The Mapuche in Modern Chile Joanna Crow, 2013-01-20 The Mapuche are the most numerous most vocal and most politically involved indigenous people in modern Chile Their ongoing struggles against oppression have led to increasing national and international visibility but few books provide deep historical perspective on their engagement with contemporary political developments Building on widespread scholarly debates about identity history and memory Joanna Crow traces the complex dynamic relationship between the Mapuche and the Chilean state from the military occupation of Mapuche territory during the second half of the nineteenth century through to the present day She maps out key shifts in this relationship as well as the intriguing continuities Presenting the Mapuche as more than mere victims this book seeks to better understand the lived experiences of Mapuche people in all their diversity Drawing upon a wide range of primary documents including published literary and academic texts Mapuche testimonies art and music newspapers and parliamentary debates Crow gives voice to political activists from both the left and the right She also highlights the growing urban Mapuche population Crow's focus on cultural and intellectual production allows her to lead the reader far beyond the standard narrative of repression and resistance revealing just how contested Mapuche and Chilean histories are This ambitious and revisionist work provides fresh information and perspectives that will change how we view indigenous state relations in Chile

Arte mapuche María del Carmen Espósito, 2004 Dismantling the Nation Florencia San Martín, Carla Macchiavello Cornejo, Paula Solimano, 2024-01-31 The first academic volume to theorize and historicize contemporary artistic practices and culture from Chile in the English language Dismantling the Nation takes as its point of departure a radical criticism against the nation state of Chile and its colonial capitalist heteronormative and extractivist rule proposing otherwise forms of inhabiting creating and relating in more fluid contingent ecocritical feminist and caring worlds From the case of Chile the book expands the scholarly discussion around decolonial methodologies attending to artistic practices and discourses from distinct and distant locations from Arica and the Atacama Desert to Wallmapu and Tierra del Fuego and from the Central Valley the Pacific coast and the Andes to territories beyond the nation's modern geographical borders Analyzing how these practices refer to issues such as the environmental and cultural impact of extractivism as well as memory trauma collectivity and resistance towards neoliberal totality the volume contributes to the fields of art history and visual culture memory ethnic gender and Indigenous studies filmmaking critical geography and literature in Chile Latin America and other regions of the world envisioning art history and visual culture from a transnational and transdisciplinary perspective

Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress, Library of Congress. Subject Cataloging Division, Library of Congress. Office for Subject Cataloging Policy, 2013 Encounters in Video Art in Latin America Elena Shtromberg, Glenn Phillips, 2023-02-14 With insightful essays and interviews this volume examines how artists have experimented with the medium of video across different regions of Latin America since the 1960s The emergence of video art in Latin America is marked by multiple points of development across more than a dozen artistic centers over a period of more than twenty five years When first introduced during the 1960s video was seen as empowering the portability of early equipment and the possibility of instant playback allowed artists to challenge and at times subvert the mainstream media Video art in Latin America was and still is closely related to the desire for social change Themes related to gender ethnic and racial identity as well as the consequences of social inequality and ecological disasters have been fundamental to many artists practices This compendium explores the history and current state of artistic experimentation with video throughout Latin America Departing from the relatively small body of existing scholarship in English much of which focuses on individual countries this volume approaches the topic thematically positioning video artworks from different periods and regions throughout Latin America in dialogue with each other Organized in four broad sections Encounters Networks and Archives Memory and Crisis and Indigenous Perspectives the book s essays and interviews encourage readers to examine the medium of video across varied chronologies and geographies
