Dedication To Hunger:

Dedication to Hunger Leslie Heywood, 1996-01-01 Leslie Heywood weaves deftly and powerfully between contemporary cultural analysis literary criticism and her own experiences as a postmodern female body The result is a work that is both critically acute and vibrating with emotional energy and insight a work that itself constitutes a promise of new life in the anorexic culture she so sharply diagnoses and interprets Susan Bordo author of Unbearable Weight Feminism Western Culture and the Body Though Dedication to Hunger is a brilliant book of literary criticism it is also far more than that It is a challenging work that should be widely read by all those interested in the underlying assumptions that define our culture J Hillis Miller author of The Ethics of Reading

The Poetry of Louise Glück Daniel Morris, 2006-12-01 A dominant figure in American poetry for more than thirty five years Louise Glück has been the recipient of virtually every major poetry award She won the Nobel Prize in Literature in 2020 and was named U S poet laureate for 2003 2004 In a full length study of her work Daniel Morris explores how this prolific poet utilizes masks of characters from history the Bible and even fairy tales Morris treats Glück's persistent themes desire hunger trauma survival through close reading of her major book length sequences from the 1990s Ararat Meadowlands and The Wild Iris An additional chapter devoted to The House on Marshland 1975 shows how its revision of Romanticism and nature poetry anticipated these later works Seeing Glück's poems as complex analyses of the authorial self via sustained central metaphors Morris reads her poetry against a narrative pattern that shifts from the tones of anger despair and resentment found in her early Firstborn to the resignation of Ararat and proceeds in her latest volumes including Vita Nova and Averno toward an ambivalent embrace of embodied life By showing how Glück's poems may be read as a form of commentary on the meanings of great literature and myth Morris emphasizes her irreverent attitude toward the canons through which she both expresses herself and deflects her autobiographical impulse By discussing her sense of self of Judaism and of the poetic tradition he explores her position as a mystic poet with an ambivalent relationship to religious discourse verging on Gnosticism with tendencies toward the ancient rabbinic midrash tradition of reading scripture He particularly shows how her creative reading of past poets expresses her vision of Judaism as a way of thinking about canonical texts The Poetry of Louise Glück is a quintessential study of how poems may be read as a form of commentary on the meanings of great literature and myth It clearly demonstrates that through this lens of commentary one can grasp more firmly the very idea of poetry itself that Glück has spent her career both defining and extending

Embodying Beauty Malin Pereira, 2014-01-14 This study argues that twentieth century American women writers textual representations of female beauty generally recognize a link between beauty standards and aesthetic ideology exploring female beauty as a symptom of prevailing ideas about art and esthetics Female beauty in their texts is not merely an issue of whether a female character is pretty or not it is an expression of the controlling discourses negotiated by character text and author In this study therefore the women writers texts are read after interchapters outlining their key cultural and literary contexts Revising Paul de Man s method of exploring scenes of reading this study focuses on scenes of beauty in which a character narrator or speaker negotiates ideas about beauty The author pairs Euro American and African American women writers across the century in three generations H D and Zora Neale Hurston Gwendolyn Brooks and Sylvia Plath and Toni Morrison and Louis Gluck As such this study offers a landmark black white dialogue on female beauty in twentieth century American culture and literature Scenes of beauty in the texts of these writers suggest multiple feminine aesthetics in twentieth century American writing unified in their negotiation of the aesthetic ideologies embodied in female beauty

The First Book Jesse Zuba,2025-07-15 An illuminating look at the poetic debut in twentieth century American literary culture We have many poets of the First Book the poet and critic Louis Simpson remarked in 1957 describing a sense that the debut poetry collection not only launched the contemporary poetic career but also had come to define it Surveying American poetry over the past hundred years The First Book explores the emergence of the poetic debut as a unique literary production with its own tradition conventions and dynamic role in the literary market Through new readings of poets ranging from Wallace Stevens and Marianne Moore to John Ashbery and Louise Gluck Jesse Zuba illuminates the importance of the first book in twentieth century American literary culture which involved complex struggles for legitimacy on the part of poets critics and publishers alike Zuba investigates poets diverse responses to the question of how to launch a career in an increasingly professionalized literary scene that threatened the authenticity of the poetic calling He shows how modernist debuts evoke markedly idiosyncratic paths while postwar first books evoke trajectories that balance professional imperatives with traditional literary ideals Debut titles ranging from Simpson s The Arrivistes to Ken Chen s Juvenilia stress the strikingly pervasive theme of beginning accommodating a new demand for career development even as it distances the poets from that demand Combining literary analysis with cultural history The First Book will interest scholars and students of twentieth century literature as well as readers and writers of poetry
