The United Nations and Education David Coleman, Phillip W. Jones, 2004-11-10 The UN is often questioned about its ongoing relevance and overall effectiveness in the 21st century particularly in its involvement with educational policy and co operation around the globe This ground breaking book examines the four key agencies within the UN system that share the vital role of addressing educational futures UNESCO the World Bank UNICEF and UNDP As the core of educational multilateralism these agencies powerfully reflect the UN s historic grounding in peace human rights and economic development The history of each agency s commitment to education is explored with critical detachment with particular attention paid to the post Cold War period during which each agency has needed to re think the impact of globalisation on both its modes of operation as well as the content of its education policies

Just as education policy itself has been subject to the impact of globalisation so to has each agency had to adapt at a time when not only education but also their own mandates have been thrown open to question This timely book will be essential reading for all those working with and for UN agencies foreign aid workers and the development co operation industry At a time when education policies budgets and strategies appear wide open to profound changes this book will provide a much needed roadmap to the future Diplomacy at the UN A. Jennings,G. Berridge,2016-02-18 The Life-Death Instinct Neil Maizels,2023-12-14 Throughout this enlightening collection Neil Maizels considers the helical tandem between the Life Instinct and the Death drive in the light of canonical literary figures like Thomas Hardy Patricia Highsmith Sylvia Plath and Shakespeare classic filmmakers like Hitchcock and contemporary television shows such as Curb Your Enthusiasm The West Wing and Succession This light is filtered through intricate clinical work whereby Maizels seeks to illustrate and expound on the strength and indefatigability of the Life Instinct He makes a case for it as the relentless driver of integration and binding in the ever growing expansive psyche He considers both Freud s original equation of the Life Instinct with Eros and a widening interconnecting love of mankind and Melanie Klein s with gratitude and creative reparation This book is a multi layered presentation of the clinical and theoretical work of Neil Maizels as it has evolved and convolved over several decades It places the feeling through of one s conflicts at the heart of the mind s generation of a unique identity equipped to evolve its own unique form of creative spirit in the face of life s most pressing psychological challenges the limitation of time and reciprocated beauty The Life Death Instinct Feeling Through Creative Clinical Moments is important reading for anyone seeking to expand their knowledge in this fascinating intersection of psychoanalysis and the arts Antipodean America Paul Giles,2013 A sweeping study that spans two continents and over three hundred years of literary history Antipodean America identifies the surprising affinities between Australian and American literature
