Developing Nonprofit and Human Service Leaders Larry D. Watson, Richard A. Hoefer, 2013-10-21 Developing Nonprofit and Human Service Leaders comprehensively prepares students with the skills to successfully manage human service organizations. Authors Larry D. Watson and Richard Hoefer explore core managerial competencies tailored to the unique environment of these organizations, including administrative responsibilities, values, and ethics; organizational theories; leadership; boards of directors; fundraising; supervision; research; cultural consideration; and more. This essential text offers hands-on practice for the skills that future administrators will need to make a substantial impact in their organizations and communities.

Arts and Cultural Management Ellen Rosewall, Rachel Shane, 2018 Arts and Cultural Management: Critical and Primary Sources offers a comprehensive collection of key writings on this relatively new and rapidly growing field. The collected essays draw upon both scholarly and professional literature worldwide and range across the arts in the commercial, not-for-profit, and public sectors. Each volume is arranged thematically and separately introduced by the editors. The set includes over 80 essays covering the following major tracks: organization structure and governance; production and distribution of the arts; participation and engagement; resource development and marketing; and policy advocacy and field development. Together, the four volumes of Arts and Cultural Management present a major scholarly resource for the field.

Managing Destination Marketing Organizations Robert Clayton Ford, William C. Peeper, 2008 Nonprofits and Evaluation Joanne G. Carman, Kimberly A. Fredericks, 2008-10-13 This issue of New Directions for Evaluation explores evaluation within the context of nonprofit organizations. In recent years, many have observed that nonprofit organizations are under increasing pressure to demonstrate their effectiveness and document their program outcomes as the current political and funding environment continues to stress the importance of accountability and measuring performance. Foundations, government agencies, and other funders are asking nonprofit organizations for more evaluation and performance measurement data. Yet most nonprofit organizations continue to struggle with these demands, and many lack the capacity to implement evaluation and performance measurement in comprehensive or meaningful ways.
