Deconstruction in Context Mark C. Taylor, 1986      Reshaping Philosophy: Michael Boylan's Narrative Fiction Wanda Teays, 2022-05-25 This volume offers original essays exploring what fictive narrative philosophy might mean in the research and teaching of philosophy The first part of the book presents theoretical essays that examine Boylan's recent books Teaching Ethics with Three Philosophical Novels and Fictive Narrative Philosophy How Literature can Act as Philosophy The second and third part offer essays on how Boylan executes his theory in the practice within his novels from his two series De Anima and Arch The book clearly shows the unique aspects of the fictive narrative philosophy approach First it makes story telling accessible to wide audiences Second story telling techniques invoke devices that can set out complicated existential problems to the reader that offer an additional approach to thorny problems through the presentation of lived experience Third the discussion of these devices is a way to explore philosophical problems in a way that many can profit from The book concludes with an essay in which Boylan responds to the critical challenges set out in Part One and the practical criticism set out in Parts Two and Three Boylan addresses the key claims made by his objectors and defends his position He engages with the authors in the way his theory is matched against his actual novels This is useful reading for both philosophers and professors of literature teaching introductory as well as upper level courses in the fields of philosophy literature and criticism

Rehabilitating Literary Theory Khaled Besbes, 2011 The present work seeks to bring literary theory in line with the most recent practical turn the humanities are witnessing When simplified succinctly presented and skillfully used in multi coded interpretation within a semiocritical framework literary theories become practical exercises in criticism not only facilitating the interpretation of literature but also making it more enjoyable and more rewarding This book is different from its counterparts in the sense that it includes an exceptionally expanded model of the practice of literary theories and replaces long and theoretical discussions with brief synopses of the examined theories It relies on less overused texts for illustration as it compiles and organizes the terms and phrases that are often used by the proponents of the discussed theories The most influential literary theories that have so far been developed in academia are included the New Criticism reader response criticism structuralism deconstruction feminism Marxism psychoanalytic criticism linguistic criticism cultural materialism new historicism postcolonialism and semiotics Through eliminating the excesses made in the name of theory this book will restore the faith of students teachers and practitioners in the useful and enduring nature of literary theory for the analysis and appreciation of literature      Deconstruction, Feminist Theology, and the Problem of Difference Ellen T.

Armour, 1999-06-15 Ellen T Armour shows how the writings of Jacques Derrida and Luce Irigaray can be used to uncover feminism's white presumptions so that race and gender can be thought of differently In clear concise terms she explores the possibilities and limitations for feminist theology of Derrida's conception of woman and Irigaray's multiple woman as well as Derrida's thinking on race and Irigaray's work on religion      Postmodernism: Legal studies, psychoanalytic studies,

Theories of Play and Postmodern Fiction Brian Edwards, 2013-05-13 Drawing on developments in critical theory and postmodernist fiction this study makes an important contribution to the appreciation of playforms in language texts and cultural practices Tracing trajectories in theories of play and game and with particular attention to the writings of Nietzsche Wittgenstein Bakhtin and Derrida the author argues that the concept of play provides perspectives on language and communication processes useful both for analysis of literary texts and also for understanding the interactive nature of constructions of knowledge Exploring manifestations of game and play throughout the history of Western culture from Plato to Pynchon this study traces developments in 20th century cultural and literary theory of ideas about play in the writings of Johan Huizinga Roger Caillois Jacques Ehrmann Bernard Suits James Hans Mihai Spariosu and Robert Rawdon Wilson The author emphasizes post structuralist developments with specific attention to deconstruction and reception theory and argues that deconstruction makes the most significant recent contribution to play theory in its application to language and to literature The work also explores the modes and effects of playforms in particular examples of postmodernist fiction With attention to major works from Thomas Pynchon Gravity's Rainbow John Barth LETTERS Robert Kroetsch What the Crow Said Angela Carter Nights at the Circus and Peter Carey Illywhacker Edwards acknowledges and deconstructs such basic oppositions as play and seriousness fiction and truth difference and identity to explore the literature's cultural political significance Seeking to affirm the fiction's continuing social relevance the readings presented in this book place play irresistibly at the heartland of language meaning and culture

Post-deconstructive Subjectivity and History Aniruddha Chowdhury, 2013-09-19 In Post Deconstructive Subjectivity and History Aniruddha Chowdhury argues that deconstruction is not only not a dissolution of subject as it is often opined but an affirmation of the singular ethical subject and singular history singularity conceived as alterity difference and non identity Part of the emphasis of the singular history is to conceive the historical relation as figural and as one of repletion with difference One of the distinctive aspects of the book is that it not only focuses on the tradition of phenomenology but also extends deconstruction to critical theory and postcolonial theory Through his intimate reading of the canonical texts of the Continental philosophical tradition phenomenology and critical theory and postcolonial thought Chowdhury illuminates pertinent issues in Continental thought and postcolonial theory

Recasting Social Values in the Work of Virginia Woolf Judy S. Reese, 1996 She attempts to define and explore her value system using two fabricated measuring standards the public psychometer of great art and the private psychometer of instinct or taste These often conflicting standards however lead her into a maze of circular reasoning and contradiction In order to escape her cultural context Woolf needed an Archimedes point some distant position and objective perspective from which to view and judge the whole of society

Derrida and Deconstruction Hugh J. Silverman, 2004-01-14 The effects of Derrida's writings have been widespread in literary circles where they have transformed current work in literary theory By contrast Derrida's philosophical writings which deal with the whole range of western thought from Plato to Foucault have not received adequate attention by philosophers Organized around Derrida's readings of major figures in the history of philosophy Derrida and Deconstruction focuses on and assesses his specifically philosophical contribution Contemporary continental philosophers assess Derrida's account of philosophical tradition with each contributor providing a critical study of Derrida's position on a philosopher she or he has already studied in depth These figures include Plato Meister Eckhart Descartes Kant
