Deconstructing Travel Cultural And Anthropological Perspectives On The Tourist Experience:

Deconstructing Travel Arthur Asa Berger, 2004 As a visible marker of globalization the increased role of travel and tourism in our lives makes it a remarkable force in contemporary culture Deconstructing Travel provides an easily understood framework of the relationship between travel and culture in our rapidly changing postmodern postcolonial world Beginning with an examination of classical expeditions in mythology history and literatures Arthur Asa Berger explores the role of travel in contemporary lives from university travel abroad programs to package tours and family vacations This volume is a highly engaging look into why people travel examining travel and tourism as a cultural phenomenon through social cultural psychological and economic forces

Shop 'til You Drop Arthur Asa Berger, 2004-11-26 Are Americans obsessed with shopping Shop til You Drop is a lively look at our consumer culture and its role in our everyday lives and society Is the United States different from other first world nations in the amount of time we spend shopping or in our attitudes toward consumption Are we one unified consumer culture or are several cultures operating and battling against one another Arthur Asa Berger uncovers the answers to these and other questions considering the sacred roots of consumer culture the demographics of consumption theories about competing cultures and the semiotics of shopping Accessibly written and entertaining Shop til You Drop is ideal for courses in cultural studies advertising and American studies as well as for anyone curious about our nation's drive to consume

Short-Term Mission Brian M. Howell, 2012-08-02 Brian Howell provides an anthropology of short term mission STM among American Christians Providing a history of STM along with an ethnographic case study of a trip to the Dominican Republic Howell argues that the movement is sustained by a uniquely Christian travel narrative that borrows from the anthropology of tourism and pilgrimage

Handbook of Research on Urban Tourism, Viral Society, and the Impact of the COVID-19 Pandemic Andrade, Pedro, Martins, Moisés de Lemos, 2022-06-30 The tourism and hospitality industries have faced major setbacks in recent years as they have had to combat various challenges such as the COVID 19 pandemic and a rapidly evolving global market In order to ensure these industries are prepared for future crises further study on the best practices and strategies for handling difficult times and managing growth is critical The Handbook of Research on Urban Tourism Viral Society and the Impact of the COVID 19 Pandemic provides innovative research and perspectives on the revitalization of cultural tourism industries and services by addressing the creation of jobs in the areas of restoration leisure and culture The book also analyzes how the tourism industry has handled global crises in the past and proposes business models for information and knowledge dissemination to appropriately handle disasters Covering critical topics such as digital media and risk management this major reference work is ideal for industry professionals government officials policymakers researchers academicians scholars practitioners instructors and students

Tourist Attractions Johan R. Edelman, 2015 Tourist attractions constitute the metaphorical heart of tourism This book aims to both deconstruct and construct what tourist attractions are how we perceive them and how we can enhance our understanding of what attracts us as tourists The volume reaches beyond current ideas about the ways tourist attractions are created shaped and packaged It focuses on the importance and subjective nature of identity memory narrative and performance in the tourist experience to find new ways of analysing and managing tourist attractions The book will appeal to researchers and students in tourism and destination management and heritage and indigenous tourism

Mediating the Tourist Experience Jo-Anne Lester, Caroline Scarles, 2016-04-29 Traditionally tourism media has referred to the image of destinations constructed through media texts such as brochures and postcards with increasing attention towards other mediascapes such as films and television Yet with prolific advancements in technologies of media communication such traditional formats have experienced a shift in the productive and consumptive practices through which they come into being The possibilities of production and subsequent consumption are unequivocally changing the ways in which tourists imagine understand and engage with destinations This book therefore explores the role of tourism media and mediating practices in the development of non linear processes of communication and understanding as both producers and consumers come together to negotiate the tourist experience In varying ways it examines the emergent relationships and connections between media practices and tourism practices everyday experiences and encounters of place Collectively the authors in this book address a range of media and technologies from brochures television video and film to mediated virtual spaces such as e brochures Internet cultures social networks and Google Earth In doing so the book highlights the continued significance of media in tourism contexts recognising both traditional and newer technologies and the non linear continuous cycle of mediated representations and experiences

Intersections of Tourism, Migration, and Exile Natalia Bloch, Kathleen M. Adams, 2022-12-30 This book challenges the classic and often tacit compartmentalization of tourism migration and refugee studies by exploring the intersections of these forms of spatial mobility each prompts distinctive images and moral reactions yet they often intertwine overlap and influence one another Tourism migration and exile evoke widely varying policies diverse popular reactions and contrasting imagery What are the ramifications of these siloed conceptions for people on the move To what extent do gender class ethnic and racial global inequalities shape moral discourses surrounding people's movements This book presents 12 predominantly ethnographic case studies from around the world and a pandemic focused conclusion that address these issues In recounting and juxtaposing stories of refugees and migrants returns marriage migrants voluntourists migrant retirees migrant tourism workers and entrepreneurs mobile investors and professionals and refugees pursuing educational mobility this book cultivates more nuanced insights into intersecting forms of mobility Ultimately this work promises to foster not only empathy but also greater resolve for forging trails toward mobility justice This accessibly written volume will be essential to scholars and students in critical migration tourism and refugee studies including anthropologists sociologists human geographers and researchers in political science and cultural studies The book will also be of interest to non academic professionals and general readers interested in contemporary mobilities Travel and Drugs in Twentieth-Century Literature Lindsey Michael Banco,2013-01-11 This book examines the connections between two disparate yet persistently bound thematics mobility and intoxication and explores their central yet frequently misunderstood role in constructing subjectivity following the 1960s Emerging from profound mid twentieth century changes in how drugs and travel were imagined the conceptual nexus discussed sheds new light on British and North American responses to sixties counterculture With readings of Aldous Huxley William Burroughs Alex Garland Hunter S Thompson and Robert Sedlack Banco traces twin arguments looking at the ways travel is imagined as a disciplinary force acting upon the creative destabilizing powers of psychedelic intoxication and exploring the ways drugs help construct travel spaces and practices as at times revolutionary and at other times neo colonial By following a sequence of shifting understandings of drug and travel orthodoxies this book traverses fraught and irresistibly linked terrains from the late 1950s up to a period marked by international postmodern tourism As such it helps illuminate a world where tourism is continually expanding yet constantly circumscribed and where illegal drugs are both increasingly unregulated in the global economy and perceived more and more as crucial agents in the construction of human subjectivity From Production to Consumption Hana Horáková,Andrea Boscoboinik,2012 This book shows new research perspectives showing the impact of tourism on the rural world The articles presented contribute to the analysis of the new rurality in global society The Global Nomad Greg Richards,Julie Wilson,2004-03-16 Backpackers have shifted from the margins of the travel industry into the global spotlight This volume explores the international backpacker phenomenon drawing together different disciplinary perspectives on its meaning impact and significance Links are drawn between theory and practice setting backpacking in its wider social cultural and economic context Place Branding R. Govers,F. Go,2016-01-18 The topic of place branding is moving from infancy to adolescence Many cities and nations have already established their place brand and this well documented new book brings the fundamentals of place branding together in an academic format but is at the same time useful for practice

World Heritage on the Ground Christoph Brumann,David Berliner,2016-04-01 The UNESCO World Heritage Convention of 1972 set the contemporary standard for cultural and natural conservation Today a place on the World Heritage List is much sought after for tourism promotion development funding and national prestige Presenting case studies from across the globe particularly from Africa and Asia anthropologists with situated expertise in specific World Heritage sites explore the consequences of the World Heritage framework and the global spread of the UNESCO heritage regime This book shows how local and national circumstances interact with the global institutional framework in complex and unexpected ways Often the communities around World Heritage sites are constrained by these heritage regimes rather than empowered by them The Living Inca Town Karoline Guelke,2021-01-22 The Living Inca Town presents a rich case study of tourism in Ollantaytambo a rapidly developing destination in the southern Peruvian Andes and the starting point for many popular treks to Machu Picchu Tourism is generally welcomed in Ollantaytambo as it provides a steady stream of work for local businesses particularly those run by women However the obvious material inequalities between locals and tourists affect many interactions and have contributed to conflict and aggression throughout the tourist zones Based on a number of research visits over the course of fifteen years The Living Inca Town examines the experiences and interactions of locals visitors and tourism brokers The book makes room for unique perspectives and uses innovative visual methods including photovoice images and pen and ink drawings to represent different viewpoints of day to day tourist encounters The Living Inca Town vividly illustrates how tourism can perpetuate gendered and global inequalities while also exploring new avenues to challenge and renegotiate these roles

Anthropology of Tourism in Central and Eastern Europe Sabina Owsianowska, Magdalena Banaszekiewicz, 2018-04-11 In Anthropology of Tourism in Central and Eastern Europe Bridging Worlds Sabina Owsianowska and Magdalena Banaszekiewicz examine the limitations of the anthropological study of tourism which stem from both the domination of researchers representing the Anglophone circle as well as the current state of tourism studies in Central and Eastern Europe This edited collection contributes to the wider discussion of the geopolitics of knowledge through its focus on the anthropological background of tourism studies and its inclusion of contributors from Austria Bulgaria Estonia and Poland

Animals and Tourism Kevin Markwell, 2015-05-01 This book critically examines the many ways in which tourism and animals intersect whether as tourist attractions wildlife conservation tools as travel companions or as meat to be eaten It aims to make a meaningful contribution to the growing body of knowledge concerning the relationships between animals tourists and the tourism industry The chapters are organised into three themes ethics and welfare conflict contradiction and contestation and shifting relationships Theoretically informed and empirically rich the chapters examine topics such as whale watching animal performances the objectification and commodification of animals and stakeholder conflict among a range of others It is hoped that the book will help to highlight key research questions and stimulate other researchers and students to reflect critically on the place of animals within tourism spaces experiences practices and structures

The Palgrave Handbook of Steam Age Gothic Clive Bloom, 2021-02-03 By the early 1830s the old school of Gothic literature was exhausted Late Romanticism emphasising as it did the uncertainties of personality and imagination gave it a new lease of life Gothic the literature of disturbance and uncertainty now produced works that reflected domestic fears sexual crimes drug filled hallucinations the terrible secrets of middle class marriage imperial horror at alien invasion occult demonism and the insanity of psychopaths It was from the 1830s onwards that the old gothic castle gave way to the country house drawing room the dungeon was displaced by the sewers of the city and the villains of early novels became the familiar figures of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde Dracula Dorian Grey and Jack the Ripper After the death of Prince Albert 1861 the Gothic became darker more morbid obsessed with demonic lovers blood sucking ghouls blood stained murderers and deranged doctors Whilst the gothic architecture of the Houses of Parliament and the new Puginesque churches upheld a Victorian ideal of sobriety Christianity and imperial destiny Gothic literature filled these new spaces with a dread that spread like a plague to America France Germany and even Russia From 1830 to 1914 the period covered by this volume we saw the emergence of the greats of Gothic literature and the supernatural from Edgar Allan Poe to Emily Bronte from Sheridan Le Fanu to Bram Stoker and Robert Louis Stevenson Contributors also examine the fin de siècle dreamers of decadence such as Arthur Machen M P Shiel and Vernon Lee and their obsession with the occult folklore spiritualism revenants ghostly apparitions and cosmic annihilation This volume explores the period through the prism of architectural history urban studies feminism hauntology and much more Horror as Poe teaches us is the soul of the plot

Equality in Asia-Pacific Phil C. W. Chan, 2014-02-04 In 1948 the United Nations General Assembly proclaimed the Universal Declaration of Human Rights stating every human being's right of equality in dignity and right However notwithstanding recognition by the international community of its importance and codification in numerous national and sub national constitutions and legislation reinforced by various multilateral and regional human rights treaties the right of equality continues to be unable to take complete firm hold in all regions and countries Evidence as presented by the insightful papers in this collection published initially as a Special Double Issue of The International Journal of Human Rights dedicated to exploring the place of equality in Asia Pacific societies suggests that although progress is being made the right of equality has not yet fully materialized both in law and in reality in the world's most populous region Many factors particularly entrenched cultural heritage and practices the lingering effects of colonialism and newly found independence and above all pervasive ignorance and prejudices continue to impede the recognition development and protection of equality in this region Of course equality a normative right and entitlement by virtue of our humanity has neither been fully achieved in societies outside the region Such neo colonial thinking in fact perpetuates and assists in the subjugation of the right of equality in the Asia Pacific Region as a matter of relevance and concern only to Western countries Accordingly we hope that our discussions will also be able to shed light and generate reflections on realities outside the region as interlinked with our aim The Editor's book fee has been donated to the UNICEF Tsunami Fund This book was previously published as a special issue of The International Journal of Human Rights The Routledge Handbook of Museums, Heritage, and Death Trish Biers, Katie Stringer Clary, 2023-07-26 This book provides a comprehensive examination of death dying and human remains in museums and heritage sites around the world Presenting a diverse range of contributions from scholars practitioners and artists the book reminds us that death and the dead body are omnipresent in museum and heritage spaces Chapters appraise collection practices and their historical context present global perspectives and potential resolutions and suggest how death and dying should be presented to the public Acknowledging that professionals in the galleries libraries archives and museums GLAM fields are engaging in vital discussions about repatriation and anti colonialist narratives the book includes reflections on a variety of deathscapes that are at the forefront of the debate Taking a multivocal approach the handbook provides a foundation for debate as well as a reference for how the dead are treated within the public arena Most important perhaps the book highlights best practices and calls for more ethical frameworks and strategies for collaboration particularly with descendant communities The Routledge Handbook of Museums Heritage and Death will be useful to all individuals working with studying and interested in curation and exhibition at museums and heritage sites around the world It will be of particular interest to those working in the fields of heritage museum studies death studies archaeology anthropology sociology and history
