The Art of Being a Girl Judith Unger Scott,1963 Kenneth Burke's Permanence and Change Ann George,2018-11-27 A guide to and analysis of a seminal books key concepts and methodology Since its publication in 1935 Kenneth Burke s Permanence and Change a text that can serve as an introduction to all his theories has become a landmark of rhetorical theory Using new archival sources and contextualizing Burke in the past and present Ann George offers the first sustained exploration of this work and seeks to clarify the challenging book for both amateurs and scholars of rhetoric This companion to Permanence and Change explains Burke s theories through analysis of key concepts and methodology demonstrating how for Burke all language and therefore all culture is persuasive by nature Positioning Burke s book as a pioneering volume of New Rhetoric George presents it as an argument against systemic violence positivism and moral relativism Permanence and Change has become the focus of much current rhetorical study but George introduces Burke s previously unavailable outlines and notes as well as four drafts of the volume to investigate his work more deeply than ever before Through further illumination of the book s development publication and reception George reveals Burke as a public intellectual and critical educator rather than the eccentric aloof genius earlier scholars imagined him to be George argues that Burke was not ahead of his time but rather deeply engaged with societal issues of the era She redefines Burke s mission as one of civic engagement to convey the ethics and rhetorical practices necessary to build communities interested in democracy and human welfare lessons that George argues are as needed today as they were in the 1930s Touching the Art Mattilda Bernstein Sycamore,2023-11-07

Finalist for the Pacific Northwest Book Awards Finalist for the Washington State Book Awards A daringly observant memoir about intergenerational trauma fine art and compartmentalization from a returning Soft Skull author and Lambda Literary Award winner A mixture of memoir biography criticism and social history Touching the Art is queer icon and activist Mattilda Bernstein Sycamore s interrogation of the possibilities of artistic striving the limits of the middle class mindset the legacy of familial abandonment and what art can and cannot do Taking the form of a self directed research project Sycamore recounts the legacy of her fraught relationship with her late grandmother an abstract artist from Baltimore who encouraged Mattilda as a young artist then disparaged Mattilda s work as vulgar and a waste of talent once it became unapologetically queer As she sorts through her grandmother Gladys s paintings and handmade paperworks Sycamore examines the creative impulse itself In fragments evoking the movements of memory she searches for Gladys's place within the trajectories of midcentury modernism and Abstract Expressionism Jewish assimilation and white flight intergenerational trauma and class striving Sycamore writes Art is never just art it is a history of feeling a gap between sensations a safety valve an escape hatch a sudden shift in the body a clipboard full of flowers a welcome mat flipped over and back over and back welcome Refusing easy answers in search of an embodied truth Sycamore upends propriety to touch the art and feel everything that comes through

Grandma and Art got me off the Farm Ethel Christensen, 2006-03-19 Abandoned by her father and rejected by her mother 4 year old Jennie is taken without explanation from her kindergarten class and driven through the night to live with her grandparents They live on a farm where gophers pop out of the ground turkey gobblers give chase the bathroom is in a little house near the woods and which is austere and culturally limited Almost from the beginning she tries to run away back to live with her mother in Minneapolis But her grandparents although undemonstrative steadfastly support her Grandpa helps her with her homework at night sitting around the kitchen table lit by a kerosene lamp she sits on his lap while riding the binder and curls up with him on the sofa at nap time She helps her Grandmother with the chickens picking eggs and feeding the pigs But conflicts arise Especially with her aunt Hilda who is spiteful and humiliating Jennie wants to run away and find her father in Canada but all her attempts fail As far back as in kindergarten Jennie liked to draw So in first grade when she was asked to draw the picture placed on the blackboard in front of the class she worked hard to copy the exact likeness The picture was The Last Supper After that she became known as the class artist Hilda felt Jennie was wasting her time drawing and discouraged her Reading another of Jennie's interests was also considered wasteful All through high school Jennie continued to be the school artist During this time she became attached to Frank a future farmer with a kind uncomplicated view of life He loved her but knew her dream was to leave the farm and go to study art After graduating from high school Jennie is offered a job in Washington D C Her grandmother slips her thirty dollars and urges her to leave at once before Aunt Hilda can interfere Her new life in the city is a shock and a revelation Jennie discovers art galleries takes her first real art lesson using pastels and begins to acquire a new set of goals and values Two years later she returns to Minneapolis and enrolls at the University of Minnesota in art Life is a struggle as she has to work to support herself and pay for her education While working at one of the her jobs she meets Jim a young psychology student who is using the G I Bill to attend university Soon they marry unknown to either Jennie's mother or her aunt Hilda Jim is very supportive of Jennie's interest in art Between leaving the farm and starting university a series of tragedies occurred Her grandparents died first her grandfather then her grandmother Earlier a favorite uncle shot himself Another uncle died under questionable circumstances and her mother becomes committed to a mental hospital while her father remained a mystery in spite of efforts to locate him After graduating from university she paints and exhibits her work exploring new directions of expression It is not easy to find success When galleries are either hanging her work upside down or failing to pay her they disappear from sight Her first real success comes from entering a painting in an exhibition in New York Titled Subjective Objective the painting and received first prize From then on Jennie s goal to become an accomplished artist plays an important part in her life Still she couldn t forget the farm where her uncle now lives One day she decided to go back to the place she d grown up and had wanted to escape Seeing the faded wallpaper on the upstairs hall the stippled paint walls the empty bookcase Jennie becomes aware she has slowly moved from the austere and culturally limited setting of the farm to a new world one of painting art and intellectual interactions She d left the farm and could not return Back in Toronto Jennie walked into their condo past th
