Robert Longo William Gibson, 1991 Robert Longo Robert Longo, William Gibson, 1991-08 William Gibson Gary Westfahl, 2013-08-16 The leading figure in the development of cyberpunk William Gibson born in 1948 crafted works in which isolated humans explored near future worlds of ubiquitous and intrusive computer technology and cybernetics This volume is the first comprehensive examination of the award winning author of the seminal novel Neuromancer and the other books in the Sprawl trilogy Count Zero and Mona Lisa Overdrive as well as other acclaimed novels including recent bestsellers Pattern Recognition Spook Country and Zero History Renowned scholar Gary Westfahl draws upon extensive research to provide a compelling account of Gibson's writing career and his lasting influence in the science fiction world Delving into numerous science fiction fanzines that the young Gibson contributed to and edited Westfahl delivers new information about his childhood and adolescence He describes for the first time more than eighty virtually unknown Gibson publications from his early years including articles reviews poems cartoons letters and a collaborative story The book also documents the poems articles and introductions that Gibson has written for various books and its discussions are enriched by illuminating comments from various print and online interviews The works that made Gibson famous are also featured as Westfahl performs extended analyses of Gibson's ten novels and nineteen short stories Lastly the book presents a new interview with Gibson in which the author discusses his correspondence with author Fritz Leiber his relationship with the late scholar Susan Wood his attitudes toward critics his overall impact on the field of science fiction and his recently completed screenplay and forthcoming novel Robert Longo Carter Ratcliff, Robert Longo, 1985 The Gendered Cyborg Fiona Hovenden, Linda Janes, Gill Kirkup, Kathryn Woodward, 2013-09-13 The Gendered Cyborg explores the relationship between representation technoscience and gender through the metaphor of the cyborg The contributors argue that the figure of the cyborg offers ways of thinking about the relationship between culture and technology people and machines which disrupt the power of science to enforce the categories through which we think about being human male and female Taking inspiration from Donna Haraway's groundbreaking Manifesto for Cyborgs the articles consider how the cyborg has been used in cultural representation from reproductive technology to sci fi and question whether the cyborg is as powerful a symbol as is often claimed The different sections of the reader explore the construction of gender categories through science the interaction of technoscience and gender in contemporary science fiction film such as Blade Runner and the Alien series debates around modern reproductive technology such as ultrasound scans and IVF assessing their benefits and constraints for women issues relating to artificial intelligence and the internet Japan English Publications in Print, 1998 Robert Longo Robert Longo, 1984 Reading Basquiat Jordana Moore Saggese, 2021-04-06 Before his death at the age of twenty seven Jean Michel Basquiat completed nearly 2 000 works These unique compositions collages of text and gestural painting across a variety of media quickly made Basquiat one of the most important and widely known artists of the 1980s Reading Basquiat provides a new approach to understanding the range and impact of this artist's practice as well as its complex relationship to several key artistic and ideological debates of the late twentieth century including the instability of identity the role of appropriation and the boundaries of expressionism Jordana Moore Saggese argues that Basquiat once known as the black Picasso probes not only the boundaries of blackness but also the boundaries of American art Weaving together the artist's interests in painting writing and music this groundbreaking book expands the parameters of aesthetic discourse to consider the parallels Basquiat found among these disciplines in his exploration of the production of meaning Most important Reading Basquiat traces the ways in which Basquiat constructed large parts of his identity as a black man as a musician as a painter and as a writer via the manipulation of texts in his own library 三浦 雅也 (Japan),1997

After the Revolution Eleanor Heartney,Helaine Posner,Nancy Princenthal,Sue Scott,2013-11-04 Why Have There Been No Great Women Artists asked the prominent art historian Linda Nochlin in a provocative 1971 essay Today her insightful critique serves as a benchmark against which the progress of women artists may be measured In this book four prominent critics and curators describe the impact of women artists on contemporary art since the advent of the feminist movement

A Canon of Our Own , Artxpress ,1981 New York Magazine ,1982-11-01 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Cybersexualities Jenny Wolmark,1999 Cyberspace the cyborg and cyberpunk have given feminists new imaginative possibilities for thinking about embodiment and identity in relation to technology This is the first anthology of the key essays on these potent metaphors Divided into three sections Technology Embodiment and Cyberspace Cybersubjects Cyborgs and Cyberpunks Cyborg Futures the book addresses different aspects of the human technology interface The extensive introduction surveys the ways cyborg and cyberspace metaphors have been used in relation to current critical theory and indicates the context for the specific essays This is an invaluable guide for students studying any aspects of contemporary theory and culture Brings together in a unique collection the work of key authors in feminist and cyber theory Demonstrates the wide range of contemporary critical work Challenges constructions of gender race and class An extensive introduction surveys the ways cyborg and cyberspace metaphors have been used in relation to current critical theory Brief section introductions indicate the context for the specific essays The Rise of Cable Programming in the United States Megan Mullen,2003-06-01 In 1971 the Sloan Commission on Cable Communications likened the ongoing developments in cable television to the first uses of movable type and the invention of the telephone Cable's proponents in the late 1960s and early 1970s hoped it would eventually remedy all the perceived ills of broadcast television including lowest common denominator programming inability to serve the needs of local audiences and failure to recognize the needs of cultural minorities Yet a quarter century after the blue sky era cable television programming closely resembled and indeed depended upon broadcast television programming Whatever happened to the Sloan Commission's revolution now in sight In this book Megan Mullen examines the first half century of cable television to understand why cable never achieved its promise as a radically different means of communication Using textual analysis and oral archival and regulatory history she chronicles and analyzes cable programming developments in the United States during three critical stages of the medium's history the early community antenna CATV years 1948-1967 the optimistic blue sky years 1968-1975 and the early satellite years 1976-1995 This history clearly reveals how cable's roots as a retransmitter of broadcast signals the regulatory constraints that stymied innovation and the economic success of cable as an outlet for broadcast or broadcast type programs all combined to defeat most utopian visions for cable programming

Art Random Robert Longo: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have captivated audiences this year. Art Random Robert Longo : Colleen Hoover "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Art Random Robert Longo : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Art Random Robert Longo : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and thrilling novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
