Chamberlain, 2014-06-11 This new Companion brings together in one single volume all the essential facts and figures relating to European decolonisation in the twentieth century Professor Chamberlain has taken each European empire in turn the British French Dutch Portuguese Spanish Belgian and Italian and for each one she has provided a detailed chronology of the process of decolonisation in the individual states British Government Policy and Decolonisation, 1945-63 Frank Heinlein, 2013-12-16 This book is an in depth study of the importance of the Empire Commonwealth in the two decades after WWII for Britain's self image as a great power By studying a wide range of debates on general and specific imperial problems the book highlights the official mind of decolonization and of late imperialism Theory and Practice in the History of European Expansion Overseas R. F. Holland, Andrew Porter, Ronald Robinson, 2005-08-12 First Published in 1988 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informal company Kenya and Britain after Independence Poppy Cullen, 2017-06-30 This book explores British post colonial foreign policy towards Kenya from 1963 to 1980 It reveals the extent and nature of continued British government influence in Kenya after independence It argues that this was not simply about neo colonialism and Kenya's elite had substantial agency to shape the relationship The first section addresses how policy was made and the role of High Commissions and diplomacy It emphasises contingency with policy produced through shared interests and interaction with leading Kenyans It argues that British policy makers helped to create and then reinforced Kenya's neo patrimonialism The second part examines the economic military personal and diplomatic networks which successive British governments sustained with independent Kenya A combination of interlinked interests encouraged British officials to place a high value on this relationship even as their world commitments diminished This book appeals to those interested in Kenyan history post colonial Africa British foreign policy and forms of diplomacy and policy making Decolonization in Britain and France Miles Kahler, 2014-07-14 Professor Kahler focuses on organizations below the state investigating party competition and sensitivity to political change produced by the characteristics of commercial firms In addition he explores transmission of external shocks to the domestic polity by the state itself and the domestic politics of settler societies under external threat Originally published in 1984 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 The European Community and the Developing Countries Enzo R. Grilli, 1993 The European Community has long been the largest trading bloc in the world It is also on the way to becoming the world's largest integrated economic zone Its trade aid and development cooperation policies are therefore of great importance to developing countries At the same time the developing countries have continued to be of interest to the Community both as outlets for its exports and capital investments and as sources of raw materials This 1993 book analyses and evaluates European Community trade aid and industrial policies towards developing countries their origin main features logic evolution and effectiveness in reaching the goals assigned to them The author sums up the state of Europe's development policies by describing them as regional in scope colonial in geographical emphasis discriminatory in their effects and lacking in overall cogency This incisive re-evaluation illustrates the different strategies the EC countries might pursue in their relations with the outside world as they progress towards fuller economic integration

Internationalism and the State in the Twentieth Century Cornelia Navari, 2013-01-11 Using in-depth analysis of power relations material changes and developments in ideologies this essential text provides an accessible and student-friendly historical introduction to the changing relations between states The subjects covered include long-term trends relating to war the changing balance of power decolonisation the European system and the Cold War This volume is essential reading for all those interested in the history of International Relations in the twentieth century Empires and Colonies Jonathan Hart, 2014-02-06 Empires and Colonies provides a thoroughgoing and lively exploration of the expansion of the seaborne empires of western Europe from the fifteenth century and how that process of expansion affected the world including its successor the United States Whilst providing special attention to Europe the book is careful to highlight the ambivalence and contradiction of that expansion The book also illuminates connections between empires and colonies as a theme in history concentrating on culture while also discussing the rich social economic and political dimensions of the story Furthermore Empires and Colonies recognizes that whilst a study of the expansion of Europe is an important part of world history it is not a history of the world per se The focus on culture is used to assert that areas and peoples that lack great economic power at any given time also deserve attention These alternative voices of slaves indigenous peoples and critics of empire and colonization are an important and compelling element of the book Empires and Colonies will be essential reading not only for students of imperial history but also for anyone interested in the makings of our modern world The British Empire Sarah E. Stockwell, 2008-01-29 This volume adopts a distinctive thematic approach to the history of British imperialism from the eighteenth to the twentieth century It brings together leading scholars of British imperial history Tony Ballantyne John Darwin Andrew Dilley Elizabeth Elbourne Kent Fedorowich Eliga Gould Catherine Hall Stephen Howe Sarah Stockwell Andrew Thompson Stuart Ward and Jon Wilson Each contributor offers a personal assessment of the topic at hand and examines key interpretive debates among historians Addresses many of the core issues that constitute a broad understanding
