Cursed Questions Richard Taruskin,2020-04-21 Richard Taruskin s sweeping collection of essays distills a half century of professional experience demonstrating an unparalleled insider awareness of relevant debates in all areas of music studies including historiography and criticism representation and aesthetics musical and professional politics and the sociology of taste Cursed Questions invoking a famous catchphrase from Russian intellectual history grapples with questions that are never finally answered but never go away The writings gathered here form an intellectual biography that showcases the characteristic wit provocation and erudition that readers have come to expect from Taruskin making it an essential volume for anyone interested in music politics and the arts

Cold War Poetry Edward Brunner,2001 Mainstream American poetry of the 1950s has long been dismissed as deliberately indifferent to its cultural circumstances In this penetrating study Edward Brunner breaks the placid surface of the hollow decade to reveal a poetry sharply responsive to issues of its time Cold War Poetry considers the fifties poem as part of a dual cultural project as proof of the competency of the newly professionalized poet and as a user friendly way of initiating a newly educated upwardly mobile postwar audience into high culture Brunner revisits Richard Wilbur Randall Jarrell and other acknowledged leaders of the period as well as neglected writers such as Rosalie Moore V R Lang Katherine Hoskins Melvin B Tolson and Hyam Plutzik He also examines the one sided authority of the male dominated book review process the ostracizing of female and minority poets poetic fads such as the ubiquitous sestina and the power of the classroom anthology to establish criteria for reading Attributing the gradual change in poetic style during the 1950s to the slow collapse of the authority of the state Brunner shows how a secretive anxious poetics developed in the shadow of a disabled government He recontextualizes the much maligned domestic verse of the 1950s reading its shift toward the private sphere and the recurrent image of the child as a reflection of the powerlessness of the post nuclear citizen Through a close examination of poetry written about the Bomb he delineates how poets registered their growing sense of cosmic disorder in coded language resorting to subterfuge to continue their critique in the face of sanctions levied against those who questioned government policies Brilliantly decoding the politics embedded in the poetry of an ostensibly apolitical time Cold War Poetry provides a powerful rereading of a pivotal decade

A Companion to Impressionism André Dombrowski,2028-08-14 The 21st century s first major academic reassessment of Impressionism providing a new generation of scholars with a comprehensive view of critical conversations Presenting an expansive view of the study of Impressionism this extraordinary volume breaks new thematic ground while also reconsidering established questions surrounding the definition chronology and membership of the Impressionist movement In 34 original essays from established and emerging scholars this collection considers a diverse range of developing topics and offers new critical approaches to the interpretation of Impressionist art Focusing on the 1860s to 1890s this Companion explores artists who are well represented in Impressionist studies including Monet Renoir Degas and Cassatt as well as Morisot Caillebotte Bazille and other significant yet lesser known artists The essays cover a wide variety of methodologies in addressing such topics as Impressionism's global predominance at the turn of the 20th century the relationship between Impressionism and the emergence of new media the materials and techniques of the Impressionists and the movement's exhibition and reception history Part of the acclaimed Wiley Blackwell Companions to Art History series this important new addition to scholarship in this field Reevaluates the origins chronology and critical reception of French Impressionism Discusses Impressionism's account of modern identity in the contexts of race nationality gender and sexuality Explores the global reach and influence of Impressionism in Europe the Middle East East Asia North Africa and the Americas Considers Impressionism's relationship to the emergence of film and photography in the 19th century Considers Impressionism's representation of the private sphere as compared to its depictions of public issues such as empire finance and environmental change Addresses the Impressionist market and clientele period criticism and exhibition displays from the late 19th century to the middle of the 20th century Features original essays by academics curators and conservators from around the world including those from France Germany the United States the United Kingdom Japan Turkey and Argentina The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Impressionism is an invaluable text for students and academics studying Impressionism and late 19th century European art Post Impressionism modern art and modern French cultural history Art Education Albert William Levi, Ralph Alexander Smith, 1991 Recommending that art be taught as a humanity this volume provides a philosophical rationale for the idea of discipline based art education Levi and Smith discuss topics ranging over both the public and private aspects of art the disciplines of artistic creation art history art criticism and aesthetics and curriculum proposals featuring five phases of aesthetic learning While there is no consensus on how the various components of aesthetic learning should be presented in order to accomplish the goals of discipline based art education the authors point out that progress toward those goals will require that those who design art education programs bring an understanding of the four disciplines to their work The introductory volume of a five volume series this book will appeal to elementary and secondary art teachers those who prepare teachers at the college level and museum educators Invisible Giants Mark C. Carnes, 2002-05-16 Because history is as fallible as the people who record it many of the figures who have shaped our country have receded from public memory In order to celebrate and call attention to these lives Oxford University Press asked fifty accomplished personalities from a diverse range of interests to each select a person from the 24 volume American National Biography that they felt deserved more attention In Invisible Giants the biographies of these forgotten figures appear alongside the often personal comments of their selectors We discover the man who inspired Sherwin Nuland to become a doctor the writer Jacques Barzun considers America's first cultural critic and the woman who taught Tina Brown to bare her teeth We learn of the poetry recited to Henry Louis Gates Jr as a boy the magazine Helen Gurley Brown required every one of her editors to subscribe to and the book Andy Rooney deems better than the Bible and easier to understand Edited by Mark C Carnes and published with the American Council of Learned Societies Invisible Giants presents the architects of our country's past through the eyes of the architects of its future Early American Modernist Painting 1910-1935 Abraham A. Theorem 0.1 Let U be a $\mathfrak{g}$ -module and let $\rho \in \text{GL}(U)$ be a representation corresponding to U . Let g be an element of $\mathfrak{g}$ of order n . Then $\rho(g)$ is diagonalisable. $\chi_U(g)$ is the sum of eigenvalues of g . $\chi_U(g)$ is the sum of $\chi_U(1/n)$ th roots of unity. $\chi_U(g) = \frac{1}{n} \sum_{k=0}^{n-1} \chi_U(g^k)$. $\langle g \rangle$ is a normal subgroup of G .
