Lust, 2021-12-06 Chinese Popular Prints ventures into the world of Chinese blockprint illustration that had its assured niche in the rich history of Chinese popular culture from the 17th to the early 20th centuries These prints were not considered high art in China but were produced for the urban and rural populations The book deals with all aspects of the Chinese popular print In the first two chapters its invention origins powerful traditions and its history are described Classical art and the Ming illustrated book were important impetuses Three major centres of north and central China emerged Finally the popular

print took on something of the roles of the modern cinema or television In the following four chapters the main themes are the printmakers and printshops society symbolism and visual pun categories of popular prints and their display technical terms A description of the workshops and their techniques figure drawing and colouring gives a good insight in the technical side of the print A varied popular culture and a certain realism are strands in it as are spirit protection of the house recalls of the past hopes for the future the hold of the theatre etc Two elaborate appendices provide much detailed information about persons symbols as well as about some images in the lore of the print A special section of 28 illustrations 8 full colour demonstrates the potentialities of the Chinese blockprint illustration

Networking the International System Madeleine Herren, 2014-06-13 The book critically investigates the local impact of international organizations beyond a Western rationale and aims to overcome Eurocentric patterns of analysis Considering Asian and Western examples the contributions originate from different disciplines and study areas and discuss a global approach which has been a blind spot in scholarly research on international organizations until now Using the 1930s as a historical reference the contributions question role of international organizations during conflicts war and crises gaining insights into their function as peacekeeping forces in the 21st century While chapter one discusses the historicity of international organizations and the availability of sources the second chapter deliberates on Eurocentrism and science policy considering the converging of newly created epistemic communities and old diplomatic elites Chapter 3 sheds light on international organizations as platforms expanding the field of research from the diversity of organizations to the patterns of global governance The final chapter turns to the question of how international organizations invented and introduced new fields of action pointing to the antithetic role of standardization the preservation of cultural heritage and the difficulties in reaching a non Western approach

China and the West Elisa Ambrosio, Francine Giese, Alina Martimyanova, Hans Bjarne Thomsen, 2022-11-21 With contributions from outstanding specialists in glass art and East Asian art history this edited volume opens a cross cultural dialogue on the hitherto little studied medium of Chinese reverse glass painting The first major survey of this form of East Asian art the volume traces its long history its local and global diffusion and its artistic and technical characteristics Manufactured for export to Europe and for local consumption within China the fragile artworks studied in this volume constitute a paramount part of Chinese visual culture and attest to the intensive cultural and artistic exchange between China and the West With contributions by Thierry Audric Kee Il Choi Jr Patrick Conner Karina H Corrigan Elisabeth Eibner Patricia F Ferguson Lihong Liu William H Ma Alina

Martimyanova Christopher L Maxwell Rupprecht Mayer Jessica Lee Patterson Michaela Pej ochov J r me Samuel Hans Bjarne Thomsen Jan van Campen Rosalien van der Poel Tu sais, mon vieux Jean-Pierre John Willis, 2017-04-28 Tu sais mon vieux Jean Pierre is inspired by the work of archaeologist Jean Pierre Chrestien 1949 2008 who worked hand in glove with a generation of researchers in helping to unearth unexpected and always interesting aspects of New France Contributions focus first upon the door to New France in the Gulf of St Lawrence Newfoundland and Acadia A second set of essays move further up the St Lawrence and into the heartland of the continent The final section examines aspects of Canadian culture popular art religion and communication The essays share a curiosity for material culture a careful regard for detail and nuance that forms the grain of New France studies and sensitivity to the overall context that is part and parcel of how history proceeds on the local or regional scale Happily we can now dispense with old fashioned and facile generalizations about the allegedly absent bourgeoisie the purportedly deficient commercial ethic of the habitants and the so called underlying military character of the colony and get down the business of understanding real people and their possessions in context Published in French The Turn of the Century Christian Berg, Frank Durieux, Geert Lernout, 1995 Rewritten versions of contributions to an international conference held at the University of Antwerp in May 1992 Starting point for the conference was the vagueness of the very terms modernism and modernity In the first section a group of comparatists address the theoretical and terminological problems of modernism Practical readings of modernist writers discussions of different modernist movements and the work of critics who have contributed to debates about modernism make up the second section The third section looks at the problem of modernism from an interartistic and interdisciplinary perspective Sociology of Music Leon Stefanija, 2024-09-26 The textbook provides students with insight into and overview of the basics of social research on music It addresses the Who What When Where Why How of music research through four perspectives from the sociological study of music a historical survey of the social study of music when theoretical points of view what and methodological how and pragmatic aspects who why how The other Ws where and why are included within the four main perspectives The four perspectives history theory methodology and practice are complementary Some of the names included in the theory and practice of music are also listed as a part of the history of music sociology and vice versa In this way the book encompasses what Howard S Becker has conceptualized as an art world Kurt Blaukopf as musical practice and Christopher Small as musicking Covering all the relevant details yet concise in structure this book is ideal for students of the sociology of music musical education musicology and of arts and aesthetics Institution & Innovation , 2020-12-07 Usually the term innovation is used in connection with artists and authors themes and techniques What we see in most studies about innovation is that its problematic aspects are related to problems in literary or artistic history and that scholars try to solve those problems in work oriented research Some scholars however especially emperical sociologists claim that problems with respect to innovation cannot be solved without analyzing the cultural area where those problems arise The major question that this book discusses concerns the role of art committees literary art and film critics art collectors museum directors academic writers and other gatekeepers with regard to different forms of art in the interbellum period as well as after World War II Image of the People T. J. Clark, Timothy J. Clark, 1999-01-01 In this pioneering study Clark looked at the inextricable links between modern art and history Pax Romana Paul Petit, 2023-11-15 This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1967
