these amazing buildings to life as the authors provide thorough architectural descriptions pointing out notable carvings sculptures stained glass and other decorative and structural features Nearly twenty years in the making this volume includes many of Detroit's most well known churches like Sainte Anne in Corktown the Cathedral of the Most Blessed Sacrament in Boston Edison Saint Florian in Hamtramck Mariners Church on the riverfront Saint Mary's in Greektown and Central United Methodist Church downtown But the authors also provide glimpses into stunning buildings that are less easily accessible or whose uses have changed such as the original Temple Beth El now the Bonstelle Theater First Presbyterian Church now Ecumenical Theological Seminary and Saint Albertus now maintained by the Polish American Historical Site Association or whose future is uncertain like Woodward Avenue Presbyterian Church most recently Abyssinian Interdenominational Center now closed Appendices contain information on hundreds of architects artisans and crafts people involved in the construction of the churches and a map pinpoints their locations around the city of Detroit Anyone interested in Detroit's architecture or religious history will be delighted by Detroit's Historic Places of Worship American City Robert Sharoff, 2005

Overwhelmed by the sheer beauty of the buildings they encountered on a 2003 visit to downtown Detroit writer Robert Sharoff and photographer William Zbaren were inspired to create American City Detroit Architecture 1845 2005 the first new large format book on the city's architecture in more than thirty years The fact that many structures are either endangered or marginally in use makes the book all the more compelling In 2005 the National Trust for Historic Preservation placed the historic buildings of downtown Detroit on the list of the country's most endangered landmarks The book also includes examples of interesting new architecture as well as numerous historic buildings from the 1920s and earlier that have been maintained or in some cases painstakingly restored BOOK JACKET A Detroit Anthology Anna

Clark, 2016-07-13 A unique perspective of the Motor City this anthology combines stories told by both longtime residents and newcomers from activists to teachers to artists to students While Detroit has always been rich in stories too often those stories are told back to the city by outsiders looking in believing they can explain Detroit back to itself As editor Anna Clark writes in the introduction These are the stories we tell each other over late nights at the pub and long afternoons on the porch We share them in coffee shops at church social hours in living rooms and while waiting for the bus These are stories full of nodding asides and knowing laughs These are stories addressed to the rhetorical you with the ratcheted up language that comes with it and these are stories that took real legwork to investigate You will not find positive stories about Detroit in this collection or negative ones But you will find true stories Featuring essays photographs art and poetry by Grace Lee Boggs John Carlisle Desiree Cooper Dream Hampton Steve Hughes Jamaal May Tracie McMillan Marsha Music Shaka Senghor Thomas J Sugrue and many others Detroit's Birwood Wall: Hatred & Healing in the West Eight Mile Community Gerald Van Dusen, 2019 In 1941 a real estate developer in northwest Detroit faced a dilemma He needed federal financing for white clients purchasing lots in a new subdivision abutting a community of mostly African Americans

When the banks deemed the development too risky because of potential racial tension the developer proposed a novel solution He built a six foot tall one foot thick concrete barrier extending from Eight Mile Road south for three city blocks the infamous Birwood Wall It changed life in West Eight Mile forever Gathering personal interviews family histories land records and other archival sources author Gerald Van Dusen tells the story of this isolated black enclave that persevered through all manner of racial barriers and transformed a symbol of discrimination into an expression of hope and perseverance

The northern anchor of Detroit s greater downtown New Center is a diverse and vibrant neighborhood that offers shopping entertainment and dining among landmark architecture historic districts and contemporary homes and businesses Shortly after General Motors built their headquarters three miles north of downtown the Fisher Brothers conceived the idea of a new center and proceeded to construct the landmark Fisher and New Center Buildings From this initial activity in the 1920s sprung a new commercial district a new neighborhood and a New Center for the City of Detroit Detroit's New Center takes readers on a journey from New Center s origins as a planned business district to its current life as a thriving area where Detroiters live work and play Detroit's Cass Corridor Armando Delicato,Elias Khalil,2012 Welcome to the Cass Corridor an area geographically bound by freeways and major thoroughfares yet boundless in its rich history and influence Since the French established the sleepy ribbon farms in the 1700s the Cass Corridor has experienced a fascinating evolution Home to affluent gentry in the Victorian era the area became the hub for automotive parts suppliers film distribution and pharmaceuticals at the turn of the 20th century The interwar period saw the area transition to a working class neighborhood that descended into a slum The Cass Corridor however redefined itself Detroit and the nation as a home to the counterculture movement of the 1960s and 1970s The corridor has long been a cradle of creativity that many renowned personalities called home including Charles Lindbergh Gilda Radner Janis Joplin Joni Mitchell Marcus Belgrave and others

Detroit's Downtown Movie Palaces Michael Hauser, Marianne Weldon, 2006 The spokelike grid of wide grand avenues radiating out from downtown Detroit allowed for a concentration of theaters initially along Monroe Street near Campus Martius and after the second decade of the 20th century clustered around Grand Circus Park all easily accessible by a vast network of streetcars In its heyday Grand Circus Park boasted a dozen palatial movie palaces containing an astonishing total of 26 000 seats Of these theaters five remain today fully restored and operational for live entertainment Detroit more so than any other North American city illustrates how demographic and economic forces dramatically changed the landscape of film exhibition in an urban setting Detroit's Historic Hotels and Restaurants Patricia Ibbotson, 2007-07-18 Detroit's population grew rapidly after the beginning of the 20th century due to the growth of the automobile and other industries and the city became a tourist and convention center Detroit was in its heyday in the 1920s when it was the fourth largest city in the United States Some of Detroit's larger hotels were architectural masterpieces nationally known and were the center of social activities Others were lesser known second class hotels now largely forgotten Detroit restaurants ranged from the self serve to the elegant These hotels and restaurants many of which are gone now are preserved in nearly 200 vintage postcards allowing the reader to take a trip down memory lane Better Made in Michigan: The Salty Story of Detroit's Best

Chip Karen Dybis, 2015-08-17 For many Detroit is the crunch capital of the world More than forty local chip companies once fed the Motor City's never ending appetite for salty snacks including New Era Everkrisp Krun Chee Mello Crisp Wolverine and Vita Boy Only Better Made remains From the start the brand was known for light crisp chips that were near to perfection Discover how Better Made came to be how its chips are made and how competition has shaped the industry into what it is today Bite into the flavorful history of Michigan's most iconic chip as author Karen Dybis explores how Detroit chipreneurs rose from garage based businesses to become snack food royalty Detroit's Statler and Book-Cadillac Hotels David Kohrman, 2002 During the first three decades of the 20th century Detroit's Washington Boulevard was transformed from a minor backstreet into a major commercial and social center Three brothers named Book dreamed that Washington Boulevard would become the Fifth Avenue of the Midwest It was through their efforts as well as those of businessmen like E M Statler that the dream became a reality The two fundamental developments that anchored this dream were the massive Statler and

Book Cadillac Hotels Between the 1920s and 1960s Detroit's finest hotels fiercely competed with one another for the lion's share of tourist convention business and dining traffic This book serves as a comparative study of the Book Cadillac and Statler Hotels of Detroit and their impact on the development of Washington Boulevard Here you will find the story of these two legendary institutions illustrated with over 180 photographs from the Burton Historical Collection Manning Brothers the Walter Reuther Library and private collections
