Art History Anthology Of Modern Criticism:

Art History Wylie Sypher, 1970 Art History Wylie Sypher, 1975 Modern Perspectives in Western Art History W. Eugene Kleinbauer, Medieval Academy of America, 1989-01-01 A collection of essays that reflect the breadth of twentieth century scholarship in art history Kleinbauer has sought to illustrate the variety of methods scholars have developed for conveying the unfolding of the arts in the Western world Originally published by Holt Rinehart and Winston 1971 Art History Lewis Charles Arlington, 1975 Modern Art and Modernism Francis Francina, Charles Harrison, Deirdre Paul, 1982-12-28 Modern Art and Modernism offers first hand material for the study of issues central to the development of modern art its theory and criticism The history of modern art is not simply a history of works of art it is also a history of ideas and interpretations The works of critics and theorists have not merely been influential in deciding how modern art is to be seen and understood they have also influenced the course it has taken The nature of modern art cannot be understood without some analysis of the concept of Modernism itself Modern Art and Modernism presents a selection of texts by the major contributors to debate on this subject from Baudelaire to Zola in the 19th century to Greenburg and T J Clark on our own times It offers a balanced selection of essays by contributors to the mainstream of Modernist criticism representative examples of writing on the themes of abstraction and expressionism in modern art and a number of important contributions to the discussion of aesthetics and the social role of the artist Panofsky and the Foundations of Art History Michael Ann Holly, 1984 No one has been more influential in the contemporary practice of art history than Erwin Panofsky yet many of his early seminal papers remain virtually unknown to art historians As a result Michael Ann Holly maintains art historians today do not have access to the full range of methodological considerations and possibilities that Panofsky's thought offers and they often remain unaware of the significant role art history played in the development of modern humanistic thought Placing Panofsky's theoretical work first in the context of the major historical paradigms generated by Hegel Burckhardt and Dilthey Holly shows how these paradigms themselves became the grounds for creative controversy among Panofsky's predecessors Riegl W Ifflin Warburg and Dvor k among others She also discusses how Panofsky's struggle with the terms and concepts of neo Kantianism produced in his work remarkable parallels with the philosophy of Ernst Cassirer Finally she evaluates Panofsky's better known and later iconological studies by reading them against the earlier essays and by comparing his earlier ideas with the vision that has inspired recent work in the philosophy of history semiotics and the philosophy of science

The Expressionist Turn in Art History Kimberly A. Smith, 2017-07-05 During the period in which Expressionist artists were active in central Europe art historians were producing texts which also began to be characterized evocatively as expressionist yet the notion of an expressionist art history has yet to be fully explored in historiographic studies of the discipline This anthology offers a cross section of noteworthy art history texts that have been described as expressionist along with critical commentaries by an international group of scholars Written between 1912 and 1933 the primary sources have been selected from the published scholarship of both recognized and less familiar figures in the field's Germanic tradition Wilhelm Worringer Fritz Burger Ernst Heidrich Max Dvor Heinrich Wölfflin and Carl Einstein Translated here for the first time these examples of an expressionist turn in art history along with their secondary analyses and the book's introduction offer a productive lens through which to re-examine the practice and theory of art history in the early twentieth century

Art History Versus Aesthetics James Elkins, 2012-11-12 In this unprecedented collection over twenty of the world's most prominent thinkers on the subject including Arthur Danto Stephen Melville Wendy Steiner Alexander Nehamas and Jay Bernstein ponder the disconnect between these two disciplines The volume has a radically innovative structure it begins with introductions and centres on an animated conversation among ten historians and aestheticians That conversation was then sent to twenty scholars for commentary and their responses are very diverse some are informal letters and others full essays with footnotes Some think they have the answer in hand and others raise yet more questions The volume ends with two synoptic essays one by a prominent aesthetician and the other by a literary critic This stimulating inaugural volume in the Routledge The Art Seminar series presents not one but many answers to the question Does philosophy have anything to say to art history

Arabs in the Mirror Nissim Rejwan, 2009-02-17 What is an Arab Though many in the West would answer that question with simplistic stereotypes the reality is far more complex and interesting Arabs themselves have been debating Arab identity since pre-Islamic times coming to a variety of conclusions about the nature and extent of their Arabness Likewise Westerners and others have attempted to analyze Arab identity reaching mostly negative conclusions about Arab culture and capacity for self-government To bring new perspectives to the question of Arab identity Iraqi-born scholar Nissim Rejwan has assembled this fascinating collection of writings by Arab and Western intellectuals who try to define what it means to be Arab He begins with pre-Islamic times and continues to the last decades of the twentieth century quoting thinkers ranging from Ibn Khaldun to modern writers such as al-Ansari Haykal Ahmad Amin al-Azm and Said Through their works Rejwan shows how Arabs have grappled with such significant issues as the influence of Islam the rise of nationalism the quest for democracy women's status the younger generation Egypt's place in the Arab world Israel's role in Middle Eastern conflict and the West's cultural invasion By letting Arabs speak for themselves Arabs in the Mirror refutes a prominent Western stereotype that Arabs are incapable of self-reflection or self-government On the contrary it reveals a rich tradition of self-criticism and self-knowledge in the Arab world

Walt Whitman, Where the Future Becomes Present David Haven Blake, Michael Robertson, 2008-04 Walt Whitman Where the Future Becomes Present invigorates Whitman studies by garnering insights from a diverse group of writers and intellectuals Writing from the perspectives of art history political theory creative writing and literary criticism the contributors place Whitman in the center of both world literature and American public life The volume is especially notable for being the best example yet published of what the editors call the New Textuality in Whitman studies an emergent mode of criticism that focuses on the different editions of Whitman's poems

as independent works of art Lamalif: A Critical Anthology of Societal Debates in Morocco during the "Years of Lead" (1966-1988) Brahim El Guabli, Ali Alalou, 2022-11-17 The LAMALIF anthology presents a wide variety of articles from LAMALIF Morocco's longest serving Francophone journal Active between 1966 and 1988 LAMALIF covered the most critical periods of Moroccan history and engaged in crucial debates about democratization feminism culture education Third World relations and decolonization However LAMALIF was not just a journal it was a real school where Morocco's North Africa's and the developing world's emerging and established writers artists and thinkers found a space to disseminate their ideas and address readerships across different cultures and geographical areas in French This anthology is the first comprehensive translation into English of a wide selection of LAMALIF's articles covering literary and art criticism as well as critical theory feminism Islam and emigration In addition to making available to Anglophone readerships articles about transnational solidarities and connections between North Africa and the rest of the world LAMALIF anthology historicizes this sociocultural and political project within the painful period of authoritarianism in Morocco and reveals how culture worked as a trenchant weapon in the struggle against repression and silence Psychoanalysis and the Image Griselda Pollock, 2008-04-15 Psychoanalysis and the Image brings together an influential team of international scholars who demonstrate innovative ways to apply psychoanalytical resources in the study of international modern art and visual representation Examines psychoanalytic concepts values debates and controversies that have been hallmarks of visual representation in the modern and contemporary periods Covers topics including melancholia sex and pathology to the body and parent child relations Advances theoretical debates in art history while offering substantive analyses of significant bodies of twentieth century art Edited by internationally renowned art historian Griselda Pollock What it Means to Write About Art Jarrett Earnest, 2018-11-27 The most comprehensive portrait of art criticism ever assembled as told by the leading writers of our time In the last fifty years art criticism has flourished as never before Moving from niche to mainstream it is now widely taught at universities practiced in newspapers magazines and online and has become the subject of debate by readers writers and artists worldwide Equal parts oral history and analysis of craft What It Means to Write About Art offers an unprecedented overview of American art writing These thirty in depth conversations chart the role of the critic as it has evolved from the 1960s to today providing an invaluable resource for aspiring artists and writers alike John Ashbery recalls finding Rimbaud's poetry through his first gay crush at sixteen Rosalind Krauss remembers stealing the design of October from Massimo Vignelli Paul Chaat Smith details his early days with Jimmy Durham in the American Indian Movement Dave Hickey talks about writing country songs with Waylon Jennings Michele Wallace relives her late night and early morning interviews with James Baldwin Lucy Lippard describes confronting Clement Greenberg at a lecture Eileen Myles asserts her belief that her negative review incited the Women's Action Coalition and Fred Moten recounts falling in love with Renoir while at Harvard Jarrett Earnest's wide ranging conversations with critics historians journalists novelists poets and theorists

Critical Terms for Art History, Second Edition Robert S. Nelson, Richard Shiff, 2010-03-15 Art has always been contested terrain whether the object in question is a medieval tapestry or Duchamp's Fountain But questions about the categories of art and art history acquired increased urgency during the 1970s when new developments in critical theory and other intellectual projects dramatically transformed the discipline The first edition of Critical Terms for Art History both mapped and contributed to those transformations offering a spirited reassessment of the field's methods and terminology Art history as a field has kept pace with debates over globalization and other social and political issues in recent years making a second edition of this book not just timely but crucial Like its predecessor this new edition consists of essays that cover a wide variety of loaded terms in the history of art from sign to meaning ritual to commodity Each essay explains and comments on a single term discussing the issues the term raises and putting the term into practice as an interpretive framework for a specific work of art For example Richard Shiff discusses Originality in Vija Celmins's To Fix the Image in Memory a work made of eleven pairs of stones each consisting of one original stone and one painted bronze replica In addition to the twenty-two original essays this edition includes nine new ones performance style memory monument body beauty ugliness identity visual culture visual studies and social history of art as well as new introductory material All help expand the book's scope while retaining its central goal of stimulating discussion of theoretical issues in art history and making that discussion accessible to both beginning students and senior scholars Contributors Mark Antliff Nina Athanassoglou Kallmyer Stephen Bann Homi K Bhabha Suzanne Preston Blier Michael Camille David Carrier Craig Clunas Whitney Davis Jas Elsner Ivan Gaskell Ann Gibson Charles Harrison James D Herbert Amelia Jones Wolfgang Kemp Joseph Leo Koerner Patricia Leighton Paul Mattick Jr Richard Meyer W J T Mitchell Robert S Nelson Margaret Olin William Pietz Alex Potts Donald Preziosi Lisbet Rausing Richard Shiff Terry Smith Kristine Stiles David Summers Paul Wood James E Young

A Data-Driven Analysis of Cemeteries and Social Reform in Paris, 1804-1924 Kaylee P. Alexander, 2023-08-28 This book takes a novel data-driven approach to the cemeteries of Paris analyzing a largely text-based body of archival material as proxy evidence for visual material that has been lost due to systematic and legally sanctioned acts of erasure This study represents the first full-length study of vernacular monuments in France and the entrepreneurs who made them It also provides methodical considerations at the intersection of the computational and digital humanities for managing survival biases in extant historical evidence that are applicable beyond the thematic focus of this book Since extant examples of these more inconspicuous monuments are rare

this project employs both distant and close viewing analyzing commercial almanacs work logs and burial records in aggregates alongside detailed case studies to compensate for gaps in the material record The book will be of interest to scholars working in visual culture popular culture digital humanities and French history Humanities, Culture, and Interdisciplinarity Julie Thompson Klein, 2012-02-01 The study of culture in the American academy is not confined to a single field but is a broad based set of interests located within and across disciplines This book investigates the relationship among three major ideas in the American academy interdisciplinarity humanities and culture and traces the convergence of these ideas from the colonial college to new scholarly developments in the latter half of the twentieth century Its aim is twofold to define the changing relationship of these three ideas and in the course of doing so to extend present thinking about the concept of American cultural studies The book includes two sets of case studies the first on the implications of interdisciplinarity for literary studies art history and music the second on the shifting trajectories of American studies African American studies and women s studies and concludes by asking what impact new scholarly practices have had on humanities education particularly on the undergraduate curriculum Art History, Narratology, and Twentieth-Century Chinese Art Lian Duan, 2023-07-28 This study constructs a framework of narratology for art history and rewrites the development of twentieth century Chinese art from a narratological perspective Theoretically and methodologically oriented this is a self reflective meta art history studying the art historical narratives while narrating the story of modern and contemporary Chinese art Thus this book explores the three layers of narrative within the narratological framework the first hand fabula the secondary narration and the tertiary narrativization With this tertiary narrativization the reader author presents three types of narrative the grand narrative of the central thesis of this book the middle range narrative of the chapter theses and case analyses supporting these theses The focus of this tertiary narrativization is the interaction between Western influence on Chinese art and the Chinese response to this influence The central thesis is that this interaction conditioned and shaped the development of Chinese art at every historical turning point in the twentieth century The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history critical theory Chinese studies and cultural studies Studies in the Islamic Arts of the Book Robert Hillenbrand, 2012-12-31 The studies collected in this volume some of them rather difficult of access date mostly from the last fifteen years and focus primarily on Persian book painting of the 14th to the early 16th centuries In this period Iran dominated the art of book painting in the Islamic world The articles reprinted here examine various aspects of this the golden age of Persian painting They range from the period of Mongol rule when the impact of Far Eastern themes and modes radically transformed the heritage bequeathed to Iran by Arab painting a textbook case of the clash of civilisations to the dawn of the modern era and the swansong of the classical style of Persian painting under the early Safavids Yet other articles focus on the roots of book painting in the themes and styles developed in painted ceramics on medieval Qur'anic calligraphy on bookbinding and on the remarkably original variations played on the hitherto hackneyed theme of the figural frontispiece

by Arab painters Two major leitmotifs are explored in this selection of essays One is provided by the constantly varying interpretations of the Shahnama The Book of Kings the Persian national epic and especially the tendency of painters to interpret this familiar text in terms of contemporary politics The other is the interplay of text and image which highlights the tendency of painters to strike out on their own and to leave the literal text progressively further behind while they develop plots and sub plots of their own These enquiries are set within the context of a concerted effort to explore in detail how Persian painters achieved their most spectacular visual effects In its combination of general surveys and closely focused analyses of individual manuscripts this collection of articles will be of interest to specialists in book painting and in Islamic art as a whole

Ekphrasis, Vision, and Persuasion in the Book of Revelation Robyn J. Whitaker, 2015-11-13 Robyn J Whitaker interprets the Book of Revelation within the context of ancient rhetoric and religion She argues that the author of Revelation uses a popular rhetorical tool ekphrasis to paint word pictures of God that compete with material images to both critique image making and simultaneously make an absent God present

Attack of the Difficult Poems Charles Bernstein, 2011-04-15 Charles Bernstein is our postmodern jester of American poesy equal part surveyor of democratic vistas and scholar of avant garde sensibilities In a career spanning thirty five years and forty books he has challenged and provoked us with writing that is decidedly unafraid of the tensions between ordinary and poetic language and between everyday life and its adversaries Attack of the Difficult Poems his latest collection of essays gathers some of his most memorably irreverent work while addressing seriously and comprehensively the state of contemporary humanities the teaching of unconventional forms fresh approaches to translation the history of language media and the connections between poetry and visual art Applying an array of essayistic styles Attack of the Difficult Poems ardently engages with the promise of its title Bernstein introduces his key theme of the difficulty of poems and defends often in comedic ways not just difficult poetry but poetry itself Bernstein never loses his ingenious ability to argue or his consummate attention to detail Along the way he offers a wide ranging critique of literature's place in the academy taking on the vexed role of innovation and approaching it from the perspective of both teacher and practitioner From blues artists to Tin Pan Alley song lyricists to Second Wave modernist poets The Attack of the Difficult Poems sounds both a battle cry and a lament for the task of the language maker and the fate of invention
