Art Objects Their Care And Preservation A Handbook For Museums And Collectors:

Art Objects: Their Care and Preservation Frieda Kay Fall, 1973 Museum Handbook United States. National Park Service, 1991 Manual for Museums Ralph H. Lewis, 1976 Historic House Museums Sherry Butcher-Younghans, 1996-02-08 Historic house museums can be found in nearly every city in the United States and Canada. These are the homes of the earliest settlers, statesmen, frontiersmen, great writers, artists, architects, and industrial magnates. These are the places carefully saved and preserved that represent a cultural heritage. Despite their popularity, it is not uncommon to find museums that are in poor repair, their collections neglected, and their staffs grossly overworked. Many are run by well-meaning and hard-working volunteers who have little or no professional training. Often they survive on shoestring budgets and are able to present only limited programs. Serving both as a hands-on guide and reference, this book examines these problems, offering practical advice and solutions which can be easily implemented. Its useful lessons include governance, where to find help, care of collections, conservation, security, and interpretation, all designed to increase the professionalism of the historic house museum. Keyguide to Information Sources in Museum Studies Peter Woodhead, Geoffrey Stansfield, 1994 This revised and updated edition provides an integrated guide to the documentation, reference aids, and key organizational sources of information about museums and museum studies worldwide. Part One provides an overview of museums and the literature about them. Part Two is an annotated bibliography, and Part Three is an international directory of organizations. A detailed index completes the work. Museum Handbook United States. National Park Service, 1990

International Directory of Museum Training Gary Edson, 2013-05-13 Choosing the right museum training course may be one of the most important decisions a person makes in their career. Whether you are already working in a museum or are just beginning training, you will need the most comprehensive and up-to-date information. The International Directory of Museum Training provides a list of museum training programmes worldwide with detailed information about each course. Every entry contains information about subjects offered, numbers of students, scholarship opportunities, and contact names and addresses. International Directory of Museum Training is co-published with ICTOP, the training committee of ICOM. It is the successor to the widely recognised Museum Studies International, last published in 1988. This completely new and fully updated volume enhances the qualities of the earlier publication and updates the presentation to make the volume easier to use. This is an essential reference book for all who are hoping to develop a career in museum work or to enhance their professional qualifications. The Ardabil Carpets Rexford Stead, 1974-01-01 The richness of Near Eastern art is epitomized by sixteenth and seventeenth century Persian carpets. Among the finest ever produced, the two Ardabil carpets are believed to have been made as offerings for the Shrine of Sheikh Safi at Ardabil during the Safavid dynasty in sixteenth century Persia. In this text, Rexford Stead, deputy director of the Los Angeles County Museum of Art, explores the intricacies of the Ardabil carpets: one formerly in the Getty Museum and now in the Los Angeles County Museum of Art, and the other in the Victoria and Albert Museum London A bibliography and exhibition history are included Art Objects Frieda Kay All,1867 Art Objects: Their Care and Preservation Frieda Kay Fall,1971 Procedures and Conservation Standards for Museum Collections in Transit and on Exhibition Nathan Stolow,1981 Catalog of the Library of the Whitney Museum of American Art, New York, New York Whitney Museum of American Art.
