Art For The Nation Exhibitions And The London Public 1747 2001:

Art for the Nation Brandon Taylor, 1999 Art first became public in Britain through a series of interlocking relationships between national galleries patrons collections of art and sections or classes of the population as a whole This study concentrates on London and analyzes the formation of the major national art institutions at its geographical and managerial centre

British Art and the First World War, 1914-1924 James Fox, 2015-07-30 Overturning decades of scholarly orthodoxies James Fox makes a bold new argument about the First World War s cultural consequences

The Manchester Art Treasures Exhibition of 1857 Elizabeth A. Pergam, 2017-07-05 An overdue study of a groundbreaking event this is the first book length examination of the Manchester Art Treasures Exhibition of 1857 Intended to rehabilitate Manchester s image at a heady time of economic prosperity the Exhibition became a touchstone for aesthetic social and economic issues of the mid nineteenth century Reverberations of this moment can be followed to the present day in the discipline of art history and its practice in public museums of Europe and America Highlighting the tension between art and commerce philanthropy and profit the book examines the Exhibition s organization and the presentation of the works of art in the purpose built Art Treasures Palace Pergam places the Exhibition in the context of contemporary debates about museum architecture and display With an analysis of the reception of both Ancient and Modern paintings the book questions the function of exhibitions in the construction of an art historical canon The book also provides an essential reference tool a compiled list of all of the paintings exhibited in 1857 that are now in public collections throughout the world with an analysis of the collecting trends manifest in their provenance

For Creative Geographies Harriet Hawkins, 2013-10-08 This book provides the first sustained critical exploration and celebration of the relationship between Geography and the contemporary Visual Arts With the growth of research in the Geohumanities and the Spatial Humanities there is an imperative to extend and deepen considerations of the form and import of geography art relations Such reflections are increasingly important as geography art intersections come to encompass not only relationships built through interpretation but also those built through shared practices wherein geographers work as and with artists curators and other creative practitioners For Creative Geographies features seven diverse case studies of artists works and exhibitions made towards the end of the twentieth and the beginning of the twentieth first century Organized into three analytic sections the volume explores the role of art in the making of geographical knowledge the growth of geographical perspectives as art world analytics and shared explorations of the territory of the body In doing so Hawkins proposes an analytic framework for exploring questions of the geographical work art does the value of geographical analytics in exploring the production and consumption of art and the different forms of encounter that artworks develop whether this be with their audiences or their makers

Transformative Beauty Amy Woodson-Boulton, 2012-03-21 Why did British industrial cities build art museums By exploring the histories of the municipal art museums in Birmingham Liverpool and Manchester Transformative Beauty examines the underlying logic of the Victorian art museum movement These museums attempted to create a space free from the moral and physical ugliness of industrial capitalism Deeply engaged with the social criticism of John Ruskin reformers created a new prominent urban institution a domesticated public space that not only aimed to provide refuge from the corrosive effects of industrial society but also provided a remarkably unified secular alternative to traditional religion Woodson Boulton raises provocative questions about the meaning and use of art in relation to artistic practice urban development social justice education and class In today's context of global austerity and shrinking government support of public cultural institutions this book is a timely consideration of arts policy and purposes in modern society

Stewards of the Nation's Art Andrea Geddes Poole, 2010-02-13 Between 1890 and 1939 the groups of men involved in running Britain's four main public art galleries the National Gallery the Tate Gallery the Wallace Collection and the National Portrait Gallery were embroiled in continuous power struggles Stewards of the Nation's Art examines the internal tensions between the galleries administrative directors the aristocrats dominating the boards of trustees and those in the Treasury who controlled the funds as well as board appointments Andrea Geddes Poole uses meticulous primary research from all four of these institutions to discuss changing ideas about class education and work during this period The conflicts between aristocratic trustees and administrative directors were not only about the running of the galleries but also reflected the era's strain between aristocratic amateurs and nouveau riche professionals Stewards of the Nation's Art is an absorbing study that explores the extent to which the aristocracy was able to hold on to cultural power in an increasingly professional and meritocratic age

Development of Museums in Victorian Britain Anthony Burton, 2014-02-25 This is a review of the campaigns for museums undertaken by the Society of Arts in Victorian Britain

Design and Creativity Guy Julier, Liz Moor, 2009-08-01 Design and other creative industries not only shape our lives in numerous ways providing cultural goods such as films music and magazines but also shape the look and feel of everyday objects and spaces The creative industries are also important economically governments and businesses now make considerable efforts to manage creativity for a range of political and economic ends Does the management of design conflict with traditional ideas of creative freedom and autonomy How do government policies and business priorities influence the day to day practices of designers And how far have the processes and purpose of creative work been changed by its new centrality to business and government Bringing together case studies and material from a range of industries and contexts as well as a series of interviews with practitioners Design and Creativity provides a cutting edge account of key trends in the creative industries at the start of the twenty first century

William Wordsworth and the Ecology of Authorship Scott Hess, 2012-04-12 In William Wordsworth and the Ecology of Authorship Scott Hess explores Wordsworth's defining role in establishing what he designates as the ecology of authorship a primarily middle class nineteenth century conception of nature associated with aesthetics high culture individualism and nation Instead of viewing Wordsworth as an early ecologist Hess places him within a context that is largely cultural and aesthetic The supposedly universal Wordsworthian vision of nature Hess argues was in this sense specifically male middle class professional and culturally elite factors that continue to shape the environmental movement today

John Ruskin, the Pre-Raphaelites, and Religious Imagination Sheona Beaumont, Madeleine Emerald Thiele, 2023-06-26 This volume presents a collection of essays by leading experts which examine nineteenth century ideas about Christian theology art architecture restoration and curatorial practice The volume unveils the importance of John Ruskin's writing for today's audience and allies it with the dynamism of the Pre Raphaelite religious imagination Ruskin's drawings and daguerreotypes as well as Pre Raphaelite paintings stained glass and engravings are shown to be alive with visual theology artists such as Dante Gabriel Rossetti John Everett Millais Edward Burne Jones and Evelyn de Morgan illuminate aspects of faith and aesthetics The interdisciplinary nature of this volume encourages reflection upon praise truth and beauty The aesthetic conversations between Ruskin and the Pre Raphaelites themselves become a form of sacra conversazione

Dickens, Journalism, and Nationhood Sabine Clemm, 2010-04-15 Dickens Journalism and Nationhood examines Charles Dickens weekly family magazine Household Words in order to develop a detailed picture of how the journal negotiated asserted and simultaneously deconstructed Englishness as a unified and sometimes unifying mode of expression It offers close readings of a wide range of materials that self consciously focus on the nature of England as well as the relationship between Britain and the European continent Ireland and the British colonies Starting with the representation and classification of identities that took place within the framework of the Great Exhibition of 1851 it suggests that the journal strives for a model of the world in concentric circles spiraling outward from the metropolitan center of London Despite this apparent orderliness however each of the national or regional categories constructed by the journal also resists and undermines such a clear cut representation

The Renaissance, English Cultural Nationalism, and Modernism, 1860-1920 L. Hinojosa, 2009-04-26 Contextualising the emergence of literary and aesthetic modernism and cultural nationalism within the popularity of the Renaissance this volume offers new insights into high and low culture as well as historical periodization

Humanities in the Twenty-First Century Eleonora Belfiore, Anna Upchurch, 2013-07-29 This collection of essays by scholars with expertise in a range of fields cultural professionals and policy makers explores different ways in which the arts and humanities contribute to dealing with the challenges of contemporary society in ways that do not rely on simplistic and questionable notions of socio economic impact as a proxy for value

Museums and Source Communities Alison K. Brown, Laura Peers, 2005-06-28 This volume combines some of the most influential published research in this emerging field with newly commissioned essays on the issues problems and lessons involved in collaborating museums and source communities Focusing on museums in the UK North America and the Pacific the book highlights three areas which demonstrate the new developments most clearly the museum as field site or contact zone a place which source community members enter for purposes of consultation and collaboration visual repatriation the use of photography to return images of ancestors historical moments and material heritage to source communities exhibition case studies these are discussed to reveal the implications of cross cultural and collaborative research for museums and how such projects have challenged established attitudes and practices As the first overview of its kind this collection will be essential reading for museum staff working with source communities for community members involved with museum programmes and for students and academics in museum studies and social anthropology

The Practice of Light Sean Cubitt, 2014-09-05 An account of Western visual technologies since the Renaissance traces a history of the increasing control of light's intrinsic excess Light is the condition of all vision and the visual media are our most important explorations of this condition The history of visual technologies reveals a centuries long project aimed at controlling light In this book Sean Cubitt traces a genealogy of the dominant visual media of the twenty first century digital video film and photography through a history of materials and practices that begins with the inventions of intaglio printing and oil painting Attending to the specificities of inks and pigments cathode ray tubes color film lenses screens and chips Cubitt argues that we have moved from a hierarchical visual culture focused on semantic values to a more democratic but value free numerical commodity Cubitt begins with the invisibility of black then builds from line to surface to volume and space He describes Rembrandt's attempts to achieve pure black by tricking the viewer and the rise of geometry as a governing principle in visual technology seen in Dürer Hogarth and Disney among others He finds the origins of central features of digital imaging in nineteenth century printmaking examines the clash between the physics and psychology of color explores the representation of space in shadows layers and projection discusses modes of temporal order in still photography cinema television and digital video and considers the implications of a political aesthetics of visual technology

Sensible Objects Elizabeth Edwards, Chris Gosden, Ruth Phillips, 2020-05-31 Anthropologists of the senses have long argued that cultures differ in their sensory registers This groundbreaking volume applies this idea to material culture and the social practices that endow objects with meanings in both colonial and postcolonial relationships It challenges the privileged position of the sense of vision in the analysis of material culture Contributors argue that vision can only be understood in relation to the other senses In this they present another challenge to the assumed western five sense model and show how our understanding of material culture in both historical and contemporary contexts might be reconfigured if we consider the role of smell taste touch and sound as well as sight in making meanings about objects

Spaces for Feeling Susan Broomhall, 2015-03-05 Spaces for Feeling explores how English and Scottish people experienced sociabilities and socialities from 1650 to 1850 and investigates their operation through emotional practices and particular spaces The collection highlights the forms practices and memberships of these varied spaces for feeling in this two hundred year period and charts the shifting conceptualisations of emotions that underpinned them The authors employ historical literary and visual history approaches to analyse a series of literary and art works emerging forms of print media such as pamphlet propaganda newspapers and periodicals and familial and personal sources such as letters in order to tease out how particular communities were shaped and cohered through distinct emotional practices in specific spaces of feeling This collection studies the function of emotions in group formations in Britain during a period that has attracted widespread scholarly interest in the creation and meaning of sociabilities in particular From clubs and societies to families and households essays here examine how emotional practices could sustain particular associations create new social communities and disrupt the capacity of a specific cohort to operate successfully This timely collection will be essential reading for students and scholars of the history of emotions

Modern Enchantments Simon During, 2009-06-30 A history of secular or non supernatural or entertainment magic as an important but neglected constituent of modern culture Nicholas Daly Magic Simon During suggests has helped shape modern culture Devoted to this deceptively simple proposition During s superlative work written over the course of a decade gets at the aesthetic questions at the very heart of the study of culture How can the most ordinary arts and by magic During means not the supernatural but the special effects and conjurings of magic shows affect people Modern Enchantments takes us deeply into the history and workings of modern secular magic from the legerdemain of Isaac Fawkes in 1720 to the return of real magic in nineteenth century spiritualism to the role of magic in the emergence of the cinema Through the course of this history During shows how magic performances have drawn together heterogeneous audiences contributed to the molding of cultural hierarchies and extended cultural technologies and media at key moments sometimes introducing spectators into rationality and helping to disseminate skepticism and publicize scientific innovation In a more revealing argument still Modern Enchantments shows that magic entertainments have increased the sway of fictions in our culture and helped define modern society s image of itself Praise for Modern Enchantment During documents the extent to which magic and magical thinking have pervaded and continue to pervade secular life the author examines 19th and 20th century theatrical magic and commercial conjuring with great sensitivity to the social and cultural context in the Western world Equally fascinating is the analysis of magic and early film R Sugarman Choice A richly informed warmly argued addition to the growing number of books in which writers worry at the pervasive blurring of distinctions between act and appearance organic consciousness and artificial intelligence imagination and empirical experience illusion and thought reality TV and real life dreams and money Marina Warner Financial Times During moves confidently across three centuries of magic and covers aspects of a few more besides The sheer wealth of historical detail he provides is impressive but no less impressive is the subtlety of his argumentation and the suggestiveness of his claims This extremely significant piece of work will appeal to literary critics historians and not least devotees of magic Nicholas Daly author of Modernism Romance and the Fin de Si cle Popular Fiction and British Culture 1880 1914
