Art Otherness Crisis In Cultural Identity:

Art & Otherness Thomas McEvilley, 1992 Directly following the internationally acclaimed Art Discontent Thomas McEvilley argues in Art Otherness for an advanced anthropological perspective that contravenes conventional thinking in the visual arts and leads to a concept of artistic globalization The description of Western culture as superior and in opposition to other cultures of the world preoccupied our aesthetic philosophy for at least 200 years whether or not explicitly stated That argument was undertaken in various guises especially as the historical determinism of Hegel which proposed to quantify human progress Recently however the term multiculturalism has come to signify a post Modern understanding of how visual arts transgress artificial boundaries and of how there may now exist perhaps for the first time in history a post colonial globalism in the arts freed of ethnocentric value judgements In these ten crucial essays McEvilley clarifies how the presentation of art can determine its reception how influence can be bi directional how otherness serves to define self and how art need not necessarily lose its meaningfulness when stripped of badges of universality Once again illustrating his argument by drawing upon an array of sources and cultures Thomas McEvilley demonstrates that the post Modern crisis in cultural identity demands an imaginative integrating response BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Thinking about Art Susan Hiller, 1996 Collected talks lectures and conversations spanning 1975-1995 Cross-Cultural Issues in Art Steven Leuthold, 2010-12-16 This book provides an engaging introduction to aesthetic concepts expanding the discussion beyond the usual Western theorists and Western examples

Mirror of Consciousness Anna J. Bonshek, 2001 Mirror of Consciousness ambitiously traverses a wide range of themes pertaining to art creativity knowledge and theory Its unique perspective lies in its exposition of Vedic Science as brought to light by His Holiness Maharishi Mahesh Yogi and in the application of the principles of this science to preliminary analysis of the Vastusutra Upanishad No other publication has examined art and theory with the same comprehensive vision To do justice to the topic of universal value in art and theory the author has delved into several areas that impact the visual arts late twentieth century debates in art theory models of historiography new definitions of culture and tradition in the context of the individual's own consciousness or simplest form of awareness Though comprehensive and detailed it will appeal to those who are curious about trends in the visual arts the advent and impact of new technologies and the development of collective consciousness in our time Exhibiting Maori Conal McCarthy, 2024-11-01 This richly illustrated book presents a comprehensive assessment of the display of Maori culture from the nineteenth century to today In doing so Exhibiting Maori traces the long journey from curio to specimen artefact art and taonga treasure Drawing on extensive and groundbreaking research Exhibiting Maori reveals for the first time the remarkable story of Maori resistance to involvement in and eventual capture of the display of their culture Ranging across museums world fairs fine art and tourism Exhibiting Maori fuses museum studies anthropology and visual and material culture to uncover a history of active Maori engagement with the colonial culture of display An Ontology of Multiple Artworks David Davies, 2024 David Davies examines the ontology of multiple artworks such as books and musical performances He argues against a theory of multiple works as types that are independent of creative and appreciative acts instead defending a view on which they are performances essentially embedded in artistic practices Capacity Thomas McEvelley, 2016-04-08 G Roger Denson brings singular insight to Thomas McEvelley's writings As an art writer he has explored similar territory but from the point of view of a nomadic ideologist His approach matches that of his subject He addresses the issues of pragmatism historicism and cultural relativism In so doing he effectively dismantles the need to establish a master narrative The contrast and agreement between these two writers constitutes a mapping of the terrain of contemporary culture What sets Thomas McEvelley apart from other critics in art and culture is his direct knowledge of the newest art and theory and his comprehensive understanding of classic art and ancient civilizations It is rare to find a writer equally fluent in the production of modernist aesthetics the anti aesthetics of post modernism T ang Dynasty Taoist painting the doctrines of the Tantra Platonic mysticism and Aristotelian logic This vast knowledge has enabled him to produce some of the best conceived and eccentric The Country of Memory Hue-Tam Ho Tai, 2001-10 Hue Tam Ho Tai's masterful collection of essays that explore how the past is being remade in contemporary Vietnam constitutes a welcome addition to the study of the larger problem of engineering memory especially in political cultures where the identity of the nation state is in a considerable state of flux This book also suggests that the commemorative fever that is sweeping Vietnam is about more than Vietnam's history It also has a great deal to do with the problems premodern cultures presented to those who promoted the creation of contemporary states In this regard both Vietnam and this book offer all scholars of nationalism and remembering in the West a fascinating perspective on their own nations John Bodnar Chancellors Professor of History at Indiana University from the Foreword The Ancestress Hypothesis Kathryn Coe, 2003 In our society it has long been believed that art serves very little social purpose Evolutionary anthropologists however are examining a potential role for art in human evolution Kathryn Coe looks to the visual arts of traditional societies for clues Because they are passed down from previous generations traditional art forms such as body decoration funeral ornaments and ancestral paintings offer ways to promote social relationships among kin and codescendants of a common ancestor Mothers used art forms to anchor themselves and their kin to the father and his kin and to promote the survival and reproductive success of kin and descendants Individuals who abided by this strategy accompanied by its strict codes of cooperation left more descendants than did individuals who did not Over time given this reproductive success large numbers of individuals would be identified as codescendants of a common ancestor and would cooperate as if they were close kin These cooperative codescendants were more likely to survive and leave descendants With each new generation these clans propagated not only their genes but also their behavioral strategy the replication or presence of art The book concludes by examining the changing characteristics of visual art including a higher value on
