Art Of Africa 1st Edition:

Art and Museum in Africa Emery Effiboley, 2024-04-17 This book is a collection of essays on the history of museums and art in Africa. The publication addresses the decolonization of African museums before analysing forms and encounter a major aspect in the African artistic creation. The issue of repatriation is also addressed not only in the complexity of the phenomenon but also as resulting to conflicting sovereignties in Africa. The collection in the end discusses the role of art in nation building in the context of Benin Republic and how museum cooperation could enhance the museum sector. Working without seeking any recognition and at times under very challenging circumstances Effiboley's excellent efforts in trying to address the subject of African art museums and restitution in a realistic and holistic way grounded in tradition has often been thwarted by some who would have been expected to advocate for similar views. This collection of works of over 20 years demonstrates a commitment to a cause and speaks for itself not only in terms of recognizing the place of African heritage or African Art but the need to decolonize the mind the practice and the narratives. Persistent on this journey of questioning the abnormal made normal this body of works stands out as a true example of a cause sincerely in need of addressing. Professor George Abungu Emeritus Director General of the National Museums of Kenya Effiboley gives us a pivotal work at a vital moment when African voices will define the future of museums in Africa. His voice of deep scholarly experience guides us how to change the ways we think about art museums and culture in Africa. Michael Rowlands Emeritus Professor Department of Anthropology University College London

Contemporary Art from Nigeria in the Global Markets Jonathan Adeyemi, 2022-12-07 This book brings together from four years of study on Nigerian contemporary art s internationalization The monograph integrates voices of African Nigerian artists and art market players into the growing discourse on the emerging art markets in the global South It explores the logic of competition and dynamics of power relations in the global markets focusing on the internationalization of contemporary art forms from peripheral regions The book confirms that the internationalization of contemporary art form from Nigeria is limited due to systematic marginalization in the artistic field which in this case based on postcolonialism and debilitating socio economic factors such as outmoded art education unstructured support system and weak mechanism for local validation and an inefficient political framework for art governance It will therefore be useful to students and researchers in the sociology of art art market studies art history and culture polity

Topothesia Ameeth Vijay,2023-05-02 SHORTLISTED 2024 MSA FIRST BOOK PRIZE Topothesia reads urban planning as a mode of speculative fiction one inextricably linked to histories of British colonialism and liberalism through a particular understanding of place The book focuses on town planning from the late nineteenth century to the present day showing how the contemporary geography of Britain sharply unequal and marked by racial division continues ideologies of place established in colonial contexts Specifically planning allows for the speculative construction of future places that are both utopian in their ability to resolve political disagreement and at the same tantalizingly realizable able to be produced in concrete reality This speculative imaginary I argue is only possible within the ideological framework of colonialism and the history of empire within which it developed Topothesia refers to a rhetorical device employing the vivid depiction of an often imaginary place This device Vijay shows helps us understand urban planning as a narrative genre one that even in its most mundane documents is compelled to produce elaborate fantasies of future places The book examines specific planning movements over time to understand the form and the stakes of their speculative worlds In building these worlds the book shows planners continually coopted literary critiques of the present and reveries of the future retaining literature s aesthetics while eschewing its politics At the same time Vijay shows writers and artists have dwelled within and against these colonial imaginaries to seek other means of representing place

The Legacy of a Troubled Past Bernard Cros,Mathilde Rogez,Gilles Teulie,2022-06-07 Since the advent of democracy in 1994 South Africa has been engaged in an unprecedented exercise of national soul searching torn between the need to lay to rest centuries of racial conflict and the desire to come to terms with its traumatic history This book asks whether the country has begun to turn the corner on the legacy of collective hurt To do so it ranges in scope across 350 years of South African history encompassing the struggle against the apartheid regime the downfall of white supremacy the Truth and Reconciliation Commission and the first 25 years of democracy up to more recent movements such as RhodesMustFall or the inquests into the 2012 Marikana massacre that point to the persistence of traumatic memory in contemporary society The authors assembled here set out to analyse the representation of such memory how it has been woven into narratives recorded preserved and questioned and how issues of individual and collective responsibility have been grafted onto it through the visual arts literature political discourse and public action In focusing on memory along with its derived forms of memorialization collective memory nostalgia or post memory our contributors pose a fundamental question is South Africa finally coming to the end of the post apartheid transition period Do the decades of memory work on racial violence and repression examined here hold out hope for the nation to make peace with its past
