A History of Art History Christopher S. Wood, 2019-09-03 An authoritative history of art history from its medieval origins to its modern predicaments In this wide ranging and authoritative book the first of its kind in English Christopher Wood tracks the evolution of the historical study of art from the late middle ages through the rise of the modern scholarly discipline of art history Synthesizing and assessing a vast array of writings episodes and personalities this original account of the development of art historical thinking will appeal to readers both inside and outside the discipline The book shows that the pioneering chroniclers of the Italian Renaissance Lorenzo Ghiberti and Giorgio Vasari measured every epoch against fixed standards of quality Only in the Romantic era did art historians discover the virtues of medieval art anticipating the relativism of the later nineteenth century when art history learned to admire the art of all societies and to value every work as an index of its times The major art historians of the modern era however Jacob Burckhardt Aby Warburg Heinrich Wölfflin Erwin Panofsky Meyer Schapiro and Ernst Gombrich struggled to adapt their work to the rupture of artistic modernism leading to the current predicaments of the discipline Combining erudition with clarity this book makes a landmark contribution to the understanding of art history and singular figure in American art history Art historian George A Kubler 1912 1996 was a foundational scholar of ancient American art and archaeology as well as Spanish and Portuguese architecture During over five decades at Yale University he published seventeen books that included innovative monographs major works of synthesis and an influential theoretical treatise In this biography Thomas F Reese analyzes the early formation broad career and writings of Kubler casting nuanced light on the origins and development of his thinking Notable in Reese s discussion and contextualization of Kubler s writings is a revealing history and analysis of his Shape of Time a book so influential to students scholars artists and curious readers in multiple disciplines that it has been continuously in print since 1962 Reese reveals how pivotal its ideas were in Kubler s own thinking rather than focusing on problems of form as an ordering principle he increasingly came to sequence works by how they communicate meaning The author demonstrates how Kubler who professed to have little interest in theory devoted himself to the craft of art history discovering and charting the rules that guided the propagation of structure and significance through time

A Realist Theory of Art History Ian Verstegen, 2013-01-03 As the theoretical alignments within academia shift this book introduces a surprising variety of realism to abolish the old positivist theory dichotomy that has haunted Art History Demanding frankly the referential detachment of the objects under study the book proposes a stratified multi causal account of art history that addresses postmodern concerns while saving it from its errors of self refutation Building from the very basic distinction between intransitive being and transitive knowing objects can be affirmed as real while our knowledge of them is held to be fallible Several focused chapters address basic problems while introducing philosophical reflection into art history These include basic ontological distinctions between society and culture general and special history the discontinuity of cultural objects the importance of definition for special history scales facets and fiat objects as forms of historical structure the nature of evidence and proof historical truth and controversies Stressing Critical Realism as the stratified multi causal approach needed for productive research today in the academy this book creates the subject of the ontology of art history and sets aside a theoretical space for metaphysical reflection thus clarifying the usually muddy distinction between theory methodology and historiography in art history philosophy of Ernst Cassirer Finally she evaluates Panofsky's better known and later iconological studies by reading them against the earlier essays and by comparing his earlier ideas with the vision that has inspired recent work in the philosophy of history semiotics and the philosophy of science The Making of the Humanities, Volume III Rens Bod, Jaap Maat, Thijs Weststeijn, 2025-10-01 This comprehensive history of the humanities focuses on the modern period 1850-2000 The contributors including Floris Cohen Lorraine Daston and Ingrid Rowland survey the rise of the humanities in interaction with the natural and social sciences offering new perspectives on the interaction between disciplines in Europe and Asia and new insights generated by digital humanities The Belvedere: 300 Years a Venue for Art Stella Rollig, Christian Huemer, 2023-06-19 Anniversary publication of the Belvedere The Belvedere in Vienna epitomizes the changes that have taken place over the course of three centuries in the concept of what constitutes a museum Originally built by Prince Eugene of Savoy to enhance his prestige as a prince under Maria Theresa the Upper Belvedere became one of the world's first public museums The idea of presenting Austrian art in an international context which in 1903 motivated the establishment of the Modern Gallery in the Lower Belvedere remains the key objective of this world famous cultural institution In this critical homage renowned authors explore enduring questions that transcend the different epochs such as What ordering concepts are evident in art presentation How contemporary were these presentations in an international context What kind of public were they aimed at Anniversary publication of the österreichische Galerie Belvedere a critical homage to a place of art with a diverse history spanning centuries Exhibition until January 7 2024 With contributions from Johanna Aufreiter Björn Blauensteiner Brigitte Borchhardt Birbaumer Thomas DaCosta Kaufmann Christiane Erharter Nora Fischer Anna Frasca Rath Antoinette Friedenthal Martin Fritz Thomas W.
