Provides startling evidence that the hairy creatures who lurk in our world's backcountry are more than figments of our collective imagination Let's Go for a Ride William Livezey, 2022-06-15 Let's Go for a Ride is the story of William Bill Livezey's thirty year career in the Maine Warden Service. Heralded as one of the best covert investigators in the country by Maine Warden Service Lieutenant Dan Scott, Bill is the agency's longest tenured undercover operative having spent twenty years in the Special Investigations Unit. Let's go for a ride is the universal bad guy code for breaking the law. Among Maine's most sinister wildlife offenders, its utterance is prone to incite alcohol fueled night hunting, high speed car chases on winding country roads, drug dealing, arson, and attempted murder. The worst of the worst were Bill Livezey's bread and butter. His success at putting the truly bad guys out of business was driven by his upbringing as one of them. Born and raised in Pennsylvania, Bill's father was a successful businessman whose blind ambition sent him down the dark path of drug trafficking. It wasn't long before young Bill was tagging along and doing drugs with his dad. The aftermath of witnessing his father perish in a fiery standoff with police sent Bill spiraling out of control. He lashed out at law enforcement by dealing drugs, and he numbed the pain and confusion by doing them. Deep down, Bill knew his life was broken. When a high school football teammate invited him to attend a Fellowship of Christian Athletes meeting, he discovered his faith and a new path.

The Wood Duck and the Mandarin Lawton L. Shurtleff, Christopher Savage, 1996-11-11 This is a story of conservation told through the natural histories of two of the world's most fascinating birds, the Wood Duck of North America and the Mandarin of Asia. The only two species in their genus, these Northern Wood Ducks are native to different continents but have long been kept together in captivity. Now, for the first time in history, they are also flying side by side in the wild in a small area of northern California. This rare circumstance has given Lawton L. Shurtleff and Christopher Savage the opportunity to observe the Northern Wood Ducks close relationship and is the starting point of this informative and beautifully rendered book The opening chapters tell how the Wood Duck and the Mandarin came to inhabit the Pacific Flyway and explain their extraordinary similarities Subsequent chapters discuss the distinctive histories of the two species and describe the birds throughout the seasons in their native flyways The Mandarins place in Asian art and literature is the subject of Chapter Five The final chapter illuminates the successful work done to protect the North American Wood Duck which has made a remarkable recovery from near extinction and the beginning efforts to protect the Mandarin whose existence in East Asia is seriously threatened Stunning full color photographs by renowned wildlife photographers along with photographs by the authors capture the exquisite beauty of these much revered birds Detailed maps show the Wood Ducks territory in North America and the Mandarins territory in East Asia and Great Britain Three appendices plans for building nestboxes instructions for banding birds and lists of books and conservation organizations and a thorough index are valuable resources in a book that will delight bird lovers and general readers alike
