Christian Scholar's Review ,1999 Postmodern Subjects / Postmodern Texts ,1995 Eclipse in Mission Rob Goodwin,2012-07-06 A silent crisis has been taking place for some time now an ongoing eclipse in mission whereby our understanding of what it is has been obscured by the idols of our Christian passions and biblical perspectives Wherever that crisis has been perceived energetic responses have been proposed and much has been done in the name of and for the sake of mission However those responses themselves have often overshadowed the problem of the identity of Christian mission And so we remain in the darkness of understanding mission as we always have done We even impose these understandings onto God calling Him a missionary God and we project our idols of mission onto the sacred Word Here then is an uncomfortable but necessary critique of modern mission and the ground from which it has grown Here too is the proposition of a better basis for understanding what mission is and for outworking it aright in all of our lives By articulating a new paradigm for Christian mission the eclipsed problem of mission in crisis will have been resolved and the missional potential of a global church dynamic with the very Spirit and presence of the living God will be released Critical Companion to Contemporary Marxism Jacques Bidet,2008 International and interdisciplinary in range and scope the Critical Companion to Contemporary Marxism provides a thorough and precise panorama of recent developments in Marxist theory in the US Europe and beyond Recent Reference Books in Religion William M. The Oxford Companion to American Military History, Faith Schools and Society Jo Cairns, 2011-10-20 Do faith schools have a place in a plural society Which types of school contribute most effectively to a plural society This fascinating monograph seeks to answer these questions and more by exploring the fit between personal spiritual and academic goals in contemporary educational experience and individual school cultures Jo Cairns a well respected authority on faith schools argues that educational ideology in plural societies has to find a way of recognizing and responding to the predicament of pluralism as it is experienced by individuals and communities This provocative and challenging book will undoubtedly stimulate debate among educationists across the world

Globalization and Civilizations Mehdi Mozaffari, 2003-09-02 Globalization and Civilizations challenges established assumptions about the nature of civilizations and the supposed inevitability of the conflict between the Islamic and Western worlds Uniquely this edited book critically interrogates the concept of civilization by asking whether it is still valid in the globalized world economy of the twenty first century The first half of the book provides an historical and theoretical context to understand the idea of civilization in political science and demonstrates how the various social economic political and cultural processes of globalization have radically altered perceptions of civilization The second half of the book looks particularly at non Western examples of the interaction between globalization and civilization and includes case studies on the Arab world Islam China
