Art Of Non Fiction:

The Art of Nonfiction Ayn Rand, 2001-02-01 A remarkable series of lectures on the art of creating effective nonfiction by one of the 20th century's most profound writers and thinkers now available for the first time in print. Culled from sixteen informal lectures Ayn Rand delivered to a select audience in the late 1960s, this remarkable work offers indispensable guidance to the aspiring writer of nonfiction while providing readers with a fascinating discourse on art and creation. Based on the concept that the ability to create quality nonfiction is a skill that can be learned like any other, The Art of Nonfiction takes readers through the writing process step by step, providing insightful observations and invaluable techniques along the way. In these edited transcripts, Rand discusses the psychological aspects of writing and the different roles played by the conscious and unconscious minds. Women on Philosophy of Art Alison Stone, 2024-08-14 Women on Philosophy of Art is the first study of women s philosophies of art in long nineteenth century Britain It looks at seven women spanning the time from the Enlightenment to the beginning of modernism They are Anna Barbauld Joanna Baillie Harriet Martineau Anna Jameson Frances Power Cobbe Emilia Dilke and Vernon Lee The central issue that concerned them was how art related to morality and religion Baillie and Martineau treated art as an agency of moral instruction whereas Dilke and Lee argued that art must be made for beauty s sake Barbauld Jameson and Cobbe thought that beauty and religion were linked while other women believed that art and religion must be decoupled Other topics explored are gender and genius tragedy literary realism why we enjoy the sufferings of fictional characters the hierarchy of the art forms whether art can transcend its historical circumstances and critical issues around the artistic canon Examining the print culture that made these women s interventions possible this book shows that these women were doing a particular kind of philosophy of art which was interdisciplinary and closely tied to artistic criticism and practice The book traces how these seven women influenced one another as well as engaging with their male contemporaries But unlike their male interlocutors these women have been unjustly left out of narratives about the history of aesthetics By including these women we can enrich and broaden our understanding of the history of philosophy of art

D. H. Lawrence's Non-Fiction David Ellis,Howard Mills,1988-06-09 This is the first book devoted entirely to Lawrence s nonfictional writings It focuses on a selection of representative texts each of which is placed in an appropriate literary or historical context These include the Study of Thomas Hardy the two books about the Unconscious the travel writing primarily Twilight in Italy and Sea and Sardinia the largely autobiographical Introduction to Memoirs of the Foreign Legion by M M and the late thoughts in verse called Pansies David Ellis and Howard Mills challenge the automatic relegation to secondary status suffered by these works in the past and suggest a radical reassessment of Lawrence s literary profile of how his writings relate to one another and of where his greatest power and originality lie
