French 19th Century Painting and Literature: with Special Reference to the Relevance of Literary Subject-matter to French Painting Ulrich Finke,1972 Honoré Daumier Bruce Laughton,1996-01-01 The life and work of one of the most productive and renowned French artists of the nineteenth century is examined in this beautiful book Known primarily in his own time for the penetrating social and political commentary of his cartoons Daumier is now equally admired for his drawings watercolours and oil paintings Bruce Laughton draws on new material to present the most comprehensive treatment of this multi faceted artist in two decades Laughton traces Daumier s professional life his early career as a lithographer cartoonist when his fame as a social satirist spread through all classes of French citizens his attempts to change direction as an artist peintre with the advent of the Second French Republic his painstaking production of watercolours for connoisseurs and his simultaneous parody of these people and then the independent development of his oil painting techniques alongside his continued production of lithographs and designs for wood engravings Laughton also discusses Daumier s private life investigating for example his view of the lawcourts the significance of his Saltimbanques or wandering entertainers and the personal symbolism of his images of Don Quixote In conclusion Laughton describes Daumier s late career which included both personal disasters and artistic achievements and ended in the most unsung retirement of any artist of comparable stature in the nineteenth century An appendix to the book provides transcriptions and commentary on five of Daumier s account books which give clues about how he lived and how his works were regarded Catalogue of the ... library of ... Felix Slade ... which will be sold by auction Felix Slade,1868 A List of Works Illustrating Sculpture in the National Art Library of the South Kensington Museum National Art Library (Great Britain),1886 List[s] of Books and Pamphlets in the National Art Library ... National Art Library (Great Britain),1883 Masterpieces of European Painting, 1800-1920, in the Metropolitan Museum of Art Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),Kathryn Calley Galitz,2007 Restoration Thomas Crow,2023-10-17 How social upheavals after the collapse of the French Empire shaped the lives and work of artists in early nineteenth century Europe As the French Empire collapsed between 1812 and 1815 artists throughout Europe were left uncertain and adrift The final abdication of Emperor Napoleon clearing the way for a restored monarchy profoundly unsettled prevailing national religious and social boundaries In Restoration Thomas Crow combines a sweeping view of European art centers Rome Paris London Madrid Brussels and Vienna with a close up look at pivotal artists including Antonio Canova Jacques Louis David Th odore G ricault Francisco Goya Jean Auguste Dominique Ingres Thomas Lawrence and forgotten but meteoric painters Fran ois Joseph Navez and Antoine Jean Baptiste Thomas Whether directly or indirectly all were joined in a newly international network from which changing artistic priorities and possibilities emerged out of the ruins of the old Crow examines how artists of this period faced dramatic circumstances from political condemnation and difficult diplomatic missions to a catastrophic episode of climate change Navigating ever changing pressures they invented creative ways of incorporating critical events and significant historical actors into fresh artistic works Crow discusses among many topics David's art and influence during exile Gericault's odyssey through outcast Rome Ingres's drive to reconcile religious art with contemporary mentalities the titled victors over Napoleon all sitting for portraits by Lawrence and the campaign to restore art objects expropriated by the French from Italy prefiguring the restitution controversies of our own time Restoration explores how cataclysmic social and political transformations in nineteenth century Europe reshaped artists' lives and careers with far reaching consequences Published in association with the Center for Advanced Study in the Visual Arts National Gallery of Art Washington DC Please note All images in this ebook are presented in black and white and have been reduced in size

Dividing Paris Esther da Costa Meyer, 2022-02-15 Dividing Paris Urban Renewal and Social Inequality 1852-1870 offers a new look at the ambitious urban changes that transformed the city of Paris during the Second Empire when Paris became a template for urban renewal in many large cities in Europe North and South America Esther da Costa Meyer looks at the social and historical context of these urban changes what Napoleon III his prefect Georges Eugene Haussman and their team of engineers planned as well as how the diverse and deeply stratified public responded to them Along with broad streets and boulevards intended to enable crowds and merchandise to circulate and also impede the chances of popular insurgency Haussman's project of urban renewal called for ample water supply sewerage and public parks and gardens These changes radically altered the old tightly knit weave of the medieval city serving the needs of the industrial bourgeoisie while forcing the urban poor to the outskirts Dividing Paris is the first architectural history of the city that takes into account the larger part of the urban territory annexed in 1860 a ring of settlements and villages which became increasingly class specific Instead of relating the story of Haussmanization as a top down administrative effort as Haussman's critics and admirers have both tended to do it draws on primary sources especially newspapers and memoirs to investigate the degree to which Parisians' experiences of modernity were class and gender specific and to ask what strategies working class men and women in particular used to cope with and in some cases resist the changing world around them At the same time da Costa Meyer resists the familiar narrative of Paris as capital of the 19th century that has endured at least since Walter Benjamin's famous essay as euro centric and misleading insofar as it fails to situate Paris's urban developments in a broader global context or to acknowledge the extent to which Haussmanization was itself implicated in the broader imperial project on which France was embarked at the time

Berman,2002 The brash young artist James Ensor painted Christ's Entry into Brussels in 1889 during a period of extraordinary artistic and political fomentation in his native Belgium It is one of the most dazzling innovative and perplexing paintings created in Europe in the late nineteenth century rivaling any work of its period in audacity and ambition Huge in scale complex in design and execution and brimming with social commentary the startling canvas presents a scene filled with clowns masked figures and barely visible amid the swirling crowds the tiny figure of Christ on a donkey entering the city of Brussels This insightful volume examines the painting in light of Belgium's rich artistic social political and theological debates in the late nineteenth century and in the context of James Ensor's exceptional career in order to decipher some of the painting's messages and meanings
