Deconstructing Madonna:

A World Made Sexy Paul Rutherford, 2007-01-01 Eroticism is a constant presence in modern society encompassing almost every aspect of our daily lives It is a product of one of the major commercial and political enterprises of the twentieth and twenty first centuries the cultivation of desire desire for sex desire for wealth desire for entertainment Paul Rutherford's A World Made Sexy looks at modern civilization's ongoing project to manufacture and encourage public wants building a utopia where just about everyone who is affluent dreams plays and of course shops A World Made Sexy uses museum exhibitions art books magazines films and television to examine the rise and purpose of eroticism first in America but soon across the affluent world Starting with a brief foray into the representation of history as past pornography Rutherford explores a sexual liberation movement shaped by the ideas of Marx and Freud the erotic styles of Salvador Dali and pop art the pioneering use of publicity as erotica by Playboy and other products and the growing concerns of cultural critics over the emergence of a regime of stimulation In one case study Rutherford pairs James Bond and Madonna in order to examine the link between eroticism and aggression He further details how television advertising after 1980 constructed a theatre of the libido to entice the buying public and concludes by situating the Eros project in the wider context of Michel Foucault's account of the administration of life and specifically sexuality during the modern era A World Made Sexy is about power and pleasure emancipation and domination and the relationship between the personal passions and social controls that have crafted desire

Beauty and Misogyny Sheila Jeffreys, 2005-05-31 Should western beauty practices ranging from lipstick to labiaplasty be included within the United Nations understandings of harmful traditional cultural practices By examining the role of common beauty practices in damaging the health of women creating sexual difference and enforcing female deference this book argues that they should In the 1970s feminists criticized pervasive beauty regimes such as dieting and depilation but some new feminists argue that beauty practices are no longer oppressive now that women can choose them However in the last two decades the brutality of western beauty practices seems to have become much more severe requiring the breaking of skin spilling of blood and rearrangement or amputation of body parts Beauty and Misogyny seeks to make sense of why beauty practices are not only just as persistent but in many ways more extreme It examines the pervasive use of makeup the misogyny of fashion and high heeled shoes and looks at the role of pornography in the creation of increasingly popular beauty practices such as breast implants genital waxing and surgical alteration of the labia It looks at the cosmetic surgery and body piercing cutting industries as being forms of self mutilation by proxy in which the surgeons and piercers serve as proxies to harm women s bodies and concludes by considering how a culture of resistance to these practices can be created This essential work will appeal to students and teachers of feminist psychology gender studies cultural studies and feminist sociology at both undergraduate and postgraduate levels and to anyone with an interest in feminism women and beauty and women s health

Events and the Social Sciences Hazel Andrews,Teresa Leopold,2013 As the events management field expands as an area of study there is a need to move beyond the business and marketing driven approaches which dominate the literature towards a more advanced conceptual analysis and understanding of events from a socio cultural context This book addresses this need by examining intersections between the social sciences and the emerging field of events management It applies and specifically contextualises social science theories within the discourse of events to provide a greater understanding of the significance of events in contemporary society It first outlines the value of approaching the study of events from a social science perspective and then moves on to an in depth exploration of relevant theories exploring topics such as identity culture consumerism representation and place It concludes with a summary of each chapter and a discussion of ways in which events can be further explored through the lens of the social sciences The book features international case studies based on a variety of event types ranging from sports events religious and cultural events and community events which are used throughout to address contemporary issues and show theory in practice Think Points are integrated into each chapter to encourage the reader to reflect on theories and each chapter concludes with summary points further reading and links to useful websites to consolidate learning and further knowledge This book will provide upper level students academics and researchers interested in events as well as those from related social science disciplines with a robust socio cultural conceptual analysis of the subject and a greater understanding of the significance of events in contemporary society

Critical Terms for Art History, Second Edition Robert S. Nelson, Richard Shiff, 2010-03-15 Art has always been contested terrain whether the object in question is a medieval tapestry or Duchamp's Fountain But questions about the categories of art and art history acquired increased urgency during the 1970s when new developments in critical theory and other intellectual projects dramatically transformed the discipline The first edition of Critical Terms for Art History both mapped and contributed to those transformations offering a spirited reassessment of the field's methods and terminology Art history as a field has kept pace with debates over globalization and other social and political issues in recent years making a second edition of this book not just timely but crucial Like its predecessor this new edition consists of essays that cover a wide variety of loaded terms in the history of art from sign to meaning ritual to commodity Each essay explains and comments on a single term discussing the issues the term raises and putting the term into practice as an interpretive framework for a specific work of art For example Richard Shiff discusses Originality in Vija Celmins's To Fix the Image in Memory a work made of eleven pairs of stones each consisting of one original stone and one painted bronze replica In addition to the twenty two original essays this edition includes nine new ones performance style memory monument body beauty ugliness identity visual culture visual studies and social history of art as well as new introductory material All help expand the book's scope while retaining its central goal of stimulating discussion of theoretical issues in art history and making that discussion accessible to both beginning students and senior scholars Contributors Mark Antliff Nina Athanassoglou Kallmyer Stephen Bann Homi K Bhabha Suzanne Preston Blier Michael Camille David Carrier Craig Clunas Whitney Davis Jas Elsner Ivan Gaskell Ann Gibson Charles Harrison James D Herbert Amelia Jones Wolfgang Kemp Joseph Leo Koerner Patricia Leighton Paul Mattick Jr Richard Meyer W J T Mitchell Robert S Nelson Margaret Olin William Pietz Alex Potts Donald Preziosi Lisbet Rausing Richard Shiff Terry Smith Kristine Stiles David Summers Paul Wood James E Young
