Rubin, 2017-07-05 Introducing the concept of music and painting as rival sisters during the nineteenth century this interdisciplinary collection explores the productive exchange from rivalry to inspiration to collaboration between the two media in the age of Romanticism and Modernism The volume traces the relationship between art and music from the opposing claims for superiority of the early nineteenth century to the emergence of the concept of synesthesia around 1900 This collection puts forward a more complex history of the relationship between art and music than has been described in earlier works including an intermixing of models and distinctions between approaches to them Individual essays from art history musicology and literature examine the growing influence of art upon music and vice versa in the works of Berlioz Courbet Manet Fantin Latour Rodin Debussy and the Pre Raphaelites among other artists The Art of Music Patrick Coleman, 2015-01-01 The Art of Music takes the relationship between two of the more prominent and oft intersecting branches of artistic creation as its subject The liaison between music and the visual arts has inspired countless generations of artists The two have had manifold complex interactions across all periods of history in Western and non Western contexts alike yet their intersection has only become a rich vein for research by art historians and musicologists in the last thirty years
