Art Of The Middle East:

Contemporary Art in the Middle East Paul Sloman, 2009 This is the first in the cutting edge ARTWORLD series which opens up the most challenging and underexposed art scenes in the world which contains a collection of essays and art works showcasing artists from the Middle East in a collection that defies fixed categories shifting instead through different artistic registers according to more subtle themes

Palace and Mosque Tim Stanley, Mariam Rosser-Owen, Stephen Vernoit, 2006 Published in paperback for the opening of the new Jameel Gallery of Islamic Art at the V A this fascinating introduction to Islamic art and culture draws on examples from its magnificent collections It is an invaluable overview of a complex subject exploring the cultural significance of objects in different media from ceramics miniature painting and textiles to wood carving and metalwork while the superb photographs highlight their unique craftsmanship From the Middle East came the earliest astrological clocks the finest ceramics and lustreware the development of calligraphy and Arabic scripts and the intricate skills of carpet weaving among many other profoundly significant cultural developments This cradle of empires was also a vibrant commercial centre exporting raw materials skills and techniques to surrounding lands and spreading its web of influence from Southern Spain to Northern India Palace and Mosque distills a rich and vibrant culture and will be of lasting value to all those interested in the glories of the Islamic world

The Art of the Middle East Including Persia, Mesopotamia and Palestine Leonard Woolley, 1961 Survey of the art and archaeology of the countries later known as Anatolia Syria Palestine Iraq and Elan together with the whole of the Arabian peninsula

Contemporary Art from the Middle East Hamid Keshmirshekan, 2015-01-30 How is home grown contemporary art viewed within the Middle East And is it understood differently outside the region What is liable to be lost when contemporary art from the Middle East is transferred to international contexts and how can it be reclaimed This timely book tackles ongoing questions about how local perspectives on contemporary art from the Middle East are defined and how these perspectives intersect with global art discourses Inside leading figures from the Middle Eastern art world western art historians art theorists and museum curators discuss the historical and cultural circumstances which have shaped contemporary art from the Middle East reflecting on recent exhibitions and curatorial projects and revealing how artists have struggled with the label of Middle Eastern Artist Chapters reflect on the fundamental methodologies of art history and cultural studies considering how relevant they are when studying contemporary art from the Middle East and investigate the ways in which contemporary so called global theories impact on the making of art in the region Drawing on their unique expertise the book s contributors offer completely new perspectives on the most recent cultural intellectual and socio political developments of contemporary art from the Middle East

Art of the Middle East Saeb Eigner, 2010 Artistic expression in the Middle East is experiencing something of a renaissance Domestic patronage is flourishing and an impressive array of new museums and art fairs across the region is helping to stimulate international interest in an increasingly influential movement Art of the Middle East is an accessible overview of modern and contemporary art of the Middle East and Arab world from 1945 to the present with an emphasis on artists active today The featured works are divided into seven themed sections including literature portraiture and the body and politics conflict and war while extended captions provide an engaging commentary on each artwork and the artist behind its creation Lavishly illustrated throughout this landmark publication is an authoritative guide to a challenging and exciting body of work

Street Art in the Middle East Sabrina De Turk, 2019 Since the 2011 Arab Spring street art has been a vehicle for political discourse in the Middle East and has generated much discussion in both the popular media and academia Yet this conversation has generalised street art and identified it as a singular form with identical styles and objectives throughout the region Street art's purpose is however defined by the socio cultural circumstances of its production Middle Eastern artists thus adopt distinctive methods in creating their individual work and responding to their individual environments Here in this new book Sabrina De Turk employs rigorous visual analysis to explore the diversity of Middle Eastern street art and uses case studies of countries as varied as Egypt Tunisia Lebanon Palestine Bahrain and Oman to illustrate how geographic specifics impact upon its function and aesthetic Her book will be of significant interest to scholars specialising in art from the Middle East and North Africa and those who bring an interdisciplinary perspective to Middle East studies Bloomsbury Publishing

Geometry and Art, 2019-06-18 A comprehensive survey on Islamic geometry in modern and contemporary art In a groundbreaking volume about the use of Islamic geometry in modern and contemporary art from the region Middle East art expert and Sotheby's Deputy Chairman Roxane Zand and Dr Sussan Babaie professor of Islamic arts at the Courtauld Institute of Art of the University of London explore ways in which traditional geometric legacies are applied and interpreted in new contexts Dr Babaie's scholarly essay traces the significance of geometry in the history of Islamic arts looking at the emergence of modernisms of the Middle East through the prism of selected works by twenty artists and their multidisciplinary practices Their works underscore the distinctive ways geometry a universal heritage has inspired the art of the region Lavishly illustrated and bound the book is aimed at both the general user and those with academic interest

Art, Technology, and Language across the Middle East Greg Baldino, 2016-12-15 Many Westerners are unaware of the diversity of language and art across the Middle East Arabic dialects differ based on region and country and many other Semitic and non Semitic languages are spoken across the Middle East Art and technology also develop based on distinct cultural ethnic and socioeconomic influences This book examines art technology and language on a per country basis to show students the richness and diversity of culture across the region

The Art of the Middle East Including Persia, Mesopotamia and Palestine Sir Leonard Woolley, 1961

Reflections VENETIA. PORTER, Charles Tripp, Natasha Morris, 2021-01-05 Reflections Contemporary Art of the Middle East and North Africa brings together an extraordinary collection of work from the British Museum for the first time The contemporary art of the Middle East and North Africa is rich and vibrant Whether living in their countries of birth or in diaspora the featured artists are part of the globalised world of art Here we see artists responding to and making work about their present histories traditions and cultures reflecting on a part of the world that has experienced extraordinary change in living memory The British Museum has been acquiring the work of Middle Eastern and North African artists since the 1980s and the collection principally works on paper is one of the most extensive in the public sphere Collected within the context of a museum of history the works offer insights into the nature of civil societies the complex politics of the region and cultural traditions in their broadest sense from the relationship with Islamic art to the deep engagement with literature The introduction to the book by curator Venetia Porter explores the history of the collection and the works included The essential framework for understanding the politics and context within which the artists are working is provided by Charles Tripp s essay The works are grouped into seven chapters each beginning with a short introduction The authors explore the selection within themes such as faith abstraction and the female gaze

The World between Empires Blair Fowlkes-Childs, Michael Seymour, 2019-03-18 The World between Empires presents a new perspective on the art and culture of the Middle East in the years 100 B C A D 250 a time marked by the struggle for control by the Roman and Parthian Empires For the first time this book weaves together the cultural histories of the cities along the great incense and silk routes that connected southwestern Arabia Nabataea Judaea Syria and Mesopotamia It captures the intricate web of influence and religious diversity that emerged in the Middle East through the exchange of goods and ideas And for our current age when several of the archaeological sites featured here including Palmyra Dura Europos and Hatra have been subject to deliberate destruction and looting it addresses the crucial subject of preserving what has been lost and contextualizes the significance of these works on a local and global scale This essential volume features 186 objects of exceptional importance from Europe the Middle East and the United States Readers are taken on a fascinating journey that explores sites of intense political and religious struggles against Roman rule as well as important religious centers and military bulwarks of the Parthian Empire Reaching across two millennia The World between Empires brings vividly to life how individuals and cities in ancient times defined themselves and how these factors continue to resonate today p p1 margin 0 0px 0 0px 0 0px 0 0px font 14 0px Verdana
