Postmodern Time and Space in Fiction and Theory Michael Kane, 2020-01-14 Postmodern Time and Space in Fiction and Theory seeks to place the contemporary transformation of notions of space and time often attributed to the technologies we use in the context of the ongoing transformations of modernity. Bringing together examples of modern and contemporary fiction from Defoe to DeLillo, Frankenstein to Finnegans Wake and theoretical discussions of the modern and the post-modern, the author explores the legacy of modern transformations of space and time under five headings: The Space of Nature, The Space of the City, Postmodern or Most Modern Time, The Time and Space of the Work of Art in the Age of Digital Reproduction and Travel from Modernity to These five essays re-examine the meanings of modernity and its aftermath in relation to the spaces and times of the natural, the urban and the media environment

Negative Aesthetics and Political Collapse in Eastern European and Balkan Cinema Zoran Samardzija, 2025-07-18 Negative Aesthetics and Political Collapse in Eastern European and Balkan Cinema examines the theme of political collapse in select contemporary Eastern European and Balkan art cinema and documentaries from the late eighties to the present. Engaging with debates in Marxism and contemporary film theory about political aesthetics, the book centers around the question of whether we can imagine possible futures through negative aesthetics which are skeptical of cinema's ability to reproduce reality in a comprehensive and unmediated manner. In particular, it analyzes examples of ambiguous art cinema and related hybrid documentary modes in order to invite spectators to rethink how we understand and represent the unique experiences of living through the collapse of authoritarian communism and the transition to neoliberal capitalism. Negative Aesthetics and Political Collapse ultimately argues that the skepticism about political change and representing history found in these films forms an original mode of utopian thinking. In other words, their negativity about their own artistic autonomy is the very thing that allows them to hint at possible futures that are unrepresentable because they exist outside of the frameworks of contemporary geopolitics and our dominant understandings of cinematic aesthetics. Redefining how we understand the intersections between geopolitics, art cinema aesthetics and film theory, the book presents a unique synthesis of film and political theory that attempts a new understanding of cinematic aesthetics. As such, it will interest scholars of film theory, global art cinema aesthetics, regional studies of Eastern Europe and the Balkans and political science

Memory and Intermediality in Artists' Moving Image Sarah Durcan, 2020-10-19 This book addresses the preoccupation with memory in contemporary artists' moving image installations. It situates artists' moving image in relation to the transformations of digitalization as hybrid intermedial combinations of analogue film, video and digital video emerge from the mid-1990s onwards. While film has always been closely associated with the process of memory, this book investigates new models of memory in artists remediation of film with video and other intermedial aesthetics Beginning with a chapter on the theorization of memory and the moving image and the diverse genealogies of artists film and video the following chapters identify five different mnemonic modes in artists moving image critical nostalgia database narrative the echo chamber documentary fiction and mediatized memories Stan Douglas Steve McQueen Runa Islam Mark Leckey and Elizabeth Price are of a generation that has lived through the transition from analogue to digital Their emphasis on the nuances of intermediality indicates the extent to which we remember through media

Unlocking Subconscious Genius With AI P.T. Milan

,2025-10-05 This book is not a primer on subconscious theory rather it explores how artificial intelligence tools and techniques can be used to unlock power of subconscious mind Ritual is the architecture of meaning It is the choreography of intention the rhythm of renewal the sacred repetition that turns chaos into coherence Long before algorithms humans built rituals to mark time transform emotion and summon the divine Today in the age of artificial intelligence we are rediscovering ritual not as superstition but as structure for the soul AI ritual design is the art of using intelligent systems to create personalized emotionally resonant routines that align the subconscious with conscious goals It is not about automation it is about awakening Take Melinda Rhodes a 47 year old school principal in Raleigh North Carolina After years of burnout and emotional fatigue she realized her mornings were reactive emails news alerts rushed coffee She began using an AI assistant to design a morning ritual soft instrumental music at 6 30 a m a personalized affirmation based on her journal entries and a five minute visualization of her school thriving The AI adjusted the tone daily based on her mood Within weeks Melinda reported feeling calmer more focused and more connected to her purpose It wasn't just a routine she said It was a ceremony of becoming In ancient traditions rituals were designed to invoke the divine to summon clarity from chaos Today prompt engineering when done with intention can serve a similar purpose By crafting questions that are emotionally charged symbolically rich and open ended we invite the subconscious to speak through the machine

Postdevelopmental Approaches to Digital Arts

in Childhood Marissa McClure Sweeny, Mona Sakr, 2025-01-23 This book deconstructs traditional developmentalist logic around children's engagement with digital media where the focus is on what the digital does to children's bodies and brains. Rather than seeing children as vulnerable and passive recipients, the authors position children as co-creators and digital artists embracing the richness of children's digital play. The chapters cover a wide range of topics including indigenous digital art, digital drawing, learning to code, social media, and artificial intelligence. The authors use a diverse range of theoretical perspectives including posthumanism, feminist new materialism, social semiotics, socialcultural, and multimodal approaches to childhood to generate new ways of seeing the relationship between children and the digital. The book includes chapters from academics and practitioners based in Australia, Canada, Sweden, the UK, and the USA, and a companion website showcasing innovative and interactive material including visual essays and soundscapes. International Handbook of Semiotics Peter Pericles Trifonas, 2015-05-11 This book provides an extensive overview and analysis of current work on semiotics that is being pursued globally in the areas of literature, the visual arts, cultural studies, media, the humanities, natural sciences, and social sciences. Semiotics, also known as structuralism, is one of the major theoretical movements of the 20th century, and its influence as a way to conduct analyses of cultural products and human practices has been immense. This is a comprehensive volume that brings together many otherwise fragmented academic disciplines and currents, uniting them in the framework of semiotics. Addressing a longstanding need, it provides a global perspective on recent and ongoing semiotic research across a broad range of disciplines. The handbook is intended for all researchers interested in applying semiotics as a critical lens for inquiry across diverse disciplines.
