instead become reinvented in our global times The cries of freedom can still be heard in a multitude of places from the Arab Spring to the Occupy Movement and from the protests against European austerity to the current popularity of human rights Stevenson also argues that the idea of freedom has become increasingly mobile in our interconnected and transnational society The spaces and places of civil society are more complex in this global age pushing ideas of freedom far beyond the usual arena of national politics This volume brings together a diverse range of cultural interpretations in respect of freedom related to the idea of the commons cosmopolitanism contemporary documentary cinema and the history of jazz music

Exploring the ways in which notions of freedom are being re made within the context of the present and looking more precisely at the current threats to freedom it will be of interest to students and scholars of globalization human rights and cultural sociology Writing Jazz Sascha Feinstein,2025-03-01 Writing Jazz presents interviews with fourteen distinguished jazz scholars Whitney Balliett Bob Blumenthal Stanley Crouch Linda Dahl Maxine Gordon Farah Jasmine Griffin John Edward Hasse Willard Jenkins Hettie Jones Robin D G Kelley Laurie Pepper Tom Piazza Ricky Riccardi and A B Spellman This literary jam session explores the many challenges and thrills of writing about jazz in various prose forms including liner notes memoirs biographies and critical guides The distinguished writers interviewed in this collection obviously share a passion for jazz and each has produced a hefty amount of literature that illuminates both the music and its practitioners A well known writer on jazz Sascha Feinstein has explored the relationship of jazz and literature throughout his career making Writing Jazz an essential contribution to the field of jazz related literature

Outside and Inside Representations of Race and Identity in White Jazz Autobiography is the first full length study of key autobiographies of white jazz musicians White musicians from a wide range of musical social and economic backgrounds looked to black music and culture as the model on which to form their personal identities and their identities as professional musicians Their accounts illustrate the triumphs and failures of jazz interracialism As they describe their relationships with black musicians who are their teachers and peers white jazz autobiographers display the contradictory attitudes of reverence and entitlement and deference and insensitivity that remain part of the white response to black culture to the present day

Outside and Inside features insights into the development of jazz styles and culture in the urban meccas of twentieth century jazz in New Orleans Chicago New York and Los Angeles Reva Marin considers the autobiographies of sixteen white male jazz instrumentalists including renowned swing era bandleaders Benny Goodman Artie Shaw and Charlie Barnet reed instrumentalists Mezz Mezzrow Bob Wilber and Bud Freeman trumpeters Max Kaminsky and Wingy Manone guitarist Steve Jordan pianists Art Hodes and Don Asher saxophonist Art Pepper guitarist and bandleader Eddie Condon and New Orleans style clarinetist Tom Sancton While critical race theory informs this work Marin argues that viewing these texts simply through the lens of white privilege does not do justice to the kind of sustained relationships with black music and culture described in the accounts of white jazz autobiographers She both insists upon the value of insider perspectives and holds the texts to rigorous scrutiny while embracing an expansive interpretation of white involvement in black culture Marin opens new paths for study of race relations and racial ethnic and gender identity formation in jazz studies     The Bitter End Paul Colby,2002-05-06 The tale of the famous Greenwich Village coffeehouse turned nightclub The Bitter End is also the story of the club s manager and owner Paul Colby From the early 60s to the 90s the Bitter End hosted a wide range of influential music and comedy acts that reflected the changing creative atmosphere of the Village and the country beyond Pete Seeger made frequent appearances and Peter Paul and Mary debuted at the club during the height of the folk music boom around the same time that Woody Allen and Bill Cosby were headlining with their very different but equally popular stand up acts After the British Invasion made rock the pre eminent music in the land Colby booked electrified folk and rock performers such as Neil Young Carly Simon Kris Kristofferson and many others Throughout the years Colby kept up such strong friendships with the artists that they often returned as patrons when they weren t performing the most famous local regular being Bob Dylan The stories Colby shares of his amazing years running the Bitter End provide an insider s personal
