Buddy Babylon:

Judi McMahon, 2011-12 I compare this book to Mary McCarthy's The Group and feel it has every chance to be a mini series or as a big screen blockbuster. It's also perhaps the finest description of addiction and its effects on lovers, family and friends in contemporary American fiction. Use that quote in any manner you wish. John Frederick, Documentary Producer, California. This book is incredible. I read it twice. First very fast. The second time I couldn't believe that you can be so uplifting, almost like Dr. Wayne Dyer, not only great with your quotes but your fiction is alive all the time. It reminded me of my own life story, my first marriage and surviving with two smart, handsome boys in a tough city like New York. Eva Pollack, Physical Therapist, New York. I wanted to tell you that I read the first five chapters of your book and I couldn't stop reading, though I am in the midst of moving. Though I spent many years in NYC, City, it was at a later period. I am European. Yet I loved the very human qualities of this dysfunctional family, the Brooklyn touches and certainly the Yiddish terms I used to hear from all my Jewish friends. It is all sooo New York. I'm looking forward to reading the rest. Annouk Van de Voorde, Belgian writer who grew up in Africa and now lives in Arizona.

New York Magazine, 1981-12-21 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country. With award-winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion, the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea.

25 Years of 22 Minutes Angela Mombourquette, 2017-11-01 A great read for anyone who is a fan of the long-running Canadian comedy series or just TV comedy in general. Brioux tv. The final chaotic season of Codco had just wrapped when Mary Walsh sat down at a Toronto bistro with George Anthony, then creative head of CBC TV's arts programming. She'd been thinking about a news-based comedy show; did he think that would fly? He did. That was the early 90s. Twenty-five seasons later, hundreds of thousands of Canadians continue to tune in weekly to This Hour Has 22 Minutes for its unashamedly Canadian, biting, satirical take on politics and power. 25 Years of 22 Minutes takes readers backstage to hear first-hand accounts of the show's key moments in the words of the writers, producers, and cast members who were there. Readers will have a front-row seat to the birth of the show, including a crisis that had producers scrambling in the very first episode, and offer an insider's take on the highs, the lows, and the daily grind behind the scenes at 22 Minutes. A book that stands as a shining testament to the many behind-the-scenes figures who've made the show tick for 25 years. Halifax Examiner. The book includes unvarnished accounts of cast rivalries, off-air pranks, fast food with prime ministers, and satirical moments that influenced the real Canadian news.
