The Mediation of Ornament Oleg Grabar,2023-10-17 How ornamentation enables a direct and immediate encounter between viewers and art objects Based on universal motifs ornamentation occurs in many artistic traditions though it reaches its most expressive tangible and unique form in the art of the Islamic world The Mediation of Ornament shares a veteran art historian s love for the sheer sensuality of Islamic ornamentation but also uses this art to show how ornament serves as a consistent intermediary between viewers and artistic works from all cultures and periods Oleg Grabar analyzes early and medieval Islamic objects ranging from frontispieces in Yemen to tilework in the Alhambra and compares them to Western examples treating all pieces as testimony of the work life thought and emotion experienced in one society The Mediation of Ornament is essential reading for admirers of Islamic art and anyone interested in the ways of perceiving and understanding the arts more broadly Ecstasies Carlo Ginzburg,2021-03-01 Weaving early accounts of witchcraft trial records ecclesiastical tracts folklore and popular iconography into new and startling patterns Carlo Ginzburg presents in Ecstasies compelling evidence of a hidden shamanistic culture that flourished across Europe and in England for thousands of years

Where Rivers and Mountains Sing Theodore Levin,Valentina Süzükei,2010-11-15 Theodore Levin takes readers on a journey through the rich sonic world of inner Asia where the elemental energies of wind water and echo the ubiquitous presence of birds and animals and the legendary feats of heroes have inspired a remarkable art and technology of sound making among nomadic pastoralists As performers from Tuva and other parts of inner Asia have responded to the growing worldwide popularity of their music Levin follows them to the West detailing their efforts to nourish global connections while preserving the power and poignancy of their music traditions

The Golden Deer of Eurasia Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2000 Spectacular works of art were excavated between 1986 and 1990 from burial mounds at Filippovka in Russia on the border of Europe and Asia The objects were created from about the fifth to the fourth century B C by pastoral people who lived on the steppes near the southern Ural Mountains The large funerary deposits include wooden deerlike creatures with predatory mouths and elongated snouts and ears overlaid with sheets of gold and silver as well as gold attachments for wooden vessels and gold and silver luxury wares imported from Achaemenid Iran These treasures are now in the collection of the Archaeological Museum Ufa in the Russian republic of Bashkortostan The discoveries at Filippovka open a new chapter in the history of the material culture of the nomads who in the first millennium B C traversed the steppe corridor extending from the Black Sea region to China Yet the information provided by the Filippovka excavations is complicated and ambiguous The identity of the people represented by the finds remains uncertain but the forms and ornamentation of many works from Filippovka as well as the cemetery's location in the southern Urals argue for the cultural chronological designation of this material as Early Sarmatian Stylistic features however point also to the arts of Siberia Central Asia and China in the east and to the art of the Meotian Scythians in the west Imported Achaemenid goods raise questions about their place of production and about the circumstances that brought them to be included in tombs on the southern Ural steppes Finally robbers penetrated the burials in antiquity destroying much of the evidence necessary for understanding the Filippovka nomads religious and funerary practices These are among the issues addressed in this volume the catalogue for an exhibition at The Metropolitan Museum of Art that brings together the remarkable new material from Filippovka and from the incomparably rich collections of the State Hermitage Saint Petersburg related luxury objects found in graves of other Eurasian steppe tribes Gold and silver objects from the Scythian Black Sea tombs textiles and leather and wooden works from the Altai Mountains and gold and bronze pieces from the Caucasus Central Asia and Siberia illustrate developments in the art of the steppes in the centuries preceding the Filippovka burials in contemporary societies and in later centuries toward the turn of the first millennium B C These outstanding works not only place the Filippovka discoveries in their proper historical and cultural context but are themselves fascinating and enigmatic

Frozen Tombs of Siberia Сергей Иванович Руденко, 1970 Sergei Ivanovich Rudenko was a prominent Russian Soviet anthropologist and archaeologist who discovered and excavated the most celebrated of Scythian burials Pazyryk in Siberia During the excavation of Pazyryk tombs he discovered the world's most spectacular tattooed mummy said to belong to the Pazyryk Culture which flourished between the 7th and 3rd centuries BC Herodotus and other ancient writers referred to the Altay as the golden mountain It was there that the impregnable citadel of the Scythians or Sacae lay hidden for centuries Rudenko however was cautious enough not to assign his findings to the Scythians He attributed the kurgan finds to the formidable Iron Age horsemen and warriors whom he dubbed the Pazyryks Although they left no written records Pazyryk artifacts are distinguished by a sophisticated level of artistry and craftsmanship The Pazyryk tombs discovered by Rudenko were in an almost perfect state of preservation They contained skeletons and intact bodies of horses and embalmed humans together with a wealth of artifacts including saddles riding gear a chariot rugs clothing jewelry musical instruments amulets tools and an apparatus for inhaling hemp smoke Also found in the tombs were fabrics from Persia and China which the Pazyryks must have obtained on journeys covering thousands of miles
