Deeds Not Words Geraldine Mitchell,1997-09-01 The Irish Countrywomen's Association Book of Crafts Irish Countrywomen's Association,2030-01-01 Nothing compares with the pleasure and satisfaction of making something yourself and for years the Irish Countrywomen s Association has been at the forefront of Irish craft This beautiful book is an inspiring collection of projects from ICA members that introduce traditional Irish crafts in a fresh modern way From making your own jewellery and embroidered cushions to crochet hats and handmade Christmas decorations The ICA Book of Craft contains 40 practical projects to inspire you to have a go Many of the ideas are simple enough to be tackled by beginners some are more of a labour of love Try your hand at a cosy scarf beautiful Aran jumper or delicate lace collar or add finishing touches to your home with redwork embroidery fabric covered boxes or seasonal decorations Collected from ICA members around the country and captured in beautiful atmospheric photographs the projects in this book show you how to make jewellery soft furnishings clothing and festive decorations with a personal touch and a home made flavour Literary Coteries and the Irish Women Writers' Club (1933-1958) Deirdre F. Brady,2021 This book is an original account of coterie culture in twentieth century Ireland and the networks and connections which fostered women s writing It paints a vivid portrait of the inspirational women involved in the Women Writers Club showcasing their influence and achievements in literature and their political campaigning for intellectual and creative freedom A New History of Ireland Volume VII J. R. Hill,2010-08-26 A New History of Ireland is the largest scholarly project in modern Irish history In 9 volumes it provides a comprehensive new synthesis of modern scholarship on every aspect of Irish history and prehistory from the earliest geological and archaeological evidence through the Middle Ages down to the present day Volume VII covers a period of major significance in Ireland s history It outlines the division of Ireland and the eventual establishment of the Irish Republic It provides comprehensive coverage of political developments north and south as well as offering chapters on the economy literature in English and Irish the Irish language the visual arts emigration and immigration and the history of women The contributors to this volume all specialists in their field provide the most comprehensive treatment of these developments of any single volume survey of twentieth century Ireland That Neutral Island Clair Wills,2014-04-24 Of the countries that remained neutral during the Second World War none was more controversial than Ireland with accusations of betrayal and hypocrisy poisoning the media Whereas previous histories of Ireland in the war years have focused on high politics That Neutral Island brings to life the atmosphere of a country forced to live under rationing heavy censorship and the threat of invasion It unearths the motivations of those thousands who left Ireland to fight in the British forces and shows how ordinary people tried to make sense of the Nazi threat through the lens of antagonism towards Britain Irish Lacemaking Molly-Claire Gillett,2025-09-04 Following the career of the Irish lace designer and inspector Emily Anderson 1856 1948 this book traces a network of designers makers organizations and institutions involved in the late 19th and early 20th century Irish lace industry and explores their contemporary relevance Molly Claire Gillett maps the Irish lace industry's connection to stakeholders such as the British Department of Science and Art the Cork School of Art The Irish Agricultural Organisation Society and the Irish Department of Agriculture and Technical Instruction pairing a close study of patterns and techniques with an investigation of broader issues in design education philanthropy and women's professionalization Concluding with a consideration of contemporary Irish lacemaking now proudly claimed as an element of Ireland's intangible cultural heritage Gillett tells the story of a 20th century shift in the conception of lace design as art for industry and lacemaking as an economic necessity to both practices as expressions of identity creativity and community building Richly illustrated and framed within the narrative of Anderson's life and career as a woman designer and civil servant during a pivotal moment in Irish history Irish Lacemaking is an essential resource for students and researchers in craft women's history and Irish Studies

The Congested Districts Board of Ireland, 1891-1923 Ciara Breathnach, 2005 Relying chiefly on board records compiled in 1892 this volume highlights the part played by the Congested Districts Board in alleviating rural poverty in certain districts of the western counties of Ireland

Irish Voices Peter Somerville-Large, 2000 In 1916 Eamon de Valera arrived on the Irish scene and as a result or so we are told the fairies left Such combining of fact and folklore is the essence of Peter Somerville Large's history of 50 years of life in Ireland from 1916 to 1966

Irish Aran Vawn Corrigan, 2019-03-11 Irish Aran knitting is a living tradition with a worldwide reach Arans communicate warmth comfort and a sense of home which people the world over continue to respond to even though the connection to our rocky outcroppings in the Atlantic Ocean may be long forgotten Aran grew up in the harsh environment of the Aran Islands where everyday wear consisted of home spun fabrics and knits Today Aran survives as part of a rich craft heritage and as high and slow fashion on the catwalks of the world Vawn Corrigan explores the history mythology and growth of this iconic design in this beautiful and informative hardback book

The Irish Countrywomen's Association Cookbook Irish Countrywomen's Association, 2012-10-12 Whether you are looking for a comforting soup a family meal or something sweet the beauty of this book is that you know the recipe will work There are over 100 delicious recipes for everything from Spring Nettle Soup and Dublin Coddle to Crusted Rack of Lamb with Orange and Olive Salad together with How To sections on baking making preserves and cooking potatoes as well as cooking for a crowd and within a budget This cookbook will also prove an invaluable resource for the next generation of home makers those novice cooks still building up confidence in the kitchen who might call home for that foolproof recipe Think of The ICA Cookbook as akin to having not just your own mammy on speed dial but rather a whole host of mummies and grannies from all over the country each sharing their own words of wisdom and precious firsthand experiences

Dublin's Lost Treasures Hugh Oram, 2019-04-22 Dublin's Lost Treasures covers the many shops cinemas theatres and other institutions that have closed down in Dublin over the past 50 years As the pace of development has quickened in recent decades old places have closed Down at an increasing rate so this book aims to be a record of many old shops and other establishments that have shut their doors for the last time often before being demolished Many of the reminiscences about these vanished places has been sent in by readers including staff and owners Design Roots Stuart Walker, Martyn Evans, Tom Cassidy, Jeyon Jung, Amy Twigger Holroyd, 2018-02-08 Design Roots provides a comprehensive review of culturally significant designs products and practices which are rooted to particular communities through making tradition and a sense of place Many rich traditional practices associated with community tacit knowledge and culture are being rapidly lost due to globalisation and urbanisation Yet they have much to offer for the future in terms of sustainability identity wellbeing and new opportunities in design This book considers the creative roots the place based ecologies and deep understandings of cultural significance not only in terms of history and tradition but also in terms of locale social interactions innovation and change for the sustainment of culturally significant material productions Importantly these are not locked in time by sentimentality and nostalgia but are evolving innovative and adaptive to new technologies and changing circumstances Contributing authors explore the historical roots of culturally significant designs products and practices emerging directions amateur endeavours enterprise models business opportunities and the changing role and contribution of design in the creation of material cultures of significance meaning and value An international perspective is provided through case studies and research from North and South America Africa Europe Asia and Australasia with examples including Aran jumper production in Northern Ireland weaving in Thailand Iranian housing design Brazilian street design and digital crafting in the United Kingdom Citizenship and Public Service Fergus O'Ferrall, 2000 A Country Miscellany Alice Taylor, 2014-12-23 Irish cottages the pleasures of walking in autumnal woods a hens hatching house and a country garden these are just some of the elements in this varied patchwork quilt of views of rural life from Alice Taylor Ireland's favourite storyteller Books Ireland, 1999 Galway-Gaillimh Mary Kavanagh, 2000 Irish Catholic identities Oliver P. Rafferty, 2015-06-01 What does it mean to be Irish Are the predicates Catholic and Irish so inextricably linked that it is impossible to have one and not the other Does the process of secularisation in modern times mean that Catholicism is no longer a touchstone of what it means to be Irish Indeed was such a paradigm ever true These are among the fundamental issues addressed in this work which examines whether distinct identity formation can be traced over time The book delineates the course of historical developments which complicated the process of identity formation in the Irish context when by turns Irish Catholics saw themselves as battling against English hegemony or the Protestant Reformation Without doubt the Reformation era cast a long shadow over how Irish Catholics would see themselves But the process of identity formation was of much longer duration Newly available in paperback this work traces the elements which have shaped how the Catholic Irish identified themselves and explores the political religious and cultural dimensions of the complex picture which is Irish Catholic identity The essays represent a systematic attempt to explore the fluidity of the components that make up Catholic identity in Ireland Ireland of the Welcomes, 1998 Women of the House Caitríona Clear, 2000 Clear history National U of Ireland blends official records and personal testimonies to demonstrate that rather than leading narrow optionless lives of ceaseless drudgery and severe subordination as is commonly assumed women who ran households wholeheartedly embraced modernity in a way that made sense to them and preserved their authority and standing She shows that the setting nature and meaning of household work changed gradually from one decade to the next and that running a house was a highly skilled job which often conferred status on those doing it Distributed by ISBS Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Enjoying the Beat of Appearance: An Emotional Symphony within Deeds Not Words The Life And Work Of Muriel Gahan

In some sort of taken by screens and the ceaseless chatter of instant interaction, the melodic elegance and emotional symphony developed by the published term often fade in to the background, eclipsed by the relentless sound and interruptions that permeate our lives. Nevertheless, set within the pages of Deeds Not Words The Life And Work Of Muriel Gahan a wonderful fictional treasure filled with organic thoughts, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Crafted by an elegant composer of language, this interesting masterpiece conducts readers on a psychological journey, well unraveling the hidden tunes and profound impact resonating within each cautiously crafted phrase. Within the depths of the poignant evaluation, we can discover the book is main harmonies, analyze their enthralling writing design, and surrender ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
