Jennifer Shahade, author, journalist, two-time U.S. Women's Chess Champion, and FIDE Woman Grandmaster. Drawing on Art, Dalia Judovitz, Marcel Duchamp, 2010. This volume explores the central importance of appropriation, collaboration, influence, and play in French artist Marcel Duchamp's 1887-1968 work and in Dada and Surrealism in general, to show how the concept of art itself became the critical fuel and springboard for questioning art's fundamental premises. Duchamp was a French artist whose work is most often associated with the Dadaist and Surrealist movements. The author maintains that rather than simply negating art, Duchamp's readymades, Duchamp's readymades are ordinary manufactured objects that the artist selected and modified as an antidote to what he called retinal art, and later works including films and conceptual pieces demonstrating the impossibility of defining art in the first place. Through his readymades, Duchamp explicitly critiqued the commodification of art and inaugurated a profound shift from valuing art for its visual appearance to understanding the significance of its mode of public presentation.
