Art Teaching In African Schools:

Art Teaching in African Schools AFRICAN SCHOOLS.,1951 Art Teaching in African Schools George Talabi,1979 L ouvrage tudie l ducation artistique en Afrique tropicale histoire de l art et appr ciation des esth tiques place de l art dans la formation des professeurs African Caribbean Pupils in Art Education Paul Dash,2010-01-01 This book deals with the issue of African Caribbean pupil invisibility in the art and design classroom As such it addresses African Caribbean pupil invisibility in almost any teaching and learning context The book argues that the slave trade which ruptured their continuities with an African past continues to impact on the learning of such pupils relative to others In seeking to explicate this matter the book places African Caribbean pupils in the wider context of African Caribbean and Western cultural identities Just where do they belong To address this matter it calls on the theorising of thinkers with an interest in identity construction learning and belonging particularly with reference to the Caribbean The book is organised in three sections the first presents the rationale for the enquiry the second outlines the outcome from a small research project with a focus on African Caribbean learners in the art and design classroom and the third reflects on key issues that emerged from the research in relation to the rationale The book ends by offering possibilities for developing African Caribbean teaching and learning in art and design African Caribbean Pupils in Art Education is very erudite and the centre of a world of reference and allusion Dash relates its arguments and insights to many different writers and contexts These will lead readers to many other writers and their arguments in related fields of study personalised research interviews with teachers and students adds realism and close to the bone insight to the points Dash makes These interviews are not academised and made tedious or uninteresting but real life and real classroom and curriculum issues come out clearly and undisguisedly in the subjects words Many of their points are full of meaning and lucidity and add more power to Dash s arguments Thus the book will be of real value to prospective teachers and teacher educators too as a tool of learning and a stimulus for discussion The book goes a long way beyond only being a text for Art Education students It s arguments have salience for all Educationalists and trainee teachers as well as for staffrooms in Britain and North America Canada and the U S for example It deals with vital questions both for African Caribbean students and their white and Asian classmates canvassing issues of intellectual and cultural confidence for African Caribbean students and historical and contemporary truth for others Chris Searle Director of the Ahmed Iqbal Ullah Race Relations Resource Centre at the University of Manchester Art Teaching in African Schools Margaret Trowell,1951

The Palgrave Handbook of Race and the Arts in Education Amelia M. Kraehe,Rubén Gaztambide-Fernández,B. Stephen Carpenter II,2018-07-12 The Palgrave Handbook of Race and the Arts in Education is the first edited volume to examine how race operates in and through the arts in education Until now no single source has brought together such an expansive and interdisciplinary collection in exploration of the ways in which music visual art theater dance and popular culture intertwine with racist ideologies and race making Drawing on Critical Race Theory contributing authors bring an international perspective to questions of racism and anti racist interventions in the arts in education The book s introduction provides a guiding framework for understanding the arts as white property in schools museums and informal education spaces Each section is organized thematically around historical discursive empirical and personal dimensions of the arts in education This handbook is essential reading for students educators artists and researchers across the fields of visual and performing arts education educational foundations multicultural education and curriculum and instruction

Handbook of Research and Policy in Art Education Elliot W. Eisner, Michael D. Day, 2004-04-12 This work provides an overview of the progress that has characterized the field of research and policy in art education It profiles and integrates history policy learning curriculum and instruction assessment and competing perspectives

Emerging Solutions for Musical Arts Education in Africa Pan African Society for Musical Arts Education, 2005 Emerging Solutions for Musical arts Education in South Africa offers peer reviewed articles prepared for the 2003 Conference of the Pan African Society for Musical Arts Education in Africa held in Kisumu Maseno Kenya Not only does this publication voice the solutions offered by 31 authors from the African continent and beyond but it presents in a unique and highly accessible fashion the collective voice of the conference participants True to the spirit of ubuntu an individual is only a person through other people their communities this publication is a reflection of the essence of an overarching sub Saharan philosophy the contents represents a conference where papers were not presented but where conference participants engaged to discuss solutions for the musical arts on the African continent While the individual voice has been given its rightful place the collective voice represents an emergent song composed by the scholarly community in oral fashion This publication provides insight into the problems of musical arts education in Africa and solutions for musical arts education

Beyond Multicultural Art Education Rachel Mason, Doug Boughton, 1999 Multiculturalism is a term that has been much used in educational texts in recent years Its usage is frequently taken for granted in the rhetoric of curriculum literature However it has recently become clear that there are significant variations of interpretations of multiculturalism in different world regions This book takes a new and deeper look at the notion of multiculturalism through the lens of art education In educational terms art is a unique tool for the investigation of cultural values because it transcends the barrier of language and provides visceral and tacit insights into cultural change In order to address the educational interpretations and methods of implementing multiculturalism in different regions of the world this book contains discussion and analysis of perspectives on art education theory and practice from thirteen countries The authors of each chapter are respected multicultural experts in their geographic locations who are well equipped to provide unique insights into the particular issues of multiculturalism viewed from the perspective of art in educational contexts The book as a whole provides tools for the conceptual analysis of contemporary notions linked with multiculturalism such as interculturalism internationalism and globalisation It also provides strategies for art teaching in relation to these ideas While the term multicultural education is problematic this book presents conceptual frameworks that should assist educators to examine their own teaching on issues of equity and diversity that are central to the multicultural education debate Curriculum, Culture, and Art Education Kerry Freedman, Fernando

Hernández-Hernández, 2024-09-01 Through international case studies this book explores the causes and effects of historical and contemporary cultural changes in art education A general broadening of content and methods a renewed emphasis on student interests and diverse critical perspectives can currently be seen internationally in art curricula This book explores ways that visual culture in education is helping to move art curricula off their historical foundations and open the field to new ways of teaching learning and prefiguring worlds It highlights critical histories and contemporary stories showing how cultural milieu influences and is influenced by the various practices that make up the professional field inside and outside of institutional borders This book shows students how contemporary art educators are responding revising and re creating the field African Cultures, Visual Arts, and the Museum Tobias Döring, 2002 From the contents Christine MATZKE Comrades

Africa and Beyond Patrick J. Ebewo, Mzo Sirayi, Ingrid Stevens, 2014-07-24 Africa and Beyond Arts and Sustainable Development is a massive undertaking by thoughtful theorists and practitioners in the creative cultural industry The combined effect of the volume is to disabuse the fixed prevailing conception of the role of culture in society a view that consigns the arts to the periphery of social life devoid of any meaningful contribution to the alleviation of poverty and general development Contrary to this view the volume presents a more comprehensive meaningful insightful set of perspectives and paradigms that ascribe agency to creative cultural products in all facets of human development The usefulness of the volume extends beyond the industry itself It is meant for a broader readership and is therefore highly recommended for specialists and the public at large Professor Mokubung Nkomo Deputy Vice Chancellor Tshwane University of Technology South Africa

Resources in Education , 2001 Exploring art education Lize Kriel, Bernadette Van Haute, Ernst Wagner, 2025 How does art education change when colleagues from the Global South and Global North think about it together What can we learn from a transcultural approach for developing art education Authors from Africa and Europe present their concepts and projects and explain the ways in which they respond to local challenges on the one hand and position themselves in the global discourse on the other Conscious contemporaneity characterises the examples presented in this book ranging from the Arctic to South Africa Arts-Based Research Across Textual Media in Education Jason DeHart, Peaches Hash, 2023-11-06 In company with its sister volume Arts Based Research Across Textual Media in Education explores arts based approaches to research across media including film and comics related material from a variety of geographic locations and across a range of subdisciplines within the field of education This first volume takes a textual focus capturing process poetic and dramaturgical approaches The authors aim to highlight some of the approaches that are not always centered in arts based research The contributors represent a variety of arts based practices and methods and they weave this marrying of artistic and scientific expertise and experience into the fabric of the chapters themselves Authors from international contexts speak to the importance of utilizing artistic approaches for research processes From multimodal field notes to poetic forms to the dramaturgical chapters in this book represent steps forward in educational inquiry to bringing together both the creative and credible The book includes multiple images and rich descriptions shared from the field This first volume covers amongst other topics co created narratives creative fiction in research analytic portraits dramatic representation and critical poetic inquiry It would be suitable for graduate students and scholars interested in qualitative inquiry and arts based methods in education and the social sciences

Art Education as a Radical Act Sara Torres-Vega, Wendy Woon, 2024-05-20 This comprehensive volume highlights and centers untold histories of education at the Museum of Modern Art MoMA from 1937 to 2020 using the critical voices of artists scholars designers and educators Exploring these histories as transformative and paradigm shifting in museum education it elevates MoMA educators as vocal advocates for harnessing the educational power that museums inherently possess Divided into three interlinked parts the first sheds light on the early educational endeavors of the museum while analyzing the context of art education in the United States The second part focuses on the tenures of Victor D Amico and Betty Blayton utilizing the MoMA archives as a primary resource It includes essays by Ellen Winner Luis Camnitzer Susan E Cahan Michelle Millar Fisher HECTOR Jae Shin Damon Rich Gregory Sholette Carol Duncan Moreen Maser Nana Adusei Poku Carmen M rsch Rika Burnham Donna M Jones and Jos Ortiz The third part presents the perspectives of William Burback Philip Yenawine Patterson Sims Deborah F Schwartz and Wendy Woon as former MoMA Directors of Education in their own words and considers the forces that shaped their work This timely and unique exploration ultimately aims to trace and understand the fundamental and evolving concerns of a seemingly underexamined profession constantly striving to maintain relevance in an environment marked by institutional social and political uncertainty Exploring the radical acts undertaken to keep the museum true to its original promise it delineates the paradox whereby education is both central and invisible to the identity of MoMA and museums more broadly and re centers the conception of the museum as an educational institution It is designed for scholars researchers and post graduate students interested in arts education visual literacy museum studies and communication studies

Autobiographical Lectures of Leaders in Art Education, 2001-2021 Stephanie Autumn Baer, Katherine Coy Smith, Stephanie Harvey Danker, 2024-03-29 This scholarly collection is a continuation of a lecture series highlighting the essential nature of biography in the history of art education The editors feature 16 prominent art educators organized into one of three chronological sections spanning the past two decades The contributing art educators explore influences that shaped their beliefs about art education and the arts describe their career paths explain their philosophy of art education and its development and advise predict or speculate about the future Every chapter concludes with essential questions and instructional resources to guide readers in their reflection In reading these lectures art education faculty students and any adjacent professional to the arts and art history can learn the importance of biographical and autobiographical study to research Beyond research readers can use the lectures to consider and question teaching and mentoring relationships the power of influence and what qualities may contribute to the recognition of exemplary success for art educators International Encyclopedia of Education ,2009-04-17 The field of education has experienced extraordinary technological societal and institutional change in recent years making it one of the most fascinating yet complex fields of study in social science Unequaled in its combination of authoritative scholarship and comprehensive coverage International Encyclopedia of Education Third Edition succeeds two highly successful previous editions 1985 1994 in aiming to encapsulate research in this vibrant field for the twenty first century reader Under development for five years this work encompasses over 1 000 articles across 24 individual areas of coverage and is expected to become the dominant resource in the field Education is a multidisciplinary and international field drawing on a wide range of social sciences and humanities disciplines and this new edition comprehensively matches this diversity The diverse background and multidisciplinary subject coverage of the Editorial Board ensure a balanced and objective academic framework with 1 500 contributors representing over 100 countries capturing a complete portrait of this evolving field A totally new work revamped with a wholly new editorial board structure and brand new list of meta sections and articles Developed by an international panel of editors and authors drawn from senior academia Web enhanced with supplementary multimedia audio and video files hotlinked to relevant references and sources for further study Incorporates ca 1 350 articles with timely coverage of such topics as technology and learning demography and social change globalization and adult learning to name a few Offers two content delivery options print and online the latter of which provides anytime anywhere access for multiple users and superior search functionality via ScienceDirect as well as multimedia content including audio and video files A History of the Iziko South African National Gallery Anna Tietze,2017-06-14 In South Africa with its highly contested and changing understandings of national identity its National Gallery is no less a contested space A History of the Iziko South African National Gallery considers questions of artistic and cultural identity from the late 19th century to the present day It explores how the gallery has understood its function and its public as a national gallery from 1930 and before that the chief gallery of the Cape Colony This question is investigated through a study of the gallery s administration collection and exhibition practices over the last 150 years What is understood by and expected of a national gallery varies considerably worldwide Should it regard itself as part of a broad international cultural discourse or should it be representative of a specifically national or even regional identity The gallery is a microcosm of the greater debate how the South African nation relates to the larger world and how if at all it understands the concept of a shared culture In the last 20 years Museum Studies have become a major part of the field of Cultural Studies There is a vast literature on what might be called the history museum but far less on the art museum or gallery To date there has been no large scale historical inquiry into the Iziko SANG the country's national gallery The absence of such a history marks a serious gap in the literature which this study aims to fill
