A History of Contemporary Chinese Art Yan Zhou, 2020-07-14. Chinese art has experienced its most profound metamorphosis since the early 1950s, transforming from humble realism to socialist realism, from revolutionary art to critical realism, then avant garde movement and globalized Chinese art. With a hybrid mix of Chinese philosophy imported but revised Marxist ideology and western humanities, Chinese artists have created an alternative approach after a great ideological and aesthetic transition in the 1980s toward its own contemporaneity, though interacting and intertwining with the art of the rest of the world. This book will investigate from the perspective of an activist critic and historian who grew up prior to and participated in the great transition and then researched and taught the subject: the evolution of Chinese art in modern and contemporary times. The volume will be a comprehensive and insightful history of one of the most sophisticated and unparalleled artistic and cultural phenomena in the modern world. A History of Chinese Art in the 20th and 21st Century Lü Peng, 2025-02-03. This book situates the development of 20th and 21st century Chinese art in such fundamental contexts as Chinese politics and social change and is ideally suited for readers to understand the particularities of Chinese art that are distinct from Western art history. Such an approach is appropriate to the understanding of the development of modern Chinese art, which differs from both the Western approach to art history and the approach to traditional Chinese art, which is limited to the combining of ink and brush heritage and ideological traditions. Based on the scale and influence of historical works considering the specificity of the term involving fine art in China and the scope of influence of the phenomenon of fine art in the cultural field this book's study of the phenomena of painting sculpture photography video and mixed media art follows two linear time lines of historical relevance 1949-1978 and 1978 to the present Special attention is paid to the development of modern and contemporary art after 1978 The main readers of this book are undergraduate students in art schools graduate and doctoral students in art history students in other humanities disciplines experts and professors in the study of 20th century Chinese art and cultural history should be important readers of this book
