Üstünkaya,2025-05-06 This book provides an insight into the legal workings of the most ostentatious fashion sector Couture whilst simultaneously advocating for stronger legal protection in this industry Offering an interdisciplinary approach including art theory from Tolstoy and Rand amongst others the book examines where Couture fashion sits within the law Most significantly the book considers the couturier as an artist and Couture as art in relation to how this art form may be protected legally by copyright Reflecting on contemporary issues it analyses recent legal cases together with legislation to provide awareness on the current position and considers implications for the future by suggesting legal frameworks in pursuit of improvements Using U K law as a case study the book also comparatively assesses global fashion law analysing the legal workings in the E U and the U S The book will be of interest to researchers in the field of fashion law copyright law art and intellectual property The Art of the Shoe Marie-Josèphe Bossan,2015-09-15 Abandoning a French look on the subject Mrs Bossan the author develops her study with a dichotomous vision that of time that touches the history of mankind and that of geography and sociology which lead to an almost ethnographic analysis The author dissects the shoe and all that surrounds it from its history to painting and literature After this book it will be difficult to publish a book with a more complete treatment of the subject Illustrated with an iconography that is exceptional both for its aestheticism and the pieces chosen this book is a reference for historians sociologists and for the fashion victims and designers Mondrian's Dress

Nancy J. Troy,Ann Marguerite Tartsinis,2023-10-24 An extraordinary look at how the style of Piet Mondrian s abstract paintings was posthumously appropriated by 1960s fashion Pop art and consumer culture Yves Saint Laurent s 1965 Mondrian dresses are among the twentieth century s most celebrated and recognizable fashions but the context of their creation involves much more than meets the eye In Mondrian s Dress Nancy J Troy and Ann Marguerite Tartsinis offer a fresh approach to the coupling of Piet Mondrian s interwar paintings with Saint Laurent s couture designs by exposing the rampant merchandising and commodification that these works experienced in the 1960s The authors situate the consolidation of Saint Laurent s fashion brand alongside the work of such Pop artists as Roy Lichtenstein Andy Warhol and Tom Wesselmann and show how conventional understandings of Mondrian s avant garde abstractions were transformed by the mass circulation of his signature style Beyond its attention to 1960s fashion Pop art and consumer culture Mondrian s Dress offers critical assessments of Saint Laurent s so called dialogue with art the remarkable art collection that he built with his partner Pierre Berge and the crucial role that photography plays in the marketing of couture The first book length study of its kind Mondrian s Dress is a provocative reevaluation of how art commerce and fashion became fundamentally intertwined in the postwar period Art Scents Larry E. Shiner,2020 In the last twenty years there has been a marked increase in artists using smells in their works at the same time that scents are being used to accompany plays films and music There is also an increase in ambient scenting in stores and hotels and leading chefs are adding unusual scents to cuisine The book explores these olfactory activities and the aesthetic and ethical issues they raise as well as answering the traditional disparagement of the sense of smell by leading intellectuals such as Kant Darwin and Freud drawing on current science social science and humanities as well as literature World Clothing and Fashion Mary Ellen Snodgrass,2015-03-17 Taking a global multicultural social and economic perspective this work explores the diverse and colourful history of human attire From prehistoric times to the age of globalization articles cover the evolution of clothing utility style production and commerce including accessories shoes hats gloves handbags and jewellery for men women and children Dress for different climates occupations recreational activities religious observances rites of passages and other human needs and purposes from hunting and warfare to sports and space exploration are examined in depth and detail Fashion and design trends in diverse historical periods regions and countries and social and ethnic groups constitute a major area of coverage as does the evolution of materials from animal fur to textiles to synthetic fabrics and production methods from sewing and weaving to industrial manufacturing and computer aided design Dress as a reflection of social status intellectual and artistic trends economic conditions cultural exchange and modern media marketing are recurring themes Influential figures and institutions in fashion design industry and manufacturing retail sales production technologies and related fields are also covered
