that recognizes the vital role that the arts play in our society Marquis argues that the current system of arts funding is broken It is too bureaucratic too centralized and too focused on the past She proposes a new model of arts funding that is more flexible more decentralized and more focused on the future This new model would allow artists and arts organizations to take more risks to experiment with new ideas and to create new work that reflects the values and aspirations of the American people Marquis also argues that the arts are essential for a healthy democracy They help us to understand ourselves and our world they bring people together and they promote social cohesion In short the arts make us human Creative Arts is a passionate and thought provoking book that will change the way you think about the arts and their role in society It is a must read for anyone who cares about the future of American culture If you like this book write a review
