Art Of Dora Carrington:

The Art of Dora Carrington Jane Hill, 1994 At the age of 38 Dora Carrington 1893 1932 committed suicide unable to contemplate living without her companion Lytton Strachey who had died a few weeks before Lytton was the lynchpin of a life in which friendships making a home and her own artistic output jockeyed for attention The association with Lytton and his Bloomsbury friends combined with her own modesty have tended to overshadow Carrington s contribution to Modern British painting This important book goes a long way to redress the balance looking at the immense range of her work portraits landscapes glass paintings letter drawings and decorative work which reveal Carrington as a significant artist of her period

Book jacket The Art of Dora Carrington Jane Hill, 1994 This edition has been issued to coincide with the release of Christopher Hampton s film about Dora Carrington and also with an exhibition at the Barbican Dora Carrington, 2024-11-12 As a significant contributor to Modern British art during the interwar years and an associate of the Bloomsbury Group Carrington who preferred to be known only by her surname was described as the most neglected serious painter of her time by former Tate Director Sir John Rothenstein For the first time in 30 years Ariane Bankes and Anne Chisholm will take Dora Carrington s works letters and drawings and shed light on a remarkable artist who defied social norms with her radical bohemian way of life This book looks at Carrington s involvement with The Bloomsbury Group her work for the Omega Workshops as well as her relationships with artists and writers including one of the founding members of the Bloomsbury Group Lytton Strachey Although devoted to Strachey until her death their unconventional relationship allowed Carrington to explore her sexuality and defiance of gender norms which became a defining element of her artwork Carrington s paintings guide this narrative throughout the book as paintings and drawings of her family friends and lovers at the time show glimpses into her extraordinary life which has been overlooked for so many years Distributed for Pallant House Gallery Pallant House Gallery Chichester 9 November 2024 27 April 2025 Carrington Gretchen Gerzina, 1989

Carrington (video). , 1995 Carrington Gretchen Holbrook Gerzina, 1995 This volume is a biography of English artist Dora Carrington 1893 1932 She was known generally simply as Carrington and she is remembered in part for her association with members of the Bloomsbury Group especially the writer Lytton Strachey Carrington s paintings illustrated her life and the houses she shared with Strachey She was an autobiographical painter choosing as her subjects the people and places around her and distilling her emotions about them into images of limpid intensity her landscapes especially express a heightened sense of place that seems to well up from the unconscious Carrington Noel Carrington, 1978 Carrington's Letters Dora Carrington, 2017-11-23 Carrington s beguiling letters take us beyond the Bloomsbury group to discuss sexual mores how to be an artist and what it is to be truly oneself Known only by her surname Dora Carrington was the star of her year at the Slade School of Fine Art and was friends with some of the greatest minds of her day including Virginia Woolf Rosamund Lehmann and Maynard Keynes For over a decade she was the companion of homosexual writer Lytton Strachey and stricken without him killed herself when he died in 1932 Though she never achieved the fame her early career promised in her determination to live life according to her own nature especially in relation to her work and her fluid attitude to sex gender and sexuality she fought battles that remain familiar and urgent today Now through her passionate playful and honest letters we can encounter the maverick artist and compelling personality afresh and in her own words Dora Carrington ,

Bloomsbury and France Mary Ann Caws, Sarah Bird Wright, 1999-12-02 Bloomsbury on the Mediterranean is how Vanessa Bell described France in a letter to her sister Virginia Woolf

Remarking on the vivifying effect of Cassis Woolf herself said I will take my mind out of its iron cage and let it swim Complete heaven I think it Yet until now there has never been a book that focused on the profound influence of France on the Bloomsbury group

In Bloomsbury and France Art and Friends Mary Ann Caws and Sarah Bird Wright reveal the crucial importance of the Bloomsbury group's frequent sojourns to France the artists and writers they met there and the liberating effect of the country itself

Drawing upon many previously unpublished letters memoirs and photographs the book illuminates the artistic development of Virginia and Leonard Woolf Clive Bell David Garnett E M Forster Lytton Strachey Dora Carrington and others

The authors cover all aspects of the Bloomsbury experience in France from the specific influence of French painting on the work of Roger Fry Duncan Grant and Vanessa Bell to the heady atmosphere of the medieval Cistercian Abbaye de Pontigny the celebrated meeting place of French intellectuals where Lytton Strachey Julian Bell and Charles Mauron mingled with writers and critics to the relationships between the Bloomsbury group and Henri Matisse Pablo Picasso Gertrude Stein Andre Gide Jean Marchand and many others

Caws and Wright argue that Bloomsbury would have been very different without France that France was their anti England a culture in which their eccentricities and aesthetic experiments could flower

This remarkable study offers a rich new perspective on perhaps the most creative group of artists and friends in the 20th century
