Conceptual Art After Modernism Robert Bailey, 2025-05-30 This study provides a new interpretation of art after modernism by foregrounding the importance of conceptual thinking as a pervasive force for change in art and art history since 1950 Robert Bailey shows how distinctions between art and art history gave way as conceptual thinking provided artists and art historians with a common means to reassess what art could be and do in the world Bailey assesses the results of artful and scholarly inquiries combining creative activity with intellectual rigor to proffer new approaches to a variety of social and environmental concerns ranging from questions about human identity including race class gender and sexuality to activist efforts to redress everything from abortion access to migrants rights to climate change This book provides both a historical overview of these developments and close analyses of key works and texts spanning 1950 to the present and encompassing broad geographic scope with special attention paid to Indigenous art The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history and contemporary art

Art History, After Sherrie Levine Howard Singerman, Sherrie Levine, 2012 For this in depth examination of artist Sherrie Levine Howard Singerman surveys a broad range of sources to assess an artist whose work was understood from the outset to oppose the values of the art world in the 1980s but who by the end of the decade was exhibiting in some of the most successful commercial galleries in New York

Aesthetics After Modernism Diarmuid Costello, 2024 Aesthetics after Modernism argues for the ongoing relevance of aesthetics to art after modernism In it I show that even what are typically taken to be the hardest of hard cases engage us in recognisably aesthetic ways and as such remain amenable to aesthetic analysis Why if that is true do so many art theorists critics and sometimes even artists appear to think otherwise I trace the artworld's rejection of aesthetic theory to Clement Greenberg's success in co-opting the discourse of aesthetics notably Kant's aesthetics to underwrite his own formalism about modernist art Not only has this led to Kant being tarred with the brush of Greenbergian formalism it has also led critics and theorists of later art to miss the resources of the aesthetic tradition perhaps especially Kant for capturing what is distinctive about our cognitive relation to the kinds of art that interest them There is a tendency simply to assume that Kant's aesthetics cannot speak to the more conceptual aspects of our interactions with art I trace the legacy of Greenberg's modernism and formalism for later art criticism and theory before offering an interpretation of Kant's theory of art that seeks to show otherwise I take Conceptual Art as my test case here is a form of art that often claims to forgo sensible properties altogether But if Kant's aesthetics can accommodate to our cognitive relation to art with no sensible features relevant to its appreciation as art then it should in principle withstand the challenge of any form of art

Weak Painting After Modernism Craig Staff, 2023-09-01 This book examines the terms upon which painting in the United States sought to negotiate with the legacy of American formalist aesthetics and by extension the understanding of modernist painting it had become most readily associated with In so doing a separate set of possibilities for painting gradually began to emerge The salient debates and practices that collectively worked to establish such a response are approached through the philosopher Gianni Vattimo's idea of pensiero debole or so called weak thought To this end the proposed study both identifies and seeks to examine a type of weak painting which like Vattimo's idea took as its critical point of departure the exhaustion but not the vanishing of the project of modernism the belief in reason progress history the nation state etc Craig Staff explores particular instances wherein artists sought to extend the parameters of the object beyond what had been called into question namely the proclivity for modernist painting's strength to be understood as denoting amongst other things a perceived set of universal essences This book will be of interest to scholars working in art history fine art cultural studies critical theory curatorial studies and philosophy

Can Art History be Made Global? Monica Juneja, 2023-03-20 The book responds to the challenge of the global turn in the humanities from the perspective of art history A global art history it argues need not follow the logic of economic globalization nor seek to bring the entire world into its fold Instead it draws on a theory of transculturation to explore key moments of an art history that can no longer be approached through a facile globalism How can art historical analysis theorize relationships of connectivity that have characterized cultures and regions across distances How can it meaningfully handle issues of commensurability or its absence among cultures By shifting the focus of enquiry to South Asia the five meditations that make up this book seek to translate intellectual insights of experiences beyond Euro America into globally intelligible analyses

Art Rethought Nicholas Wolterstorff, 2015 We engage with works of art in many ways yet almost all modern philosophers of art have focused entirely on one mode of engagement disinterested attention Nicholas Wolterstorff explores why this is and offers an alternative framework according to which arts are a part of social practice and have different meaning in different practices

After Modernism Pelagia Goulimari, 2023-03-31 While celebrating the centenary of the annus mirabilis of modernism we now encounter modernism after postmodernist poststructuralist postcolonial critical race feminist queer and trans writing and theory Out of the figures narratives and concepts they have developed a less universal more global decentred context specific interconnected modernism emerges In after modernism the meanings of after include periodisation homage and critique This book attends to neglected genealogies and intertexts high and low yet offering unacknowledged ontological epistemological conceptual and figurative resources How have artists of the Global South negotiated the hierarchical division of art capital into Western high art vs Global South culture Modernity's location has been the Western metropolis but other origin stories have been centring slavery colonialism the nation state If modernity did not originate once why not multiple and still to come modernities Instead of a universalizable Western modernity vs local non Western traditions the contributors to this book discern multiple modern traditions Rather than reifying their heterogeneity the authors tunnel for lost transnational connections The nation state and the citizen have together defined Western modernity and the civilized Yet they have required the gender binary gender and sexual normativity assimilation exclusion forced migration partition segregation In between the public and the private humans and the natural world this book explores a multiple relational modern subjectivity collectivity and cosmic interconnectivity whose space is indivisible entangled ever folding and unfolding It was originally published as a special issue of the journal Angelaki Art History and Visual Studies in Europe Matthew Rampley, Thierry Lenain, Hubert Locher, 2012-06-22 This book undertakes a critical survey of art history across Europe examining the recent conceptual and methodological concerns informing the discipline as well as the political social and ideological factors that have shaped its development in specific national contexts Video Art Historicized Malin Hedlin Hayden, 2016-03-03 Video art emerged as an art form that from the 1960s and onwards challenged the concept of art hence art historical practices From the perspective of artists critics and scholars engaged with this new medium art was seen as too limiting a notion Important issues were to re think art as a means for critical investigations and a demand for visual reconsiderations Likewise art history was argued to be in crisis and in need of adapting its theories and methods in order to produce interpretations and thereby establish historical sense for moving images as fine art Yet as this book argues video art history has evolved into a discourse clinging to traditional concepts ideologies and narrative structures manifested in an increasing body of texts Video Art Historicized provides a novel insightful and also challenging re interpretation of this field by examining the discourse and its own premises It takes a firm conceptual approach to the material examining the conceptual theoretical and methodological implications that are simultaneously contested by both artists and authors yet intertwined in both the legitimizing and the historicizing processes of video as art By engaging art history's most debated concepts canon art and history this study provides an in depth investigation of the mechanisms of the historiography of video art Scrutinizing various narratives on video art the book emphasizes the profound and widespread hesitations towards but also the efforts to negotiate traditional concepts and practices By focusing on the politics of this discourse theoretical issues of gender nationality and particular themes in video art Malin Hedlin Hayden contests the presumptions that inform video art and its history Religion and

Contemporary Art Ronald R. Bernier, Rachel Hostetter Smith, 2023-05-11 Religion and Contemporary Art sets the theoretical frameworks and interpretive strategies for exploring the re emergence of religion in the making exhibiting and discussion of contemporary art Featuring essays from both established and emerging scholars critics and artists the book reflects on what might be termed an accord between contemporary art and religion It explores the common strategies contemporary artists employ in the interface between religion and contemporary art practice It also includes case studies to provide more in depth treatments of specific artists grappling with themes such as ritual abstraction mythology the body popular culture science liturgy and social justice among other themes It is a must read resource for working artists critics and scholars in this field and an invitation to new voices curious about its promises and possibilities Spatial Literary Studies in China Ying Fang, Robert T. Tally Jr., 2022-11-14 Spatial Literary Studies in China explores the range of vibrant and innovative research being done in China today Chinese scholars have been exploring spatially oriented literary criticism in two different and mutually reinforcing directions the first has focused on the study of Western literature especially U S and European texts and theory and the second has examined Chinese cultures texts and spaces This collection of essays demonstrates Chinese scholars insightful interpretation evaluation and innovative application of international spatial analyses theories and methodologies as well as their inspiring exploration and reconstruction of distinctively Chinese critical and theoretical discourses For the first time in English the essays in this volume demonstrate the vitality of literary geography geocriticism and the spatial humanities in China in the twenty first century Beyond Reason Sanjay Seth, 2021 Introduction Part I Modern western knowledge under challenge Unsettling the modern knowledge settlement Defending reason a postcolonial critique Part II Postcolonialism and social science The code of history The anachronism of history International relations amnesia and empire Political theory and the bourgeois public sphere Epilogue Knowledge and politics ReVisioning James Romaine, Linda Stratford, 2014-05-20 ReVisioning Critical Methods of Seeing Christianity in the History of Art examines the application of art historical methods to the history of Christianity and art As methods of art history have become more interdisciplinary there has been a notable emergence of discussions of religion in art history as well as related fields such as visual culture and theology This book represents the first critical examination of scholarly methodologies applied to the study of Christian subjects themes and contexts in art ReVisioning contains original work from a range of scholars each of whom has addressed the question in regard to a well known work of art or body of work How have particular methods of art history been applied and with what effect The study moves from the third century to the present providing extensive treatment and analysis of art historical methods applied to the history of Christianity and art A Companion to Modern Art Pam Meecham, 2018-02-13 A Companion to Modern Art presents a series of original essays by international and interdisciplinary authors who offer a comprehensive overview of the origins and evolution of artistic works movements approaches influences and legacies of Modern Art Presents a contemporary debate and dialogue rather than a seamless consensus on Modern Art

Aims for reader accessibility by highlighting a plurality of approaches and voices in the field Presents Modern Art's foundational philosophic ideas and practices as well as the complexities of key artists such as Cezanne and Picasso and those who straddled the modern and contemporary Looks at the historical reception of Modern Art in addition to the latest insights of art historians curators and critics to artists educators and more The Spirit of Secular Art Robert Nelson, 2007 THE SPIRIT OF SECULAR ART explains the spiritual prestige of art Various theorists have discussed how art has an aura or indefinable magic This book explains how when and why it gained its spiritual properties The idea that all art is somehow spiritual even though not religious is often assumed this book while narrating the historical trajectory of art in the most accessible language reveals how the mysteries of religious practice are abstracted and saved through all stages of secularisation in European culture THE SPIRIT OF SECULAR ART presents a coherent theory defining the sacred basis of Western aesthetics It evocatively describes the afterlife of the holy from Ancient Greece to the present and outlines how the mysterious institution of art can be explained in material terms Unlike other books in the genre THE SPIRIT OF SECULAR ART radically deconstructs traditional art history in terms of prestige and the value of the non material The book functions as an alternative critical history of art integrated with the histories of literature and belief a philosophical essay on the fundamental values of art and religion and a critique of the spiritual conceits of contemporary aesthetics and art appreciation

Re-envisioning the Contemporary Art Canon Ruth E Iskin, 2016-12-08 Re envisioning the Contemporary Art Canon Perspectives in a Global World seeks to dissect and interrogate the nature of the present day art field which has experienced dramatic shifts in the past 50 years In discussions of the canon of art history the notion of inclusiveness both at the level of rhetoric and as a desired practice is on the rise and gradually replacing talk of exclusion which dominated critiques of the canon up until two decades ago The art field has dramatically if insufficiently changed in the half century since the first protests and critiques of the exclusion of others from the art canon With increased globalization and shifting geopolitics the art field is expanding beyond its Euro American focus as is particularly evident in the large scale international biennales now held all over the globe Are canons and counter canons still relevant Can they be re envisioned rather than merely revised Following an introduction that discusses these issues thirteen newly commissioned essays present case studies of consecration in the contemporary art field and three commissioned discussions present diverse positions on issues of the canon and consecration processes today This volume will be of interest to instructors and students of contemporary art art history and museum and curatorial studies
