Approaching Postmodernism Douwe Wessel Fokkema, Johannes Willem Bertens, 1986 Most of the essays collected in this volume deal with theoretical issues that dominate the international debate on Postmodernism issues such as the shifting nature of the concept the problem of periodization and the problem of historicity Other essays offer readings of Postmodernist texts and relate practical criticism to a theoretical framework Hans Bertens Utrecht sketches the historical development of the concept Postmodernism in American criticism distinguishing between the various definitions that have been proposed over the last twenty five years in an attempt to bring some order to the field and to facilitate future discussion Brian McHale Tel Aviv and Douwe Fokkema Utrecht offer models for the description of Postmodernist texts Richard Todd Amsterdam argues convincingly that Postmodernism is much more of a presence in contemporary British fiction than has so far been assumed and Herta Schmid Munich presents a similar argument with respect to Russian avant garde theater Elrud Ibsch Amsterdam presents a contrastive analysis of Thomas Bernhard and Robert Musil Ulla Musarra Nijmegen writes on

Italo Calvino The relation between Existentialism and Postmodernism is examined by Gerhard Hoffman Wurzburg Theo D haen Utrecht finds important parallels between Postmodernism in literature and in the visual arts Matei Calinescu Bloomington Ind relates literary Postmodernism to a far more general cultural shift rejecting however Foucault's notion of an epistemic break and arguing for both continuity and discontinuity Finally Helmut Lethen Utrecht and Susan Suleiman Harvard sharply question the concept of Postmodernism Suleiman argues that the supposed Postmodernist reaction against Modernism may well be a critical myth or if it isn't a reaction limited to the American literary situation

Art and Pluralism Nigel Whiteley, 2012 Through studying Lawrence Alloway's writings we can trace some of the major shifts in art and cultural values in the 1950s 1960s and 1970s

Photography after Postmodernism David Bate, 2022-08-19 In life after postmodernism our conception of photography is not the same as before Photography After Postmodernism starts with this conception and explores what changes have affected photography its relation to social life and our image centred culture Engaging with the visual environment and issues that have emerged in the postmodern world David Bate introduces fresh approaches and analysis of photographs and their place within the aftermath of postmodernist thought The book shows how photographs circulate in an image world beyond their art or media origins that deeply affects our sense of time and relation to memory The role of archives dreams memories and time are deployed to develop and resituate arguments about photography made by Roland Barthes in Camera Lucida to further engage and understand our contemporary condition By considering how afterwordness is invoked in the developments of modern and contemporary photography Bate demonstrates the complex ways in which photographic images resonate across public and private spaces while carrying a slippage of meaning that is never quite fixed yet always contingent and social The approach shows how modernist photography was already invested in values that its discourse could not enunciate which resonates with much contemporary photography today Featuring a range of historical and contemporary images the book offers detailed and innovative readings of specific photographs which open new avenues of thought for those studying and researching visual culture and photography

The Dismemberment of Orpheus Ihab Hassan, 1982 In this book the first edition of which was published in 1971 by Oxford University Press Ihab Hassan takes Orphic dismemberment and regeneration as his metaphor for a radical crisis in art and language culture and consciousness which prefigures postmodern literature The modern Orpheus he writes sings on a lyre without strings Thus his sensitive critique traces a hypothetical line from Sade through four modern authors Hemingway Kafka Genet and Beckett to a literature still to come But the line also breaks into two Interludes one concerning Pataphysics Dada and Surrealism and the other concerning Existentialism and Aliterature Combining literary history brief biography and critical analysis Hassan surrounds these authors with a complement of avant garde writers whose works also foreshadow the postmodern temper These include Jarry Apollinaire Tzara Breton Sartre Camus Nathalie Sarraute Robbe Grillet and in America Cage Salinger Ginsberg Barth and Burroughs Hassan takes account also of related contemporary developments in art music and philosophy and of many works of literary theory and criticism For this new edition Hassan has added a new preface and postface on the developing character of postmodernism a concept which has gained currency since the first edition of this work and which he himself has done much to theorize Modern/Postmodern Peter V. Zima,2010-08-05

Postmodernist Turn J. David Hoeveler, Jr.,2004-10-05 During the 1970s the United States became the world's preeminent postindustrial society The new conditions changed the way Americans lived and worked and even their perceptions of reality Americans struggled to find their place in a world where symbol became more important than fact appearance more important than reality where image supplanted essence In this reassessment of a little studied decade J David Hoeveler Jr finds that the sense of detachment and dislocation that characterizes the postindustrial society serves as a paradigm for American thought and culture in the 1970s The book examines major developments in literary theory philosophy architecture and painting as expressions of a 1970s consciousness Hoeveler also explores the rival political readings of these subjects and considers the postmodernist phenomenon as it became an ideological battleground in the decade Clear and engaging the work will be of great interest to historians theorists and everyone who wants to further explore the 1970s Art Of The Postmodern Era Irving Sandler,2018-05-30 Sandler discusses the major and minor artists and their works movements ideas attitudes and styles and the social and cultural context of the period He covers post modernist art theory the art market and consumer society American and European art and artists are included
