Buddhist Faith and Sudden Enlightenment

Sung-bae Park,1983-01-01 Buddhist Faith and Sudden Enlightenment explains how sudden enlightenment occurs through the awakening of patriarchal faith This is the non dual affirmation that one is already Buddha as opposed to the doctrinal dualistic faith that one can become Buddha The essence of the presentation is that patriarchal faith forms the basis for sudden enlightenment in Zen meditation For the practitioner this book establishes the Zen method of mind cultivation on a higher level by introducing a new understanding of awakening right faith Included is extensive material on the history of faith in Buddhism with the main attention devoted to Ch an Zen and Hua yen There are also substantial discussions of Buddhist antecedents to these schools and of the Pure Land School This is the first book in English to examine the central role of faith in Mahayana Buddhism The author s approach develops from his personal experiences as a son Zen monk of the Chogye order which was heavily influenced by the integration of meditation and scriptural study established by Chinul

The Concept of Self in Hinduism, Buddhism, and Christianity and Its Implication for Interfaith Relations

Kiseong Shin,2017-05-05 This is the first comparative study of the self and no self in Hinduism Buddhism and Christianity In spite of doctrinal differences within these three belief systems they agree that human beings are in a predicament from which they need to be liberated Indian religions including Hinduism and Buddhism share the belief that human nature is inherently perfectible while the epistemological and psychological limitation of the human being is integral to Christian belief Regarding the immortality of the human being Hinduism and Christianity traditionally and generally agree that human beings as atman or soul possess intrinsic immortality On the contrary Buddhism teaches the doctrine of no self anatta Further in their quest to analyze the human predicament and attempt a way out of it they employ different concepts such as sin and salvation in Christianity attachment tanka and enlightenment nirvana in Buddhism and ignorance avidya and liberation moksa in Hinduism This volume seeks to show that that behind these concepts are deep concerns related to human existence and its relationship with the whole creation These common concerns can be a basis for a greater understanding and dialogue between Christians Hindus and Buddhists

Chung,2008-02-02 Martin Luther and Buddhism Aesthetics of Suffering carefully traces the historical and theological context of Luther s breakthrough in terms of articulating justification and justice in connection to the Word of God and divine suffering Chung critically and constructively engages in dialogue with Luther and with later interpreters of Luther such as Barth and Moltmann placing the Reformer in dialogue not only with Asian spirituality and religions but also with emerging global theology of religions The Buddha Within Susan K. Hookham,1991-05-30 Tathagatagarbha Buddha Nature is a central concept of Mahayana Buddhism crucial to all the living practice traditions of Tibetan and Zen Buddhism Its relationship to the concept of emptiness has been a subject of controversy for seven hundred years Dr Hookham s work investigates the divergent interpretations of these concepts and the way the Tibetan tradition is resolving them In particular she does this with reference to the only surviving Indian commentary on the Tathagatagarbha doctrine the Ratnagotravibhaga This text addresses itself directly to the issue of how to relate the doctrine of emptiness the illusory nature of the world to that of the truly existing changeless Absolute the Buddha Nature This is the first work by a Western writer to present an analysis of the Shentong tradition based on previously untranslated sources The Shentong view rests on meditative experience that is inaccessible to the conceptualizing mind It is deeply rooted in the sutra tradition of Indian Buddhism and is central to an understanding of the Mahamudra and Dzogchen traditions and Tantric practice among Kagyupas and Hyingmapas Korea's Great Buddhist-Confucian Debate A. Charles Muller,2015-05-31 This volume makes available in English the seminal treatises in Korea s greatest interreligious debate of the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries On Mind Material Force and Principle and An Array of Critiques of Buddhism by Confucian statesman Ch ng Toj n 1342 1398 and Exposition of Orthodoxy by S n monk Kihwa 1376 1433 are presented here with extensive annotation A substantial introduction provides a summary and analysis of the philosophical positions of both Neo Confucianism and Buddhism as well as a germane history of the interactions between these two traditions in East Asia offering insight into religious tensions that persist to this day Translator A Charles Muller shows how from the time Confucianism and Buddhism met in China these thought systems existed along with Daoism in a competing relationship that featured significant mutual influence A confrontative situation eventually developed in China wherein Confucian leaders began to criticize Buddhism During the late Koryŏ and early Chosŏn periods in Korea the Neo Confucian polemic became the driving force in the movement to oust Buddhism from its position as Korea's state religion In his essays Ch'ng drew together the gamut of arguments that had been made against Buddhism throughout its long history in Korea Kihwa's essay met Neo Confucian contentions with an articulate Buddhist response Thus in a rare moment in the history of religions a true philosophical debate ensued This debate was made possible based upon the two religions shared philosophical paradigm essence function ch'e yong This traditional East Asian way of interpreting society events phenomena human beings and the world understands all things to have both essence and function two contrasting yet wholly contiguous and mutually containing components All three East Asian traditions took this as their underlying philosophical paradigm and it is through this paradigm that they evaluated and criticized each other's doctrines and practices Specialists in philosophy religion and Korean studies will appreciate Muller's exploration of this pivotal moment in Korean intellectual history Because it includes a broad overview of the interactive history of East Asian religions this book can also serve as a general introduction to East Asian philosophical thought

Constructing Irregular Theology Paul Chung, 2009-10-26 The project of constructing Asian irregular theology in East Asian perspective based on life word of Bamboo and social political reality of minjung embraces Dr Chung's cross cultural existence as he develops his long standing interest and expertise in Christian minjung theology in new ways with the image of bamboo as a symbol for the theological perspective of grass roots marginality Using the ancient Chinese story The Seven Sages of the Bamboo Grove Dr Chung engages with Christian eschatological discourse to support an aesthetical utopian theological ethics that is opposed to an ethics concerned with legitimation of a socio economic status quo In addition Dr Chung's develops his deep commitment to the Lutheran theology of the cross and the suffering Christ through the Buddhist concept of dukkha suffering to create in the end a genuinely East Asian contextual theology existence of seemingly conflicting ideas and ideals Christianity and Buddhism sexual liberalism and religious celibacy among others In Reflections of a Zen Buddhist Nun Iry p challenges readers with her creative interpretations of Buddhist doctrine and her reflections on the meaning of Buddhist practice In the process she offers insight into a time when the ideas and contributions of women to twentieth century Korean society and intellectual life were just beginning to emerge from the shadows where they had been obscured in the name of modernization and nation building

The Tao and the Daimon

Robert Cummings Neville, 1983-06-30 The Tao and the Daimon examines a central theme in religious studies the question of the authority and authenticity of traditional religious faith and practice tao in light of the challenge from the spirit of critical reason Socrates daimon From a non judgmental historical standpoint it develops the dialectical relation between religion and rational inquiry Neville employs a philosophical system to set a task for reflection making it possible to see how Eastern and Western religious traditions differ overlap contradict and reinforce one another The central chapters are detailed studies of theologically interesting elements in Christianity Buddhism taoism and Neoconfucianism How can one judge of the higher truths of another religion without having practiced it Can the tao and the daimon after all be reconciled purely in the conceptual realm of speculative philosophy Neville recognizes the very real differences between conceptualizing and practicing and the very real differences in understanding that can result At the same time he transcends the problem by identifying and exemplifying in his own work speculative philosophy as a tao in itself a new locus of religious significance our own scholarly interpretation new creations of the holy out of practiced scholarly piety toward the old

The Zen Monastic Experience

Robert E. Buswell, Jr., 2020-07-21 Robert Buswell a Buddhist scholar who spent five years as a Zen monk in Korea draws on personal experience in this insightful account of day to day Zen monastic practice In discussing the activities of the postulants the meditation monks the teachers and administrators and the support monks of the monastery of Songgwang sa Buswell reveals a religious tradition that differs radically from the stereotype prevalent in the West The author s treatment lucidly relates contemporary Zen practice to the historical development of the tradition and to Korean history more generally and his portrayal of the life of modern Zen monks in Korea provides an innovative and provocative look at Zen from the inside Mahayana Buddhism Paul Williams,2008-07-11 Originating in India Mahayana Buddhism spread across Asia becoming the prevalent form of Buddhism in Tibet and East Asia Over the last twenty five years Western interest in Mahayana has increased considerably reflected both in the quantity of scholarly material produced and in the attraction of Westerners towards Tibetan Buddhism and Zen Paul Williams Mahayana Buddhism is widely regarded as the standard introduction to the field used internationally for teaching and research and has been translated into several European and Asian languages This new edition has been fully revised throughout in the light of the wealth of new studies and focuses on the religion s diversity and richness It includes much more material on China and Japan with appropriate reference to Nepal and for students who wish to carry their study further there is a much expanded bibliography and extensive footnotes and cross referencing Everyone studying this important tradition will find Williams book the ideal companion to their studies Visions of Awakening Space and Time Taigen Dan Leighton,2008-12-31 As a religion concerned with universal liberation Zen grew out of a Buddhist worldview very different from the currently prevalent scientific materialism Indeed says Taigen Dan Leighton Zen cannot be fully understood outside of a worldview that sees reality itself as a vital dynamic agent of awareness and healing In this book Leighton explicates that worldview through the writings of the Zen master Eihei D gen 1200 1253 considered the founder of the Japanese S t Zen tradition which currently enjoys increasing popularity in the West The Lotus Sutra arguably the most important Buddhist scripture in East Asia contains a famous story about bodhisattvas enlightening beings who emerge from under the earth to preserve and expound the Lotus teaching in the distant future The story reveals that the Buddha only appears to pass away but actually has been practicing and will continue to do so over an inconceivably long life span Leighton traces commentaries on the Lotus Sutra from a range of key East Asian Buddhist thinkers including Daosheng Zhiyi Zhanran Saigyo My e Nichiren Hakuin and Ry kan But his main focus is Eihei D gen the 13th century Japanese S t Zen founder who imported Zen from China and whose profuse provocative and poetic writings are important to the modern expansion of Buddhism to the West D gen s use of this sutra expresses the critical role of Mahayana vision and imagination as the context of Zen teaching and his interpretations of this story furthermore reveal his dynamic worldview of the earth space and time themselves as vital agents of spiritual awakening Leighton argues that D gen uses the images and metaphors in this story to express his own religious worldview in which earth space and time are lively agents in the bodhisattva project Broader awareness of D gen s worldview and its implications says Leighton can illuminate the possibilities for contemporary approaches to primary Mahayana concepts and practices The Buddhist Forum T.
