Caribbean Literature in English places its subject in its precise regional context The Caribbean generally considered as one area is highly discrete in its topography race and languages including mainland Guyana the Atlantic island of Barbados the Lesser Antilles Trinidad and Jamaica whose size and history gave it an early sense of separate nationhood Beginning with Raleigh s Discoverie of Guiana 1596 this innovative study traces the sometimes surprising evolution of cultures which shared a common experience of slavery but were intimately related to individual local areas The approach is interdisciplinary examining the heritage of the plantation era and the issues of language and racial identity it created From this base Louis James reassesses the phenomenal expansion of writing in the contemporary period He traces the influence of pan Caribbean movements and the creation of an expatriate Caribbean identity in Britain and America Britain is considered as a West Indian island created by colonization in reverse Further sections treat the development of a Caribbean aesthetic and the repossession of cultural roots from Africa and Asia Balancing an awareness of the regional identity of Caribbean literature with an exploration of its place in world and postcolonial literatures this study offers a panoramic view that has become one of the most vital of the new literatures in English This accessible overview of Caribbean writing will appeal to the general reader and student alike and particularly to all who are interested in or studying Caribbean literatures and culture postcolonial studies Commonwealth new literatures and contemporary literature and drama The Routledge Companion to African Diaspora Art History Eddie Chambers,2024-10-31

Latinx art Lewthwaite explores how these artists practice archipelagic memory a generative decolonial and coalitional form of memory work that envisions alternative modes of belonging in difference and solidarity with others By connecting different people pasts and places Caribbean Latinx artists expose the reverberations of trauma while imagining other worlds beyond it This work puts Caribbean Latinx artists at the center of debates about the exclusions of dominant memory narratives and contemporary art worlds highlighting their contributions to a wider decolonial project of remembrance By revealing the interconnectedness of traumatic histories and the potential for art to foster empathy and justice Lewthwaite s work underscores the importance of relational and decolonial thought for imagining a better society

Archaeopoetics Mandy Bloomfield, 2016-05-10 Explores poetry as historical investigation examining works by five contemporary poets whose creations represent new materially emphatic methods of engaging with the past and producing new kinds of historical knowledge Archaeopoetics explores archaeological poetry ground breaking and experimental writing by innovative poets whose work opens up broad new avenues by which contemporary readers may approach the past illuminating the dense web of interconnections often lost in traditional historiography Critic Mandy Bloomfield traces the emergence of a significant historicist orientation in recent poetry exemplified by the work of five writers American poet Susan Howe Korean American artist Theresa Hak Kyung Cha British poet Maggie O Sullivan and diasporic African Caribbean writers Kamau Brathwaite and M NourbeSe Philip Bloomfield sets the work of these five authors within a vigorous tradition including earlier work by Ezra Pound and Walter Benjamin and then shows how these five poets create poems that engender new encounters with pivotal episodes in history such as the English regicide or Korea s traumatized twentieth century Exploring our shared but imperfectly understood history as well as omissions and blind spots in historiography Bloomfield outlines the tension between the irretrievability of effaced historical evidence and the hope that poetry may reconstitute such unrecoverable histories She posits that this tension is fertile engendering a form of aesthetically enacted epistemological enquiry Fascinating and seminal Archaeopoetics pays special attention to the sensuous materiality of texts and most especially to the visual manifestations of poetry The poems in this volume employ the visual imagery of the word itself or incorporate imagery into the poetry to propose persuasive alternatives to narrative or discursive frameworks of historical knowledge

Tempest in the Caribbean Jonathan Goldberg, 2004 Shakespeare s The Tempest has long been claimed by colonials and postcolonial thinkers alike as the dramatic work that most enables them to confront their entangled history recognized as early modernity s most extensive engagement with the vexing issues of colonialism race dispossession language European displacement and occupation disregard for native culture Tempest in the Caribbean reads some of the classic anticolonial texts by Aime Cesaire Roberto Fernandez Retamar George Lamming and Frantz Fanon for instance through the lens of feminist and queer analysis exemplified by the theoretical essays of Sylvia Wynter and the work of Michelle Cliff Extending the Tempest plot Goldberg considers recent works by Caribbean authors and social theorists among them Patricia Powell Jamaica Kincaid and Hilton Als

These rewritings he suggests and the lived conditions to which they testify present alternatives to the masculinist and heterosexual bias of the legacy that has been derived from The Tempest. By placing gender and sexuality at the center of the debate about the uses of Shakespeare for anticolonial purposes, Goldberg's work points to new possibilities that might be articulated through the nexus of race and sexuality. Place sexuality at the center of Caribbean responses to Shakespeare's play. Die Romische Republik EPUB 2-3, 2015-04-22. Provides a comprehensive introduction to 20th and 21st century world poets and their most famous, most distinctive and most influential poems.
