Art Since Pop Modern Movements:

Art Since Pop John Albert Walker, 1978 Korean Art since 1945: Challenges and Changes Youngna KIM, 2024-09-16

Over the past decades Korea has gradually risen to become one of the global representatives of Asian culture. Korean artists have been increasingly active at an international level with many being invited for residencies and exhibitions all over the world. Nonetheless for various reasons the general understanding of Korean contemporary art remains insufficient. Although a few overviews of Korean contemporary art do exist they typically focus on the history of art groups and movements. In addition several anthologies have been published with articles on a range of topics offering multiple perspectives. However there have been few attempts to provide a unified synopsis of Korean contemporary art. Presenting a comprehensive engaging survey that covers the full spectrum of Korean contemporary art Korean Art since 1945: Challenges and Changes seeks to fill this lacuna. Drawing on primary sources it discusses the main issues including the ideological stakes that affected the art world: modernist art vs political art and the fluidity of concepts such as tradition and national identity. Moreover the book also has a chapter on the art of North Korea. Korean Art since 1945: Challenges and Changes is an invaluable tool for those intent on grasping the entire scope of modern art in Asia.

Against Voluptuous Bodies J. M. Bernstein, 2006. The aim of this book is to provide an account of modernist painting that follows on from the aesthetic theory of Theodor W Adorno. It offers a materialist account of modernism with detailed discussions of modern aesthetics from Kant to Arthur Danto, Stanley Cavell and Adorno. It discusses in detail competing accounts of modernism: Clement Greenberg, Michael Fried, Yve Alain Bois and Thierry de Duve and it discusses several painters and artists in detail: Pieter de Hooch, Jackson Pollock, Robert Rauschenberg, Cindy Sherman and Chaim Soutine. Its central thesis is that modernist painting exemplifies a form of rationality that is an alternative to the instrumental rationality of enlightened modernity. Modernist paintings exemplify how nature and the sociality of meaning can be reconciled.

The Independent Group Anne Massey, 1995. This study looks at the artists, designers and writers who formed the Independent Group in the early 1950s including such influential figures as Richard Hamilton, Eduardo Paolozzi, Nigel Henderson, William Turnbull, Rayner Banham and Alison and Peter Smithson. As a group they aimed to raise the status of popular objects and icons within modern visual culture. The development of the Independent Group is mapped out against the changing nature of modernism during the Cold War era as well as the impact of mass consumption on post war British society. In this book Massey examines the cultural context of the formation of the Group covering the founding of the Institute of Contemporary Arts in London, the meanings of modernism and the creation of a national identity. Key exhibitions such as Parallel of Life and Art and This Is Tomorrow are also examined.
