levels think about new approaches to questions about communication law by offering a survey of the multidisciplinary work that is now available It is designed to challenge the conventional notion that traditional legal research and social science methodological approaches are mutually exclusive enterprises This book has been developed for researchers working in mass communication and law and will be appropriate for graduate students and scholars It will also appeal to those in psychology political science and other areas who are interested in exploring questions of law in their research

Defining and Designing Multiculturalism Pepi Leistyna, 2012-02-01 Just outside a major urban center on the east coast of the United States an activist group struggled to create a system wide multicultural education program Through a seven year qualitative study Pepi Leistyna documents and interprets via a critical pedagogical lens this group's work with professional development curriculum and instruction faculty and staff and community outreach Through engaging examples stories and participant voices Leistyna offers a comprehensive accessible ethnography with implications for others who might attempt similar sorts of systemic change

Terrorism and War Howard Zinn, 2011-01-04 Truth as Zinn shows us in the interviews that make up Terrorism and War has indeed been the first casualty of war starting from the beginnings of American empire in the Spanish American War But war has many other casualties he argues including civil liberties on the home front and human rights abroad In Terrorism and War Zinn explores the growth of the American empire as well as the long tradition of resistance in this country to U S militarism from Eugene Debs and the Socialist Party during World War One to the opponents of U S military intervention in Afghanistan today

Howard Zinn on Race Howard Zinn, 2011-06-14 Howard Zinn on Race is Zinn's choice of the shorter writings and speeches that best reflect his views on America's most taboo topic As chairman of the history department at all black women's Spelman College Zinn was an outspoken supporter of student activists in the nascent civil rights movement In The Southern Mystique he tells of how he was asked to leave Spelman in 1963 after teaching there for seven years Behind every one of the national government's moves toward racial equality writes Zinn in one 1965 essay lies the sweat and effort of boycotts picketing beatings sit ins and mass demonstrations He firmly believed that bringing people of different races and nationalities together would create a more compassionate world where equality is a given and not merely a dream These writings which span decades express Zinn's steadfast belief that the people have the power to change the status quo if they only work together and embrace the nearly forgotten American tradition of civil disobedience and revolution In clear compassionate and present prose Zinn gives us his thoughts on the Abolitionists the march from Selma to Montgomery John F Kennedy picketing sit ins and finally the message he wanted to send to New York University students about race in a speech he delivered during the last week of his life

Howard Zinn on War Howard Zinn, 2001 A collection of essays on the theme of war from America's most respected historian and author of A People's History of the United States HarperCollins Topics covered include the Vietnam War World War II the recent wars against Iraq and in Kosovo and the meaning of war generally in a world that has so far proven unable to overcome its primitive predilection for destroying its neighbour Professor Zinn writes with an enthusiasm rarely encountered in the leaden prose of academic history New York Times Book Review

Breaking Ranks Matthew C. Gutmann, 2010-08-04 Breaking Ranks brings a new and deeply personal perspective to the war in Iraq by looking into the lives of six veterans who turned against the war they helped to fight Based on extensive interviews with each of the six the book relates why they enlisted their experiences in training and in early missions their tours of combat and what has happened to them since returning home The compelling stories of this diverse cross section of the military recount how each journey to Iraq began with the sincere desire to do good Matthew Gutmann and Catherine Anne Lutz show how each individual's experiences led to new moral and political understandings and ultimately to opposing the war

Motivation and Its Regulation Joseph P. Forgas, Eddie Harmon-Jones, 2014-04-03 It is motivation that drives all our daily endeavors and it is motivation or the lack of it that accounts for most of our successes and failures Motivation however needs to be carefully controlled and regulated to be effective This book surveys the most recent psychological research on how motivational processes are regulated in daily life to achieve desired outcomes Contributors are all leading international investigators and they explore such exciting questions as What is the relationship between motivation and self control What is the role of affect and cognition in regulating motivation How do conscious and unconscious motivational processes interact What role do physiological processes play in controlling motivation How can we regulate aggressive impulses How do affective states control motivation Can motivation distort perception and attention What are the social cultural and interpersonal effects of motivational control Understanding human motivation is not only of theoretical interest but is also fundamental to applied fields such as clinical counseling educational organizational marketing and industrial psychology The book is also suitable as an advanced textbook in courses in motivational sciences and is recommended to students teachers researchers and applied professionals as well as laypersons interested in the psychology of human motivation and self control      The Zinn Reader Howard Zinn,1997 Writings on Disobedience and Democracy A huge compendium of the writings of the US s most lauded radical historian whose A People s History of the United States has gone into 25 printings and sold over 400 000 copies What can I say that will in any way convey the love respect and admiration I feel for this unassuming hero who was my teacher and mentor this radical historian and people loving trouble maker this man who stood with us and suffered with us Alice Walker      On the Edge Dennis Tourish,Tim Wohlforth,2015-05-22 This is the first book to document the extent of political cults on both the right and left and explain their significance for mainstream political organizations The authors outline the defining characteristics of cults in general and analyze the degree to which a variety of well known movements fall within the spectrum of cultic organizations The book covers such individuals and groups as Lyndon LaRouche Fred Newman Ted Grant Marlene Dixon the Christian Identity movement Posse Comitatus Aryan Nation militias and the Freemen It explores the ideological underpinnings that predispose cult followers to cultic practices along with the measures cults use to suppress dissent achieve intense conformity and extract extraordinary levels of commitment      Doing History Linda S. Levstik,Keith C. Barton,2011-01-26 Now in its fourth edition this popular text offers a unique perspective on teaching and learning history in the elementary and middle grades Through case studies of teachers and students in diverse classrooms and from diverse backgrounds it shows children engaging in authentic historical investigations often in the context of an integrated social studies curriculum The central assumption is that children can engage in valid forms of historical inquiry collecting and data analysis examining the perspectives of people in the past considering multiple interpretations and creating evidence based historical accounts In each chapter the authors explain how the teaching demonstrated in the vignettes reflects basic principles of contemporary learning theory thus providing specific examples of successful activities and placing them in a theoretical context that allows teachers to adapt and apply them in a wide variety of settings New in the Fourth Edition Expanded coverage of world history in two new chapters Integration of new technologies to support history instruction Updated classroom examples bibliographies and references      Failure to Quit Howard Zinn,2002 A selection of Howard Zinn s most popular and accessible essays on history and politics In this lively collection of essays now with a new afterword Zinn discusses a wide range of historical and political topics from the role of the Supreme Court in U S history to the nature of higher education today      Comparative Education, Terrorism and Human Security W. Nelles,2003-12-18 Policy decisions in education have changed drastically as a result of the recent threats to our international and national security In this timely and compelling collection authors discuss the significance of policy decisions on education systems and argue that all forms of violence including terrorism are often reproduced through education Authors incorporate case studies from a broad spectrum of countries to make a case for peace building alternatives and non military security cooperation

Comparative Education Terrorism and Human Security will highlight education systems around the globe that sustain violence will bring together human security and preventive diplomacy research to predict future trends will explore foreign policy implications that could lead to non violent interventions abroad and will provide teachers and policymakers with relevant reflections on reform This book arrives at a time when many of us are wondering what education systems can do to eliminate perpetuate violence and will be the only one of its kind to address these questions on a global scale A Circle of Trust Cheryl Lynn Greenberg,1998 Edited transcripts of an SNCC reunion conference held in 1988 They Can't Represent Us! Marina Sitrin,Dario Azzellini,2014-06-03 Mass protest movements in disparate places such as Greece Argentina and the United States ultimately share an agenda to raise the question of what democracy should mean These horizontalist movements including Occupy exercise and claim participatory democracy as the ground of revolutionary social change today Written by two international activist intellectuals and based on extensive interviews with movement participants in Spain Venezuela Argentina across the United States and elsewhere this book is an expansive portrait of the assemblies direct democracy forums and organizational forms championed by the new movements as well as an analytical history of direct and participatory democracy from ancient Athens to Zuccotti Park The new movements put forward the idea that liberal democracy is not democratic nor was it ever Russia's Long Twentieth Century Choi Chatterjee,Lisa A. Kirschenbaum,Deborah A. Field,2016-05-20 Covering the sweep of Russian history from empire to Soviet Union to post Soviet state Russia s Long Twentieth Century is a comprehensive yet accessible textbook that situates modern Russia in the context of world history and encourages students to analyse the ways in which citizens learnt to live within its system and create distinctly Soviet identities from its structures and ideologies Chronologically organised but moving beyond the traditional Cold War framework this book covers topics such as the accelerating social economic and political shifts in the Russian empire before the Revolution of 1905 the construction of the socialist order under Bolshevik government and the development of a new state structure political ideology and foreign policy in the decades since the collapse of the Soviet Union The authors highlight the polemics and disagreements that energize the field discussing interpretations from Russian migr and Western historiographies and showing how scholars diverge sharply in their understanding of key events historical processes and personalities Each chapter contains a selection of primary sources and discussion questions engaging with the voices and experiences of ordinary Soviet citizens and familiarizing students with the techniques of source criticism Illustrated with images and maps throughout this book is an essential introduction to twentieth century Russian history The Southern Mystique Howard Zinn,2002 Howard Zinn examines the politics of the South and his own experiences there The South has long been surrounded in mystique In this powerful volume drawing on Zinn s own experiences teaching in the South and working within the Southern civil rights movement Zinn challenges the stereotypes surrounding the South race relations and how change happens in history With a new introduction from the author Performing Remains

Rebecca Schneider, 2011-03 Performing Remains is a collection of essays from one of Performance Studies leading scholars exploring the role of the fake the false and the faux in contemporary theatre Divided into seven essays this book examines both contemporary and historical performance with a wide scope questioning the importance of representation and reassessing the ritual value of failure

Terrorism and the Press Brooke Barnett, Amy Reynolds, 2009 Many books have been written about the press and terrorism particularly since September 11th but this is the first press focused exploration of their relationship Drawing upon the history of terrorism mass communication research media theory and journalism practice this book examines how the press reports terrorism and how that reporting varies depending on the medium and location Examining the differences in reporting globally and historically within different media and government systems Terrorism and the Press provides insights for how in the future we can better navigate the relationship between the press government and audience when terrorists attack
